Consolation Michael Redhill, 2009-02-24 There is a vast part of this city with mouths buried in it Mouths capable of speaking to us But we stop them up with concrete and build over them and whatever it is they wanted to say gets whispered down empty alleys and turns into wind These are among the last words of Professor David Hollis before he throws himself off a ferry into the frigid waters of Lake Ontario A renowned professor of forensic geology David leaves in his wake both a historical mystery and an academic scandal He postulated that on the site where a sports arena is about to be built lie the ruins of a Victorian boat containing an extraordinary treasure a strongbox full of hundreds of never seen photographs of early Toronto a priceless record of a lost city His colleagues however are convinced that he faked his research materials Determined to vindicate him his widow Marianne sets up camp in a hotel overlooking the construction site watching and waiting for the boat to be unearthed The only person to share her vigil is John Lewis fiancé to her daughter Bridget An orphan who had come to love David as his own father John finds himself caught in a struggle between mother and daughter all the while keeping a dark secret from both women Interwoven into the contemporary story is another narrative set in 1850s the tale of Jem Hallam a young apothecary struggling to make a living in the harsh new city so he can bring his wife and daughters from England Crushed by ruthless competitors he develops an unlikely friendship with two other down on their luck Torontonians Samuel Ennis a brilliant but dissolute Irishman and Claudia Rowe a destitute widow Together they establish a photography business and set out to create images of a fledgling city where wooden sidewalks are put together with penny nails where Indians spear salmon at the river mouth and the occasional bear ambles down King Street where department stores display international wares and fine mansions sit cheek by jowl with shantytowns Consolation moves back and forth between David Hollis's legacy and Jem Hallam's struggle to survive ultimately revealing a mysterious connection between the two narratives Exquisitely crafted and masterfully written Michael Redhill's superlative book reveals how history is often transformed into a species of fantasy and how time alters the contours of even the things we hold most certain As complex and layered as the city whose story it tells Consolation evokes the mysteries of love and memory and what suffering the absence of the beloved truly means History of Cumberland and Adams Counties, Pennsylvania, 1886

laborers and ethnic minorities playing styles that blended the intertwining strands of Europe Africa Asia and the Americas These recordings form the bedrock for modern music as we know it but during the Depression many record companies went out of business and more than ninety percent of the fragile 78 rpm discs were destroyed Fortunately thanks to the continuing efforts of cultural detectives and record devotees the stories of America s earliest musicians can finally be told Bernard MacMahon and Allison McGourty who directed and produced the documentary with American musician Duke Erikson spent years traveling around the US in search of recollections of those musical pioneers Their fascinating account written with the assistance of prize winning author Elijah Wald continues the journey of the series and features additional stories never before seen photographs and unearthed artwork It also contains contributions from many of the musicians who participated including Taj Mahal Nas Willie Nelson and Steve Martin plus a behind the scenes look at the incredible journey across America American Epic is an extraordinary testament to our country s musical roots the transformation of our culture and the artists who gave us modern popular music

In Strength And Shadow David Roach,Mervyn Davies,2012-11-02 Few rugby players have matched the achievements of Welshman Mervyn Davies the shrewd gutsy number 8 with the heart of a lion In what was a remarkable career he won two Grand Slams three Triple Crowns earned thirty eight consecutive Wales caps was captain of his national team and played in two victorious Lions tours From the tail end of the 1960s through the first half of the glorious 70s period Merv the Swerve with that mop of black hair and trademark headband cut an iconic figure in the world s great rugby arenas Teammates and opponents respected him fans loved him and he was a natural leader of men both on and off the field Then in March 1976 everything changed Mervyn was leading Swansea in a semi final cup clash when he suffered a massive brain haemorrhage He began that fateful Sunday preparing for just another high profile game but ended it fighting for his life Wales and the watching sporting world could do nothing but wait and hope And just when the odds seemed stacked irreversibly against him Mervyn did what he had always done he beat them Mervyn s life story is one of what was and what might have been From locker room tales to the loneliness of rehabilitation Mervyn s account is funny moving and honest He writes about his many highs and lows about losing rugby but regaining his life and shares his thoughts on the days he spent in shadow and in strength
