Suffrage Susan L. Poulson, 2019-09-03 Four generations of women fought for the right to vote This book shows how their grand reform effort overcame resistance from traditionalists fearing social decay religious leaders citing scriptural prohibitions and a stodgy political establishment reluctant to share power What was it like to be among the founders of the women s movement in the middle of the nineteenth century with no script to follow and self doubt dogging their every move This book not only reminds us of the laws that conspired against women s equality in the post Civil War United States but it also illustrates through the eyes of the suffragists themselves the cultural and religious norms that had held women in second class status for centuries Early suffragists grappled with isolation and outright hostility as they lectured around the nation even as they tried to reassure the public that politicized women would still serve the family Others espoused outrage by organizing public protests This book shows how lasting political change comes about through a combination of working from within the system and outside of it and deftly illustrates the tensions within the movement Although the vote was finally won in 1920 it was not without tremendous sacrifice The book lays bare the strategies that led to the single minded focus on the vote and the consequences of postponing action on so many other issues that remained for later generations to address including reproductive freedom labor rights and equal pay

Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport, 2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world, illuminating the broad range of women's struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present. Despite being marginalized, disenfranchised, impoverished, and oppressed, women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change. This two-volume encyclopedia documents the visions, struggles, and lives of women who have changed the world. This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe, women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be. Nadeshda Krupskaya, the wife of Lenin, spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post-revolutionary Russia. American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement. Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls' school in Calcutta in 1911. Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring. The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world.
