Ludic Feminism And After Postmodernism Desire And Labor In Late Capitalism:

Ludic Feminism and After Teresa L. Ebert, 1996 A provocative and controversial challenge to postmodern academic feminism     John Barth and Postmodernism Berndt Clavier, 2007 John Barth's eminence as a postmodernist is indisputable. However, much of the criticism dealing with his work is prompted by his own theories of exhaustion and subsequent replenishment, leaving his writing relatively untouched by theories of postmodernism in general. This book changes that by focusing on the relationship between Barth's aesthetic and the ideology critique of the historical avant-garde, which were the first to mobilize art against itself and its institutional practices and demands. Examining Barth's metafictional parodies in the light of theories of space and subjectivity, Clavier engages the question of ideology critique in postmodernism by offering the montage as a possible model for understanding Barth's fiction. In such a light, postmodernism may well be perceived as a mimesis of reality, particularly a recognition of the collective nature of self and the world.     Critical Keywords in Literary and Cultural Theory Julian Wolfreys, 2017-03-14 This book is an invaluable reference guide for students of literary and cultural studies which introduces over forty of the complex terms, motifs, and concepts in literary and cultural theory today. Critical Keywords in Literary and Cultural Theory Gives students a brief introduction to each concept together with short quotations from the work of key thinkers and critics to stimulate discussion and guide genuine comprehension. Supplies helpful glosses and annotations for each term, concept, or keyword which is discussed. Offers reflective practical questions at the end of each entry to direct the student to consider a particular aspect of the quotations and the concept they address. Provides explanatory notes and bibliographies to aid further research. This essential volume is ideal as both a dip-in reference book and a guide to literary theory for practical classroom use.     Postcolonial Perspectives on Postcommunism in Central and Eastern Europe Dorota Kołodziejczyk, Cristina Șandru, 2017-10-02 A quarter of a century after the fall of the Berlin Wall and from the vantage point of a post-Cold War globalised world, there is a need to address the relative neglect of postcommunism in analysis of postcolonial and neo-colonial configurations of power and influence. This book proposes new critical perspectives on several themes and concepts that have emerged within or been propagated by postcolonial studies. These themes include structures of exclusion/inclusion, formations of nationalism, structures of othering and representations of difference, forms and historical realisations of anti-colonial/anti-imperial struggle, the experience of trauma involving issues of collective memory, amnesia, and the re-writing of history, resistance as a complex of cultural practices and concepts such as alterity, ambivalence, self-colonisation, dislocation, hegemonic discourse, minority and subaltern cultures. Taken together, this volume suggests that some of the methodological instruments of postcolonial criticism can be fruitfully applied to the study of postcommunist cultures and conversely that the experience of the Soviet brand of imperialist rule in the form of communism in East Central Europe can function as an ideological moderator in Third World-oriented Marxist-inspired postcolonial discourses. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Postcolonial Writing.     Feminisms and

Internationalism Mrinalini Sinha, Donna Guy, Angela Woollacott, 1999-08-25 This book addresses the theme of the history of internationalism in feminist theory and praxis covering such topics as the historical concept of internationalism within feminism and women's movements the nature of historical shifts within feminist movements and challenges to internationalism within feminism by women of colour and by women from colonised or formerly colonised countries Eros and Revolution Javier Sethness Castro, 2016-06-10 In Eros and Revolution Javier Sethness Castro presents a comprehensive intellectual and political biography of the world renowned critical theorist Herbert Marcuse 1898-1979 Investigating the origins and development of Marcuse's dialectical approach vis vis Hegel Marx Fourier Heidegger and Freud as well as the central figures of the Frankfurt School Horkheimer Adorno Neumann Fromm and Benjamin Sachs Sethness Castro chronicles the radical philosopher's lifelong activism in favor of anti capitalism anti fascism and anti authoritarianism together with Marcuse's defiant revindication of global libertarian socialist revolution as the precondition for the realization of reason freedom and human happiness Beyond examining Marcuse's revolutionary life and contributions moreover the author contemplates the philosopher's relevance to contemporary struggle especially with regard to ecology feminism anarchism and the general cause of worldwide social transformation Who's Afraid of Women's Studies? Mary Frances Rogers, C. D. Garrett, 2002 In Who's Afraid of Women's Studies the authors ask why there persists a fear of feminism and women's studies in the academy Rogers and Garrett remind us that this field came into being as the result of women's practical efforts of advocacy and activism to represent marginalized excluded and silenced voices They explain the complex relationship between feminism women's studies and their deradicalized offspring gender studies Six broad topics that have dominated the field over the past twenty five years are examined in individual chapters girls and women's bodies anger and desires sexuality identity politics insider backlash and feminist methods The authors challenge women and men alike to reevaluate the concepts and analytical tools available in women's studies that are so uniquely oriented to understanding women's everyday lived experiences They demonstrate how its rich historical and social analyses are the basis for a passionate scholarship one that builds bridges between theory and practice to transform communities women's organizations and social movements This new book will be a stimulating overview of women's studies gender studies and feminist theory as well as a concise introduction to supplement standard texts or anthologies The Palgrave Handbook of Critical International Political Economy Alan Cafruny, Leila Simona Talani, Gonzalo Pozo Martin, 2016-07-05 Challenging the assumptions of mainstream International Political Economy IPE this Handbook demonstrates the considerable value of critical theory to the discipline through a series of cutting edge studies The field of IPE has always had an inbuilt vocation within Historical Materialism with an explicit ambition to make sense from a critical standpoint of the capitalist mode of production as a world system of sometimes paradoxically and sometimes smoothly overlapping states and markets Having spearheaded the growth of a vigorous critical scholarship in the 1960s and 1970s however Marxism and neo Gramscian approaches became increasingly marginalized over the course of the 1980s The authors respond to the exposure of limits to mainstream contemporary scholarship in the wake of the onset of the Global Financial Crisis and provide a comprehensive overview of the field of Critical International Political Economy Problematizing socioeconomic and political structures and considering these as potentially transitory and subject to change the contributors aim not simply to understand a world of conflict but furthermore to uncover the ways in which purportedly objective analyses reflect the interests of those in positions of privilege and power

brought fundamental often traumatic changes for the people in eastern Germany Women as a group were arguably more deeply affected by the changes than any other and in one area in particular that of work which had far reaching effects on them and their families economic situation Rachel Alsop critically examines the processes behind women s changing relationship to the labor market in eastern Germany following the collapse of state socialism and the transition to a market economy By the 1980s women made up virtually half of the East German work force The collapse of the GDR transformed the field of work drastically diminishing the general demand for labor Yet while economic and political restructuring reduced the volume of both male and female employment it was women who bore the brunt of unemployment In the immediate transitional period a re masculinization of the workforce was evident with women constituting the large part of the unemployed Using an extensive range of both quantitative and qualitative data the author explores the gender dynamics of the social economic and political restructuring of eastern Germany thereby producing an important new context in which to examine contemporary debates on gender and work with an interest in discourse theory post colonial theory political philosophy and comparative political thought      Key Thinkers from Critical Theory to Post-Marxism Simon Tormey, Jules Townshend, 2006-06-19 Tormey and Townshend have succeeded not only in making accessible the notoriously evasive ideas of Post Marxist thinkers they have begun the vital work of critically examining their contribution to Marx's project of overcoming capitalism James Martin Goldsmiths University of London Excellent textbook critical challenging and thoroughly engaging Richard White Sheffield Hallam University In language which is clear without being simplistic Tormey and Townshend help readers think about ways to live with and without Marx in the wake of Marxism's historical failures as well as its continuing relevance to life under globalizing capitalism Mark Rupert Syracuse University Key Thinkers in Critical Theory to Post Marxism is a comprehensive introduction to perhaps the most key intellectual trend in contemporary critical theory In jargon free language it seeks to unpack explain and review many of the key figures behind the rethinking of the legacy of Marxism in theory and practice Key thinkers covered include Cornelius Castoriadis Jean Francois Lyotard Deleuze and Guattari Laclau and Mouffe Agnes Heller Jacques Derrida Jürgen Habermas and post Marxist feminism Each chapter covers a key thinker or contribution and thus can be read as a stand alone introduction to the principal aspects of their approach Each chapter is followed by a summary of key points with a guide to further reading Underlying the text is also the central question What is Post Marxism Instead of viewing Post Marxism as an ideology movement or tradition of theorizing the authors advocate Post Marxism as a loose appellation describing those who have problematised Marx's approach to understanding and challenging contemporary capitalism As such the book also offers an engaging commentary on some of the key political developments of our time including for example the anti globalisation movement Key Thinkers in Critical Theory to Post Marxism provides an ideal introduction to a hitherto complex subject and will be essential reading for students of contemporary social and political inquiry
