Janitors, Street Vendors, and Activists Christian Zolniski,2006-02-07 This book exposes the underbelly of California s Silicon Valley the most successful high technology region in the world in a vivid ethnographic study of Mexican immigrants employed in Silicon Valley s low wage jobs The author demonstrates how global forces have incorporated these workers as an integral part of the economy through subcontracting and other flexible labor practices and explores how these labor practices have in turn affected working conditions and workers daily lives These immigrants do not emerge merely as victims of a harsh economy despite the obstacles they face they are transforming labor and community politics infusing new blood into labor unions and challenging exclusionary notions of civic and political membership Index of Economic Material in Documents of the States of the United States: California, 1849-1904 Adelaide Rosalia Hasse,1908 Index of Economic Material in Documents of the States of the United States Adelaide Rosalia Hasse,1908 A List of Geographical Atlases in the Library of Congress: Titles 10255-18435 Library of Congress.
