Religions and Societies, Asia and the Middle East Carlo Caldarola, 1982 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series

Religion and Nation Kathryn Spellman, 2005-12-01 An estimated 75 000 Iranians emigrated to Britain after the 1979 revolution and the establishment of the Islamic Republic They are politically religiously socio economically and ethnically heterogeneous and have found themselves in the ongoing process of settlement The aim of this book is to explore facets of this process by examining the ways in which religious traditions and practices have been maintained negotiated and rejected by Iranians from Muslim backgrounds and how they have served as identity building vehicles during the course of migration in relation to the political economic and social situation in Iran and Britain While the ethnographic focus is on Iranians this book touches on more general questions associated with the process of migration transnational societies Diasporas and religious as well as ethnic minorities

Christian Missions and Humanitarianism in The Middle East, 1850-1950 , 2020-09-07 From the early phases of modern missions Christian missionaries supported many humanitarian activities mostly framed as subservient to the preaching of Christianity This anthology contributes to a historically grounded understanding of the complex relationship between Christian missions and the roots of humanitarianism and its contemporary uses in a Middle Eastern context

Contributions focus on ideologies rhetoric and practices of missionaries and their apostolates towards humanitarianism from the mid 19th century Middle East crises examining different missionaries their society's worldview and their networks in various areas of the Middle East In the early 20th century Christian missions increasingly paid more attention to organisation and bureaucratisation rationalisation and media became more important to their work The volume analyses how non missionaries took over to a certain extent the aims and organisations of the missionaries as to humanitarianism It seeks to discover and retrace such entangled histories for the first time in an integral perspective Contributors include Beth Baron Philippe Bourmaud Seija Jalagin Nazan Maksudyan Michael Marten Heleen L Murre van den Berg Inger Marie Okkenhaug Idir Ouahes Maria Chiara Rioli Kar ne Sanchez Summerer Bertrand Taithe and Chantal Verdeil Religion and Politics in the Middle East Robert D.
