evident from the following extract from Dr Robertson's History of America Speaking of warfare in Mexico Dr Robertson remarks No captive was ever ransomed or spared All were sacrificed without mercy and their flesh devoured with as much barbarous joy as among the fiercest savages On some occasions it rose to even wilder excesses Their principal warriors covered themselves with the skins of the unhappy victims and danced about the streets boasting of their own valour and exulting over their enemies 1 5 The fifth and last of the proofs I shall offer Page 85 r Robertson's History of America Book VII 226 can races is the remarkable fact to which I have already adverted at considerable length of there being a language of deference or ceremony among the more developed groups of Polynesia as there is among the Indo Chinese nations of Asia and the Indian Archipelago For strange and An Account of the Polynesian Race, Its Origin and Migrations ..., 1880
