Opuscula Selecta Günther Zuntz, 1972 Opuscula Selecta Günther Zuntz, 1972 Quarterly Check-list of Classical Studies, 1973 Jewish and Christian Scripture as Artifact and Canon Craig A. Evans, H. Daniel Zacharias, 2011-10-27

Jewish and Christian Scripture as Artifact and Canon constitutes a collection of studies that reflect and contribute to the growing scholarly interest in manuscripts as artifacts and witnesses to early stages in Jewish and Christian understanding of sacred scripture. Scholars and textual critics have in recent years rightly recognized the contribution that ancient manuscripts make to our understanding of the development of canon in its broadest and most inclusive sense. The studies included in this volume shed significant light on the most important questions touching the emergence of canon consciousness and written communication in the early centuries of the Christian church. The concern here is not in recovering a theoretical original text or early recognized canon but in analysis of and appreciation for texts as they actually circulated and were preserved through time. Some of the essays in this collection explore the interface between canon as theological concept on the one hand and canon as reflected in the physical artifactual evidence on the other. Other essays explore what the artifacts tell us about life and belief in early communities of faith. Still other studies investigate the visual dimension and artistic expressions of faith including theology and biblical interpretation communicated through the medium of art and icon in manuscripts. The volume also includes scientific studies concerned with the physical properties of particular manuscripts. These studies will stimulate new discussion in this important area of research and will point students and scholars in new directions for future work.

Textual Criticism and the New Testament Text Eberhard W. Güting, 2020-09-25. The fruit of more than three decades of research. This collection of fourteen essays by Eberhard W. Güting covers important aspects of editorial science with a particular focus on New Testament textual criticism. Essays cover textual emendation, text critical procedures, literary criticism, history of scholarship, advantages and disadvantages of online manuscripts and text critical studies of words and phrases. The addition of a substantial introduction to text criticism makes this a valuable resource for students and teachers. Features Essays concerned with establishing the original text of New Testament writings. Nine essays published in English for the first time. Two previously unpublished essays.

The Classical Review, 1990 Books in Print Supplement, 1979 Greek Comedy, Hellenistic Literature, Greek Religion, and Miscellanea Hugh Lloyd-Jones, 1990. This book collects thirty-eight papers by the great classicist to commemorate his recent retirement as Regius Professor of Greek at Oxford. The papers, some of which were originally published in foreign journals and appear here in translation for the first time, reflect his interest in the fields of Greek comedy, Hellenistic literature, Greek religion, and Greek culture in general.

Eranos Vilhelm Lundström, 1973 Greek Epic, Lyric, and Tragedy Hugh Lloyd-Jones, 1990. This collection of thirty-nine papers by foremost classical scholar Sir Hugh Lloyd Jones commemorates his retirement as Regius Professor of Greek from the University of Oxford. The papers, some originally published in foreign journals and published here for the first time in translation reflect his interest in Greek epic lyric and tragedy
