Thomas Wolfe: Of Time and the River, You Can't Go Home Again & Look Homeward, Angel Thomas Wolfe, 2023-12-26 In his compelling trio of works Look Homeward Angel, Of Time and the River, and You Can't Go Home Again, Thomas Wolfe navigates the complexities of identity, memory, and the inexorable passage of time. Wolfe's literary style is marked by its lyrical prose and stream of consciousness narrative, immersing the reader in the protagonist's introspective journey through the landscapes of his youth and the inevitable pull of home. This thematic exploration is set against the backdrop of early 20th century America, a period characterized by profound social change and the quest for personal meaning amid external chaos. Thomas Wolfe, born in 1900 in Asheville, North Carolina, was acutely influenced by the southern landscape and his own tumultuous experiences as a young man. These elements imbue his writings with an authenticity reflective of the struggles of self-discovery and familial ties. Wolfe's passion for storytelling was nurtured by a rich literary environment as he was mentored by contemporaries like F. Scott Fitzgerald and embraced the modernist techniques that shaped his distinctive voice. This anthology is recommended for readers seeking a deeper understanding of American literature's evolution and the complexities of human experience. Wolfe's profound insights and evocative language offer a cogent exploration of nostalgia and the search for belonging, making these works essential for anyone intrigued by the intersections of memory, place, and identity.

Florence Nightingale on Wars and the War Office Lynn McDonald, 2011-11-01 Volume 15 of the Collected Works of Florence Nightingale, Wars and the War Office, picks up on the previous volume's recounting of Nightingale's famous work during the Crimean War and the comprehensive analysis she did on its high death rates. This volume moves on to the implementation of the recommendations that emerged from that research and to her work to reduce deaths in the next wars, beginning with the American Civil War. Nightingale's writings describe the creation of the Army Medical School, the vast improvements made in the statistical tracking of disease, and new measures for soldiers' welfare. Her role in the formulation of the first Geneva Convention in 1864 is related along with her concern that voluntary relief efforts through the Red Cross not make war cheap. Nightingale was decorated by both sides for her work in the Franco-Prussian War. While much of her work concerned the mundane sending out of supplies, we see also in her writing her emerging interest in militarism as the cause of war. Her opposition to the Afghan War of her time and her work to provide nursing for the Egyptian campaigns, the Zulu War, and the start of the Boer War are also included.

Splitting Robert J. Stoller, 1997-01-01 This text is a case study of a woman otherwise intelligent and apparently sane who was convinced that she had internally a full set of functioning male sex organs. This account of her diagnosis and treatment is illustrated by excerpts from the patient-analyst dialogue during her therapy.
