Orang Asli An Outline Of Their Progress:

The Aboriginal People of Peninsular Malaysia Govindran Jegatesen, 2019-12-06 To date most studies of Malaysia's aboriginal people the Orang Asli have studied the community in either the rural or forest settings This book however outlines the dynamics of Orang Asli migration to Kuala Lumpur Malaysia's most urbanised region and explores the lived experiences of these individuals in the urban space The book begins by charting the history of the Orang Asli under British colonial rule followed by the community's experiences under the Malaysian government in an attempt to provide a deeper understanding of the economic and social complexities facing the Orang Asli today Based on extensive original research the book goes on to discuss the interesting changes taking place among urban Orang Asli migrants with regards to gender dynamics while exploring the unique ways in which these urban indigenous migrants maintain close links with their home communities in the rural spaces of Peninsular Malaysia The book concludes by assessing how research on the urban Orang Asli fits into broader studies of urban and contemporary indigeneity in both Malaysia and abroad Civilizing the Margins Christopher R.

Duncan, 2008 Discusses the programs policies and laws that affect ethnic minorities in eight countries Burma Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Thailand and Viet Nam Once targeted for intervention people such as the Orang Asli of Malaysia and the hill tribes of Thailand often become the subject of programs aimed at radically changing their lifestyles which the government views as backward or primitive Several chapters highlight the tragic consequences of forced resettlement a common result of these programs Malaysia's Original People Kirk Endicott, 2015-11-27 The Malay language term for the indigenous minority peoples of Peninsular Malaysia Orang Asli covers at least 19 culturally and linguistically distinct subgroups This volume is a comprehensive survey of current understandings of Malaysia's Orang Asli communities including contributions from scholars within the Orang Asli community looking at language archaeology history religion and issues of education health and social change as well as questions of land rights and control of resources Until about 1960 most Orang Asli lived in small camps and villages in the coastal and interior forests or in isolated rural areas and made their living by various combinations of hunting gathering fishing agriculture and trading forest products By the end of the century logging economic development projects such as oil palm plantations and resettlement programmes have displaced many Orang Asli communities and disrupted long established social and cultural practices The chapters in the present volume show Orang Asli responses to the challenges posed by a rapidly changing world The authors also highlight the importance of Orang Asli studies for the anthropological understanding of small scale indigenous societies in general

A History of Natural Resources in Asia G. Bankoff, P. Boomgaard, 2007-08-20 Much has been written about the wealth of nations the history of unequal distribution and zones of affluence and deprivation within and between societies This book explores why some Asian nations are more prosperous than others through an examination of how their interaction with and utilization of resources has changed over the centuries The Orang Asli Alun Jones, 1968 Orang Asli of Peninsular

Malaysia Tuck-Po Lye, 2001 Contains over 1700 references to research materials on the Orang asli the indigenous ethnic minorities of Peninsular Malaysia and on related groups in Thailand Indonesia and Singapore Bridging Knowledge Cultures, 2023-11-20 Establishing truly respectful mutually beneficial and equitable knowledge creation partnerships with diverse communities poses significant challenges for academia Bridging Knowledge Cultures provides valuable insights into the dynamics involved and the obstacles encountered when attempting to establish meaningful research partnerships between different knowledge domains This book goes beyond exploration by offering practical recommendations to overcome these challenges and forge effective collaboration between mainstream research institutions and community groups and organizations This book includes ten compelling case studies conducted by research and training hubs established through the global Knowledge for Change Consortium These case studies encompass community university research partnerships across various geographical locations tackling a wide range of societal issues and acknowledging the wealth of knowledge created by local communities The overarching goal of this book is to inspire the next generation of researchers and professionals to embrace the richness of diverse perspectives and knowledge cultures By advocating for the construction of bridges through practical approaches the book encourages a shift from competition to collaboration in research Ultimately it aims to foster an environment where different forms of knowledge can intersect and thrive leading to a more inclusive and comprehensive understanding of the world around us Staging Indigenous Heritage Yunci Cai, 2020-08-12 Staging Indigenous Heritage examines the cultural politics of four Indigenous cultural villages in Malaysia Demonstrating that such villages are often beset with the politics of brokerage and representation the book shows that this reinforces a culture of dependency on the brokers By critically examining the relationship between Indigenous tourism and development through the establishment of Indigenous cultural villages the book addresses the complexities of adopting the culture for development paradigm as a developmental strategy Demonstrating that the opportunities for self representation and self determination can become entwined with the politics of brokerage and the contradictory dualism of culture it becomes clear that this can both facilitate and compromise their intended outcomes Challenging the simplistic conceptualisation of Indigenous communities as harmonious and unified wholes the book shows how Indigenous cultures are actively forged struggled over and negotiated in contemporary Malaysia Confronting the largely positive rhetoric in current discourses on the benefits of community based cultural projects Staging Indigenous Heritage should be essential reading for academics and students in the fields of museum studies cultural heritage studies Indigenous studies development studies tourism anthropology and geography The book should also be of interest to museum and heritage professionals around the world Modernity and Malaysia Alberto Gomes, 2007-05-16 Bringing together the results of over twenty five years of research on the indigenous peoples of Malaysia this fascinating book illustrates the experiences of modernity in indigenous communities through a detailed case study of the Rual Menraq of Malaysia Culture and the Question of Rights Charles

Zerner,2003-04-16 A collection of ethnographic studies into the nature of power language and cultural politics within the context of Southeast Asian environments Changing Pathways Tuck-Po Lye,2004-01-01 The Batek are hunter gatherers who live in the lowland tropical forests of northeastern Peninsular Malaysia Over the past few decades as more and more of their forest home is degraded they are developing an acute sensitivity to what this means for them and for the broader world In fact they would like the world to know about their worries and their critiques of the causes of degradation Changing Pathways was inspired by that need Beyond a straightforward recounting of Batek environmental concerns this book examines the cosmological basis for those concerns the changing focus of the cosmology the stories and histories through which the Batek express their place in the world and suggests how environmental degradation might affect their knowledge perception and politics Changing Pathways is an invaluable resource not only for environmental anthropologists and hunter gatherer specialists but applied resource managers around the world Nature and Nation Jeyamalar Kathirithamby-Wells,2005-10-31 Nature and Nation explores the relations between people and forests in Peninsular Malaysia where the planet s richest terrestrial eco system met head on with the fastest pace of economic transformation experienced in the tropical world It engages the interplay of history culture science economics and politics to provide a holistic interpretation of the continuing relevance of forests to state and society in the moist tropics Malaysia has long been singled out for emulation by developing nations an accolade contradicted in recent years by concerns over its capital rather than poverty driven forest depletion The Malaysian case supports the call for re appraisal of entrenched prescriptions for development that go beyond material needs Book cover The Performance of Healing Carol Laderman,Marina Roseman,2016-05-06 Medical systems need to be understood from within as experienced by healers patients and others whose minds and hearts have both become involved in this important human undertaking Exploring how the performance of healing transforms illness to health initiate to ritual specialist the authors show that performance does not merely refer to but actually does something in the world These essays on the performance of healing in societies ranging from rainforest horticulturalists to dwellers in the American megalopolis will touch readers senses as well as their intellects Healing Sounds from the Malaysian Rainforest Marina Roseman,1993-03-26 One of the best pieces of ethnomusicological research of the last ten years Roseman shows just how central musical ideas and practices are to a way of knowing and imagining the world to a way of transforming ordinary experiences and to penetrating belief systems more broadly Steven Feld University of Texas Austin An exciting contribution to interpretive medical anthropology Moving analytically between Temiar cultural constrictions of illness and health and the humanely organized sounds of healing ceremonies Roseman explicates the cultural logic whereby aesthetic configurations participate in a comprehensive therapeutically effective pattern of reality This author has brocaded medical anthropology with ethnomusicology producing a shimmering postmodern ethnographic tapestry of great subtlety and strength Barbara Tedlock SUNY Buffalo Vulnerability, Social Capital and Disaster Preparedness

Sumaiya Sadeka, Mohd Suhaimi Mohamad, Md Sujahangir Kabir Sarkar, Abul Quasem Al-Amin, 2023-07-26 This book addresses increasing concerns regarding the relationship between social capital and disaster highlighting conceptual definitions related to social capital and disaster family community vulnerability disaster experience and preparedness Focusing on a contemporary case of disaster management in Malaysia the authors explore and establish linkages between the level of social capital and disaster preparedness among the indigenous Orang Asli people Taking the case of the Orang Asli families as a point of departure the book presents solutions for mobilizing social capital for disaster preparedness through multi stakeholder involvement promoting participation in awareness programs ensuring indigenous people s access to resources and proposing a prioritization of local values and culture in enabling proper planning and coordination for more disaster resilient communities in Malaysia Southeast Asia and beyond The book is broadly relevant to cases in similar economic settings where indigenous people are lagging behind in disaster preparedness An excellent resource for sociologists this pioneering book collates various concepts and theories relating to social and ecological networks and systems family resilience and stress and coping mechanisms It is relevant to researchers focused on disasters in developing countries globally particularly those focused on indigenous communities
