Order In Paradox Myth Ritual And Exchange Among Nepals Tamang:

Order in Paradox David Holmberg, 1992-07 David H Holmberg here examines the social forms ritual practices and history of a western Tamang community of Himalayan Nepal Exploring the central question of ritual complexity Order in Paradox demonstrates how a religious system that contains Buddhist shamanic and sacrificial practices may be understood as a whole Holmberg begins by recounting the history of the Tamang and reexamining the meaning of caste tribe and ethnicity in greater Nepal Holmberg reveals how cultural patterns thought to be uniquely Tamang reflect this people's development of an involuted tribal form of Buddhist religious expression an evolution he interprets as a result in part of the unification of the Nepalese state Holmberg then offers descriptions of the culture mythic imagination and ritual field of the Tamang Exploring both structural and historical dimensions of Tamang rituals Holmberg shows how they form a system linked to a cultural logic of exchange upon which Tamang society is built He also sheds light on the relationship between gender and ritual considering in detail the close association between femaleness and the shamanic in Tamang culture Order in Paradox David H. Holmberg, 1989 Love and Honor in the Himalayas Ernestine McHugh, 2001-01-22 A stunning emotionally charged intellectually stimulating and aesthetically crafted fieldwork memoir This is a book I will teach often recommend to colleagues and share with family and friends for its multifaceted delights Kirin Narayan University of Wisconsin Madison

The Rulings of the Night Gregory G. Maskarinec, 1995 It is impossible to discuss what shamans are and what they do contends Gregory G Maskarinec without knowing what shamans say When Maskarinec took an interest in shaman rituals on his first visit to Nepal he was told by many Nepalis and Westerners that the shamans he had encountered in the Himalayan foothills of western Nepal engaged in meaningless mumblings But in the course of several years of fieldwork he learned from the shamans that both their long publicly chanted rituals and their whispered secretive incantations are oral texts meticulously memorized through years of training In The Rulings of the Night he shows how the shamans during their dramatic night long performances create the worlds of words in which shamans exist Maskarinec analyzes several complete repertoires of the texts that the shamans use to diagnose and treat afflictions that trouble their clients Through these texts they intervene to manipulate and change the world replacing its unbalanced inexpressible chaos with orderly balanced grammatical and eloquently expressible states They negotiate the relations between language action and social realities providing a well constructed and thoroughly consistent intentional universe and only in that universe can all shaman actions and beliefs be fully comprehended Nepali Diaspora in a Globalised Era Tanka B. Subba, A. C. Sinha, 2015-10-05 This is one of the first books to explore Nepali diaspora in a global context across India and other parts of South Asia Southeast Asia Europe and Australia It discusses the social political and economic status and aspirations of the Nepali community worldwide The essays in the volume cover a range of themes including belonging and identity politics among Nepalese migrants representation of Indian Nepalis in literature diasporic consciousness forceful eviction and displacement social movements and ritual practices among migrant communities Drawing attention to the lives of Nepali emigrants the volume presents a sensitive and balanced understanding of their options and constraints and their ambivalences about who they are This work will be invaluable to scholars and students of Nepal studies area studies diaspora and migration studies social anthropology cultural studies and literature

Gender and Forests Carol J. Pierce Colfer, Bimbika Sijapati Basnett, Marlène

Elias, 2016-04-14 This enlightening book brings together the work of gender and forestry specialists from various backgrounds and fields of research and action to analyse global gender conditions as related to forests Using a variety of methods and approaches they build on a spectrum of theoretical perspectives to bring depth and breadth to the relevant issues and address timely and under studied themes Focusing particularly on tropical forests the book presents both local case studies and global comparative studies from Africa Asia and Latin America as well as the US and Europe The studies range from personal histories of elderly American women's attitudes toward conservation to a combined qualitative quantitative international comparative study on REDD to a longitudinal examination of oil palm and gender roles over time in Kalimantan Issues are examined across scales from the household to the nation state and the global arena and reach back to the past to inform present and future considerations The collection will be of relevance to academics researchers policy makers and advocates with different levels of familiarity with gender issues in the field of forestry

Encounters with the Invisible Marie Lecomte-Tilouine, Anne de Sales, 2024-06-28 This volume considers spirit possession in the Himalayas and the various ways in which invisible powers are made present It does so by examining material representations of these powers through artefacts animals plants and natural substances while also focusing on narratives of people's encounters with the invisible that may help them to reconfigure reality Through these two approaches the contributions examine new phenomena associated with the concepts of possession and shamanism which otherwise tend to lead research into well worn furrows The book addresses a range of themes including the gods of the Western Himalayas death and ritual dissolution among Hyolmo Buddhists in Nepal gods and rivers as legal persons in India and the problem of conversion disorder in Nepal Rich in ethnography this book will be indispensable for scholars and researchers of anthropology religion spiritualism sociology of religion Himalayan studies sociology and South Asia

High Frontiers Kenneth Michael Bauer, 2004-04-07 Dolpo is a culturally Tibetan enclave in one of Nepal's most remote regions The Dolpo pa or people of Dolpo share language religious and cultural practices history and a way of life Agro pastoralists who live in some of the highest villages in the world the Dolpo pa wrest survival from this inhospitable landscape through a creative combination of farming animal husbandry and trade High Frontiers is an ethnography and ecological history of Dolpo tracing the dramatic transformations in the region's socioeconomic patterns Once these traders passed freely between Tibet and Nepal with their caravans of yak to exchange salt and grains they relied on winter pastures in Tibet to maintain their herds After 1959 China assumed full control over Tibet and the border was closed restricting livestock migrations and sharply curtailing trade At the same time increasing supplies of Indian salt reduced the value of Tibetan salt undermining Dolpo's economic niche Dolpo's agro pastoralists were forced to reinvent their lives by changing their migration patterns adopting new economic partnerships and adapting to external agents of change The region has been transformed as a result of the creation of Nepal's largest national park the making of Himalaya a major motion picture filmed on location the increasing presence of nongovernmental organizations and a booming trade in medicinal products High Frontiers examines these transformations at the local level and speculates on the future of pastoralism in this region and across the Himalayas Historical Dictionary of Nepal Nanda R.

Shrestha, Keshav Bhattarai, 2017-02-08 Nepal is a living example of contrasts and contradictions It is a country that was born in medieval times grew up in the 16th century and now finds itself engulfed in the high tech gadgets and material marvels of the 21st century Nepal has its share of problem which include inadequate economic development and social infrastructure poverty and corruption plus worsening pollution but now it finally has relative peace and quiet after a hasty Maoist uprising Indeed it has passed through several democratic elections and finally seems to be getting on the right track This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Nepal contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Nepal

Himalayan People's War Michael Hutt, 2004-10-18 Includes full text of key documents by the rebels and government

Liminality and Critical Event Studies Ian R. Lamond, Jonathan Moss, 2020-03-28 This book explores and challenges the concept and experience of liminality as applied to critical perspectives in the study of events It will be of interest to researchers in event studies social and discursive psychology cultural and political sociology and social movement studies In addition it will provide interested general readers with new ways of thinking and reflecting on events Contributing authors undertake a discussion of the borders boundaries and areas of contestation between the established social anthropological concept of liminality and the emerging field of critical event studies By drawing these two perspectives closer together the collection considers tensions and resonances between them and uses those connections to enhance our understanding of both cultural and sporting events and offer fresh insight into events of activism protest and dissent

Investigating Local Knowledge Paul Sillitoe, 2019-05-23 Originally published in 2004 Local knowledge reflects many generations of experience and problem solving by people around the world increasingly affected by globalizing forces Such knowledge is far more sophisticated than development professionals previously assumed and as such represents an immensely valuable resource A growing number of governments and international development agencies are recognizing that local level knowledge and organizations offer the foundation for new participatory models of development that are both cost effective and sustainable and ecologically and socially sound This book provides a timely overview of new directions and new approaches to investigating the role of rural communities in generating knowledge founded on their sophisticated understandings of their environments devising mechanisms to conserve and sustain their natural resources and establishing community based organizations that serve as forums for identifying problems and dealing with them through local level experimentation innovation and exchange of information with other societies These studies show that development activities that work with and through local knowledge and organizations have several important advantages over projects that operate outside them Local knowledge informs grassroots decision making much of which takes place through indigenous organizations and associations at the community level as people seek to identify and determine solutions to their problems

Social Inclusion of Ethnic Communities in Contemporary Nepal ,2013-08-15 Social Inclusion of Ethnic

Communities in Contemporary Nepal focuses on the dynamics of ethnic identities and movement in South Asian states in a comparative framework As we witness a series of explosive ethnic revivals across the globe this study investigates the issues around ethnicity that have come to occupy centre stage in Nepal s contemporary political and development discourse Nepal is at the crossroads of state building The Constituent Assembly is now looking into the modalities of establishing a multi cultural multi social multi linguistic multi religious and multi ethnic federal state In the aftermath of the April 2006 Jana Andolan II and the commitment of the ruling political alliance to restructuring Nepal along federal republican lines the assessment of Nepal s ethnic question from multiple perspectives political sociological economic and spatial has acquired a new urgency Ethnic identity is only one part of the problem of ethnicity in Nepal Federalism therefore has to be conceived of as an exercise in addressing the multiplicity of issues that form the agenda of Nepal s development so that a politically socially and economically integrated dynamic and progressive Nepal emerges from the shadows of the past This work includes an intensive analysis of facts figures and particulars collected from available records and surveys One of the aims of the study is to assess the defining ethnic identity among the Limbu centred on a case in an urban area in the Kathmandu Valley This work is mainly based on qualitative data but quantitative data has also been used to measure various aspects of the community like the level of educational economy etc This volume will be an invaluable guide for the scholars of federalism in Nepal while also educating the lay reader in general Religion and Modernity in the Himalaya Megan Adamson

Sijapati, Jessica Vantine Birkenholtz, 2016-03-10 Religion has long been a powerful cultural social and political force in the Himalaya Increased economic and cultural flows growth in tourism and new forms of governance and media however have brought significant changes to the religious traditions of the region in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book presents detailed case studies of lived religion in the Himalaya in this context of rapid change to offer intra regional perspectives on the ways in which lived religions are being re configured or re imagined Based on original fieldwork this book documents understudied forms of religion in the region and presents unique perspectives on the phenomenon and experience of religion discussing why when and where practices discourses and the category of religion itself are engaged by varying communities in the region It yields fruitful insights into both the religious traditions and lived human experiences of

Himalayan peoples in the modern era Presenting new research and perspectives on the Himalayan region this book should be of interest to students and scholars of South Asian Studies Religious Studies and Modernity Death Consciousness and the East Sujeet Karn,2024-08-30 This unique new book addresses the rise of death studies as an academic discipline and serves those who work in the anthropology of death and loss It gives a perspective on death with reference to Maoists politics and violence in Nepal so will also appeal to scholars of the region and its Maoists movements This work aims to add and contribute to cultural and regional perspective in death studies There has been little written on death studies in conflict situations from a South Asian perspective Therefore this book extends the current literature in death and bereavement perspectives beyond western academic exploration Land and Territoriality Michael Saltman,2020-05-26 In the past territorial conflict usually involved major powers seeking hegemony over strategic spaces and resources More recently however the decline of opposing global power blocs has elevated ethnicity to a prime cause of conflict over land This book considers the multiple roles ethnicity plays in fostering territorial conflicts both violent and non violent across the globe While land disputes relating to nationalism have resulted in the loss of human life in some regions in others ties between ethnicity and land are asserted more peacefully Nationalism and challenges to the validity of the links between people and places have caused widespread bloodshed in the disputed territory of Palestine involving competing claims of Arabs and Jews have led to war In North America however indigenous Indians claims to land are settled in the courts rather than through violence This book shows how human behaviour is affected by the multiple ways in which people identify with land topography and natural resources In doing so it highlights the growing trend towards defining physical space in specific ethnic contexts associated with a contemporary world that facilitates global movement Selves in Time and Place Debra Skinner,Alfred Pach,Dorothy C. Holland,1998 Recently anthropology has turned to accounts of persons in history history in persons focusing on how individuals and groups as agents both fashion and are fashioned by social political and cultural discourses and practices In this approach power agency and history are made explicit as individuals and groups work to constitute themselves in relation to others and within and against sociopolitical and historical contexts Contributors to this volume extend this emphasis drawing upon their ethnographic research in Nepal to examine closely how selves identities and experience are produced in dialogical relationships through time in a multi ethnic nation state and within a discourse of nationalism The diversity of peoples recent political transformations and nation building efforts make Nepal an especially rich locale to examine people s struggles to define and position themselves But the authors move beyond geographical boundaries to more theoretical terrain to problematize the ways in which people recreate or contest certain identities and positions Various authors explore how people_positioned by gender ethnicity and locale_use cultural genres to produce aspects of identities and experiences they examine how subjectivities agencies and cultural worlds co develop and are shaped through engagement with cultural forms and they portray the appropriation of multiple voices for self and group formation

As such this collection offers a richly textured and complex accounting of the mutual constitution of selves and society

From a Trickle to a Torrent Geoff Childs, Namgyal Choedup, 2018-12-04 What happens to a community when the majority of young people leave their homes to pursue an education From a Trickle to a Torrent documents the demographic and social consequences of educational migration from Nubri a Tibetan enclave in the highlands of Nepal The authors explore parents motivations for sending their children to distant schools and monasteries social connections that shape migration pathways young people s estrangement from village life and dilemmas that arise when educated individuals are unable or unwilling to return and reside in their native villages Drawing on numerous decades of research this study documents a transitional period when the future of a Himalayan society teeters on the brink of irreversible change The Oxford Handbook of Buddhist Practice Paula Kane Robinson Arai, Kevin Trainor, 2022 Foregrounds the impact of embodiment in Buddhism Highlights the diversity and fluidity of Buddhist identities The most comprehensive available volume on Buddhist practice Book jacket Routledge Handbook of South Asian Religions Knut A. Jacobsen, 2020-11-29 The Routledge Handbook of South Asian Religions presents critical research overviews and case studies on religion in historical South Asia in the seven nation states of contemporary South Asia India Pakistan Bangladesh Nepal Bhutan Sri Lanka and the Maldives and in the South Asian diaspora Chapters by an international set of experts analyse formative developments roots changes and transformations religious practices and ideas identities relations territorialisation and globalisation in historical and contemporary South Asia The Handbook is divided into two parts which first analyse historical South Asian religions and their developments and second contemporary South Asia religions that are influenced by both religious pluralism and their close connection to nation states and their ideological power Contributors argue that religion has been used as a tool for creating nations as well as majorities within those nations in South Asia despite their enormous diversity in particular religious diversity The Handbook explores these diversities and tensions historical developments and the present situation across religious traditions by utilising an array of approaches and from the point of view of various academic disciplines Drawing together a remarkable collection of leading and emerging scholars this handbook is an invaluable research tool and will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of Asian religion religion in context and South Asian religions
