Meanings of Ripley Elizabeth Graham, 2020-05-22 Ellen Ripley of the Alien Quadrilogy has become an iconic female figure in the male dominated genre of science fiction action horror since her first appearance in 1979 This collection offers readers varied interpretations of Ripley that are grounded in the social context and theoretical perspectives that were dominant prior to and during the time the films were released Specifically the rise of Second Wave Feminism and the backlash against it provides a backdrop for this collection Is Ripley a feminist hero A patriarchal woman and mother Does she embody de Beauvoir's myth of the feminine Does she exhibit sexual agency Does she offer us a glimpse of individual autonomy that moves away from dichotomous gender roles These are the primary questions explored in this collection While the focus is clearly on Ripley the arguments go beyond the confines of the films by examining the relationship between the individual and society in which both are product and producer of the other and illustrate that social artifacts such as film can provide insights into the lived experiences of our world The contributors come from a variety of backgrounds including Literature Cinema Studies Gender and Women's Studies Philosophy Sociology Theatre History and reside in Canada and the United States They represent a range from junior to senior scholars While science fiction is clearly an interest of all these individuals it is not the primary area of research for most of them By bringing voices from multiple disciplines into the discussion about Ripley this collection offers readers perspectives that deviate from and yet complement the current trend in film criticism and thus contributes to opening up discussions about such characters and the genre to a wider audience

New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie, 2006 It is hard to over estimate the challenge that feminism poses to Roman Catholicism Pope John Paul II's call for a new feminism has led to the development of a Catholic theological response to the so called old feminism The New Catholic Feminism sets up a dramatic encounter between the orthodox Catholic establishment and contemporary critical theory including feminist theology and philosophy queer theory and French psycholinguistics in order to explore fundamental questions about human identity personhood and gender From the naked bodies of Eden to the gay nuptials of liturgy it argues that the strange and volatile world of Catholic sexual symbolism cannot be tamed to meet the ideological agendas of either feminist theology or conservative Catholicism Only through a radical re evaluation of the sacramental significance of the sexed human body might the Catholic Church provide a redemptive response to the sexual politics of contemporary society

The New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie, 2004-06-01 It is hard to over estimate the challenge that feminism poses to Roman Catholicism Pope John Paul II's call for a new feminism has led to the development of a Catholic theological response to the so called old feminism The New Catholic Feminism sets up a dramatic encounter between the orthodox Catholic establishment and contemporary critical theory including feminist theology and philosophy queer theory and French psycholinguistics in order to explore fundamental questions about human identity personhood and gender From the naked bodies of Eden to the gay nuptials of liturgy it argues that the strange and volatile world of Catholic sexual symbolism cannot be tamed to meet the ideological agendas of either feminist theology or conservative Catholicism Only through a radical re evaluation of the sacramental significance of the sexed human body might the Catholic Church provide a redemptive response to the sexual politics of contemporary society Making Place, Making Self Inger Birkeland, 2017-03-02 Making Place Making Self explores new understandings of place and place making in late modernity covering key themes of place and space tourism and mobility sexual difference and subjectivity Using a series of individual life stories it develops a fascinating polyvocal account of leisure and life journeys These stories focus on journeys made to the North Cape in Norway the most northern point of mainland Europe which is both a tourist destination and an evocation of a reliable and secure point of reference an idea that gives meaning to an individual's life The theoretical core of the book draws on an inter weaving of post Lacanian versions of feminist psycho analytical thinking with phenomenological and existential thinking where place making is linked with self making and homecoming By combining such ground breaking theory with her innovative use of case studies Inger Birkeland here provides a major contribution to the fields of cultural geography tourism and feminist studies The Oxford Handbook of Gender and Politics Georgina Waylen, Karen Celis, Johanna Kantola, S. Laurel Weldon, 2013-02-12 As a field of scholarship gender and politics has exploded over the last fifty years and is now global institutionalized and ever expanding The Oxford Handbook of Gender and Politics brings to political science an accessible and comprehensive overview of the key contributions of gender scholars to the study of politics and shows how these contributions produce a richer understanding of politics and societies Like the field it represents the handbook has a broad understanding of what counts as political and is based on a notion of gender that highlights masculinities as well as femininities thereby moving feminist debates in politics beyond the focus on women It engages with some of the key aspects of political science as well as important themes in gender and feminist research such as sexuality and body politics thereby forging a dialogue between gender studies in politics and mainstream political science The handbook is organized in sections that look at sexuality and body politics political economy civil society participation representation and policymaking institutions states and governance as well as nation citizenship and identity The Oxford Handbook of Gender and Politics contains and reflects the best scholarship in its field Kierkegaard, Eve and Metaphors of Birth Alison Assiter, 2015-04-29 There has been a recent revival of interest in reading Kierkegaard as an ontologist as a thinker who engages with questions about the kinds of entity or process that constitute ultimate reality This new way of reading Kierkegaard stands alongside a revival of interest in ontology and metaphysics more generally This highly original book concentrates on the claim that Kierkegaard focuses in part on ontological questions and on issues pertaining to the nature of being as a whole Alison Assiter asserts that Being for Kierkegaard following Schelling can be read in terms of conceptions of birthing the capacity to give birth as well as the notion of a birthing body She goes on to argue that the story offered by Kierkegaard in The Concept of Anxiety about the origin of freedom connects with a birthing body and that Kierkegaard offers a speculative hypothesis in terms of metaphors of birthing about the nature of Being

On Female Body Experience Iris Marion Young, 2005-01-27 Written over two decades these essays describe diverse aspects of women's lived body experience in modern Western societies Young combines theoretical description of experience with normative evaluation of the unjust constraints on their freedom opportunity that continue to burden many women

E-Co-Affectivity Marjolein Oele, 2020-04-01 Offers an interdisciplinary investigation of affectivity in various forms of life

E Co Affectivity is a philosophical investigation of affectivity in various forms of life photosynthesis and growth in plants touch and trauma in bird feathers the ontogenesis of human life through the placenta the bare interface of human skin and the porous materiality of soil Combining biology phenomenology Ancient Greek thought new materialisms environmental philosophy and affect studies Marjolein Oele thinks through the concrete living places that show the receptive responsive power of living beings to be affected and to affect She focuses on these localized interfaces to explain how affectivity emerges in places that are always evolving creative porous and fluid Every interface is material but is also more than its current materiality in cocreating place time and being After extensively describing the effects of the milieu and community within which each example of affectivity takes place in the final chapter Oele adds a prescriptive ethical lens that formulates a new epoch beyond the Anthropocene one that is sensitive to the larger ecological communal concerns at stake This is a very welcome contribution to environmental philosophy The strikingly original thesis is evident in the book's title what we call ecology is a co affectivity the mutuality of affecting and being affected on the part of species biological kingdoms ecosystems etc Here Marjolein Oele melds biology and ontology in new and creative ways enriching both fields Her book performs the very theme it explores it stages a co affective relation between philosophy and the life sciences

Hysterical Fictions C. Hanson, 2000-08-09 The woman's novel is a term used to describe fiction which while immensely popular among educated women readers sits uneasily between high and low culture Clare Hanson argues that this hybrid status reflects the ambivalent position of its authors and readers as educated women caught between identification with the male gendered intellectual culture and a counter experience of female embodiment Through six case studies the representation of a mind body problem is explored in the fiction of Rosamond Lehmann Elizabeth Bowen Elizabeth Taylor Margaret Drabble A S Byatt and Anita Brookner

Experiencing the Postmetaphysical Self Fionola Meredith, 2004-12-14 This book charts and challenges the bruising impact of post Saussurean thought on the categories of experience and self presence It attempts a reappropriation of the category of lived experience in dialogue with poststructuralist thinking Following the insight that mediated subjectivity need not mean alienated selfhood Meredith forwards a postmetaphysical model of the experiential based on the interpenetration of poststructuralist thinking and hermeneutic phenomenology Since poststructuralist approaches in feminist theory have often placed women's lived experiences under erasure Meredith uses this hermeneutic deconstructive model to attempt a rehabilitation of the singular flesh and blood female existent

Philosophising Experiences and Vision of the Female Body, Mind, and Soul:

Historical Context and Contemporary Theory Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Mafumbate, Racheal, Khumalo, Thandi Fredah, 2021-04-23 Much of our understanding of the world our societies and ourselves rests on theories and knowledge generated predominantly by men of certain nationalities and economic classes This male dominated and culturally specific theorizing and knowledge have generally resulted in the exclusion of women and other groups from the process of formal theorizing and knowledge building Feminism argues that the male dominated knowledge represents a skewed perception of reality and is only partial knowledge Feminism is a generalized wide ranging system of ideas about social life and human experience developed from a woman centered perspective It treats women as the central subjects in the investigative process and seeks to see the world from the distinctive vantage points of women in the social world The best way to empower women and better the situation for women is to take women s daily experiences and their informal theorizing into account and on this basis adopt feminist approaches to building theory and knowledge Philosophising Experiences and Vision of the Female Body Mind and Soul Historical Context and Contemporary Theory provides an overview and introduction to the study of feminist theory and practice in the social sciences This book provides a starting point for further and more advanced study of the nexus of feminism gender and development and translates feminist theory and concepts into practice The chapters investigate in a historical context mainstream and contemporary theories of feminism and gender studies This book is ideal for post graduate students of social science researchers of development management business management public governance and gender and development activists feminists and practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in feminist theory and knowledge building

The Cultural Politics of Reproduction Maya Unnithan-Kumar, Sunil K. Khanna, 2014-11-01 Charting the experiences of internally or externally migrant communities the volume examines social transformation through the dynamic relationship between movement reproduction and health The chapters examine how healthcare experiences of migrants are not only embedded in their own unique health worldviews but also influenced by the history policy and politics of the wider state systems The research among migrant communities an understanding of how ideas of reproduction and cultures of health travel how healing birth and care practices become a result of movement and how health related perceptions and reproductive experiences can define migrant belonging and identity

Like Mother, Like Daughter? Armstrong, Jill, 2019-03-06 Women are encouraged to believe that they can occupy top jobs in society by the example of other women thriving in their careers Who better to be a role model for career success than your mother Paradoxically this book shows that having a mother as a role model even for graduates of top universities does not predict daughters progressing in their own careers It finds that mothers with careers whilst highly influential in their daughters choice of career path rarely mentor their daughters as they progress This is partly explained by quiet ambition the tendency of women to be modest about their achievements Bigger issues are the twin pressures from contemporary motherhood and workplace culture that ironically lead career women s daughters to believe that being a good mother means working part time This stalls career progress Based on a large cross generational qualitative sample this book offers a timely and original perspective on the debate about gender equality in leadership positions Contemporary

Women's Writing in German Brigid Haines,Margaret Littler,2004-09-23 Six key texts by contemporary women writers are read afresh by leading critics using insights from poststructuralist and new materialist feminist theory Ingeborg Bachmann Christa Wolf and Elfriede Jelinek have long been prominent in the fields of Austrian modernism GDR writing and avant garde Austrian literature The innovative work of Anne Duden Herta and Pauline Heller and Emine Sevgi Zaimar sets out to challenge dominant models of German identity Focusing on the body and suffering they explore textual representations of trauma national identity and displacement Haines and Littler s readings of these distinguished and complex female authors offer new avenues for discussion Both critics and their subjects cast a sceptical eye over existing notions of subjectivity in relation to language gender and race Together they spark controversy and comment in an increasingly important debate Philosophy as

Experimentation, Dissidence and Heterogeneity José Miranda Justo,Elisabete M. de Sousa,Fernando M. F. Silva,2021-09-24 Contemporary philosophical research interconnects classical domains of philosophy the arts literature and social sciences This collection of essays explores the operational role of experimentation dissidence and heterogeneity in this process It offers fundamentals for the criticism of monolithical tendencies often put forward under the banner of the Speculative Turn or New Realism by means of exploring the contribution and influence of authors such as J G Hamann Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Guy Debord These philosophers historically placed within the margins of the philosophical mainstream were decisive in the emergence of the philosophical thought and practices of Deleuze Wittgenstein and Bataille as shown here The reader will also find re evaluations of the contributions of Vico Spinoza or Kant to posterity next to new readings of authors like Foucault Hadot Benjamin and Adorno with regards to their significant experimental and dissident positions Gender and Aesthetics Carolyn Korsmeyer,2004-07-31 Feminist approaches to art are extremely influential and widely studied across a variety of disciplines including art theory cultural and visual studies and philosophy Gender and Aesthetics is an introduction to the major theories and thinkers within art and aesthetics from a philosophical perspective carefully introducing and examining the role that gender plays in forming ideas about art It is ideal for anyone coming to the topic for the first time Organized thematically the book introduces in clear language the most important topics within feminist aesthetics Why were there so few women painters Art pleasure and beauty Music literature and painting The role of gender in taste and food What is art and who is an artist Disgust and the sublime Each chapter discusses important topics and thinkers within art and examines the role gender plays in our understanding of them These topics include creativity genius and the appreciation of art and thinkers from Plato Kant and Hume to Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva Also included in the book are illustrations from Gauguin and Hogarth to Cindy Sherman and Nancy Spero to clarify and help introduce often difficult concepts Each chapter concludes with a summary and further reading and there is an extensive annotated bibliography Carolyn Korsmeyer's style is refreshing and accessible making the book suitable for students of philosophy gender studies visual studies and art theory as well as anyone interested in the impact of gender on theories of art

Between Feminism and Materialism G. Howie, 2010-10-11 In her latest book Gillian Howie offers a bold new way to make sense of the relationship between feminist theory and capitalism This exciting combination of existentialism phenomenology and critical theory delivers a proactive feminism ready to respond to the challenges presented by our thoroughly modern times

Obesity in Canada Jenny Ellison, Deborah McPhail, Wendy Mitchinson, 2016-05-12 Medical professionals social policy makers and the media have all declared that Canada is in the grip of an obesity epidemic Conceptualizing obesity as a biological condition these experts insist that it needs to be prevented and managed Obesity in Canada takes a broader critical perspective of our supposed epidemic Examining obesity in its cultural and historical context the book's contributors ask how we measure health and wellness where our attitudes to obesity develop from and what the consequences are of naming and targeting as obese those whose body weights do not match our expectations A broad survey of the issues surrounding the obesity panic in Canada it is the first collection of fat studies and critical obesity studies from a distinctly Canadian perspective

Women, Monstrosity and Horror Film Erin Harrington, 2017-08-10 Women occupy a privileged place in horror film Horror is a space of entertainment and excitement of terror and dread and one that relishes the complexities that arise when boundaries of taste of bodies of reason are blurred and dismantled It is also a site of expression and exploration that leverages the narrative and aesthetic horrors of the reproductive the maternal and the sexual to expose the underpinnings of the social political and philosophical othering of women This book offers an in depth analysis of women in horror films through an exploration of gynaehorror films concerned with all aspects of female reproductive horror from reproductive and sexual organs to virginity pregnancy birth motherhood and finally to menopause Some of the themes explored include the intersection of horror monstrosity and sexual difference the relationships between normative female hetero sexuality and the twin figures of the chaste virgin and the voracious vagina dentata embodiment and subjectivity in horror films about pregnancy and abortion reproductive technologies monstrosity and mad science the discursive construction and interrogation of monstrous motherhood and the relationships between menopause menstruation hagsploitation and abject barren bodies in horror The book not only offers a feminist interrogation of gynaehorror but also a counter reading of the gynaehorrific that both accounts for and opens up new spaces of productive radical and subversive monstrosity within a mode of representation and expression that has often been accused of being misogynistic It therefore makes a unique contribution to the study of women in horror film specifically while also providing new insights in the broader area of popular culture gender and film philosophy
