Language Contact in Africa and the African Diaspora in the Americas Cecelia Cutler, Zvezdana Vrzić, Philipp Angermeyer, 2017-07-12. Language Contact in Africa and the African Diaspora in the Americas brings together the original research of nineteen leading scholars on language contact and pidgin/creole genesis. In recent decades increasing attention has been paid to the role of historical, cultural and demographic factors in language contact situations. John Victor Singler's body of work, a model of what such a research paradigm should look like, strikes a careful balance between sociohistorical and linguistic analysis. The case studies in this volume present investigations into the sociohistorical matrix of language contact and critical insights into the sociolinguistic consequences of language contact within Africa and the African Diaspora. Additionally, they contribute to ongoing debates about pidgin/creole genesis and language contact by examining and comparing analyses and linguistic outcomes of particular sociohistorical and cultural contexts and considering less studied factors such as speaker agency and identity in the emergence, nativization and stabilization of contact varieties. Loan Phonology and the Two Transfer Types in Language Contact Frans van Coetsem, 2016-04-25. The second section focuses on processes characterizing various stages of L2 acquisition and creole genesis: relexification and transfer from the L1 and their role in the initial state. Sprouse, Schwartz, Kouwenberg, Aboh, Ionin. Chapters in the third section discuss processes involved in developing grammars, namely reanalysis and restructuring. Sanchez, Brousseau and Nikiema, Steele and Brousseau. The final section concentrates on fossilization and the end state. Cornips and Hulk, Montrul, Lardiere.
