Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce, 1929 Reels for 1973 include Time index 1973 We Are in His Hands Whether We Live or Die David K. Thomson, 2013-08-30 Many soldiers who served in the American Civil War found solace in their faith during the most trying times of the war But few soldiers took such a providential view of life and the Civil War as Charles Henry Howard Born in a small town in Maine Howard came from a family with a distinguished history of soldiering his grandfather was a Revolutionary War veteran and his brother the older and more well known Oliver Otis Howard attended West Point and rose to command an army in the Civil War Following in his brother s footsteps Charles Henry Howard graduated from Bowdoin College in 1859 Following graduation Charles visited his older brother at West Point during the tumultuous election of 1860 While at West Point Howard saw the tensions between Northern and Southern cadets escalate as he weighed his options for a military or theological career The choice was made for him on April 12 1861 with the firing on Fort Sumter Responding to his brother s plea for the sons of Maine to join the Union cause Charles found himself a noncommissioned officer fighting in the disastrous Battle of First Bull Run All told Howard fought in several major battles of the Eastern Theater including Antietam Fredericksburg Chancellorsville and Gettysburg and went on to participate in various military actions in the Western Theater including Sherman s bloody Atlanta Campaign He was wounded twice first at the Battle of Fair Oaks and again at Fredericksburg Yet despite facing the worst horrors of war Howard rarely wavered in his faith and rose steadily in rank throughout the conflict By war s end he was a brevet brigadier general in command of the 128th U S Colored Troop Regiment Howard s letters cover a wide ranging period from 1852 to 1908 His concern for his family is typical of a Civil War soldier but his exceptionally firm reliance on divine providence is what makes these letters an extraordinary window into the mind of a Civil War officer Howard's grounded faith was often tested by the viciousness of war and as a result his letters are rife with stirring confessions and his emotional grappling with the harsh realities he faced Howard's letters expose the greater theological and metaphysical dilemmas of the war faced by so many on both sides

Embodied Liturgy Frank C. The American Phrenological Journal and Life Illustrated, 1865 Tales of the Day, 1861 Life in the Spirit Andrea Snavelly, 2015-05-12 What would the church look like if Christians saw their lives as constituted by the Spirit's presence to live as Jesus lived In a time when being led by the Spirit is defined more by achieving the American Dream than by Jesus's life answering this question rightly seems all the more critical for the church to survive in a culture increasingly hostile to Christianity Building upon the work of post-Constantinians John Howard Yoder and Stanley Hauerwas and upon the Trinitarian Spirit Christology of Leopoldo Sanchez this account of the Christian life provides a framework for seeing one's Christian life as one transformed by the Spirit to live in the resurrection reality of Jesus's sonship with the Father in the Spirit In the process one will discover that for Jesus being led by the Spirit meant trusting his Father to the point of death on a cross trusting God to resurrect him even if he did not save him Should it mean the same for Christians today If so this would require the church to reimagine its ministries for the Spirit to work repentance and faith rather than simple agreement For Christians living in the Spirit their lives might look very different Bibliography of the History of Medicine, 1993
