the inheritance Sahar Khalifeh, Aida Bamia, 2005 In this powerful novel acclaimed Palestinian author Sahar Khalifeh examines the stark realities in the lives of Palestinian women Through her protagonist Zeynab born to an American mother and a Palestinian father Khalifeh illuminates the disorienting experience of living between two worlds and the search for identity that mirrors the Palestinians own quest for nationhood Set against the emotionally charged background of the early 1990s when the Gulf War and the Oslo Accords fundamentally shifted the political landscape The Inheritance takes as its subject the fate of young Palestinian women who supported their families for decades working elsewhere in the Middle East In vivid prose Khalifeh traces the disruption caused by the Gulf War on the life of these women as Zeynab returns to her homeland and tries to adapt to her new life on the West Bank after years spent in Kuwait In her previous novels Sahar Khalifeh has established herself as the premier female novelist of the Palestinian diaspora with The Inheritance she breaks new ground in giving voice to these Palestinian women and their return from economic exile With its critical portrayal of the Palestinian Authority its mistakes and limitations The Inheritance offers a surprising look at the realities of Palestinian life and society As the story of an immigrant torn between two cultures and struggling to adapt to both Zeynab's tale touches on universal themes that will resonate with readers everywhere Desde el Magreb al Máshreq Juan Vicente Aliaga, 2012

All The Pasha's Men: Mehmed Ali, His Army And The Making Of Modern Egypt Khaled Fahmy, 2002 Basing his work on previously neglected archival material the author demonstrates how Mehmed Ali sought to develop the Egyptian economy and armies not as a means of gaining independence but to further his hereditary rule over Egypt In Quest of Justice Khaled Fahmy, 2023-02-07 In Quest of Justice provides the first full account of the establishment and workings of a new kind of state in Egypt in the modern period Drawing on groundbreaking research in the Egyptian archives this highly original book shows how the state affected those subject to it and their response Illustrating how sharia was actually implemented how criminal justice functioned and how scientific medical knowledges and practices were introduced Khaled Fahmy offers exciting new interpretations that are neither colonial nor nationalist Moreover he shows how lower class Egyptians did not see modern practices that fused medical and legal purposes in new ways as contrary to Islam This is a major contribution to our understanding of Islam and modernity Arab Society Nicholas S. Hopkins, Saad Eddin Ibrahim, 1997 This all new edition of the classic Arab Society Social Science Perspectives containing thirty new articles by leading scholars examines Arab society in the 1990s Articles by scholars from many countries explore such subjects as Arab unity and identity demographic processes the roles of men women and family rural social change political developments and religious change For students scholars and general readers alike Arab Society offers up to date analysis and discussion of the social political and economic transformations that face the region today

Theaters of Citizenship Sonali

Pahwa,2020-04-15 Theaters of Citizenship investigates independent Egyptian performance practices from 2004 to 2014 to demonstrate how young dramatists staged new narratives of citizenship outside of state institutions exploring rights claims and enacting generational identity Using historiography ethnography and performance analysis the book traces this avant garde from the theater networks of the late Hosni Mubarak era to productions following the Egyptian revolution of 2011 In 2004 independent cultural institutions were sites for more democratic forms of youth organization and cultural participation than were Egyptian state theaters Sonali Pahwa looks at identity formation within this infrastructure for new cultural production festivals independent troupes workshops and manifesto movements Bringing institutional changes in dialogue with new performance styles on stages and streets Pahwa conceptualizes performance culture as a school of citizenship Independent theater incubated hope in times of despair and pointed to different futures for the nation s youth than those seen in television and newspapers Young dramatists countered their generation s marginalization in the neoliberal economy media and political institutions as they performed alternative visions for the nation An important contribution to the fields of anthropology and performance studies Pahwa s analysis will also interest students of sociology and Egyptian history Snap Judgments Okwui Enwezor,2006 Featuring approximately 250 works by over thirty artists from across the African continent Snap Judgements presents a range of highly individual artistic responses to the unprecedented changes now taking place in Africa and provides new insight into the increasing role of the visual arts within the global cultural community In addition to introducing audiences to the multiple imaginations and voices that constitute today s African artists the book explores ways that this body of photo based art arises from the dialectic of African aesthetic values and Western influences BOOK JACKET

The Oxford Handbook of Urban Planning Randall Crane,Rachel Weber,2015 Why plan How and what do we plan Who plans for whom These three questions are then applied across three major topics in planning States Markets and the Provision of Social Goods The Methods and Substance of Planning and Agency Implementation and Decision Making My Life in Jewelry Azza Fahmy,2024-07-09 How a female artisan became the Arab world s top jewelry designer CNBC on Azza Fahmy The inspiring personal story of an exceptional female artist and entrepreneur who overcame great obstacles to become one of the most recognized jewelers in the Arab world and an international luxury brand In the Egypt of the 1970s a young Azza Fahmy set out into the all male world of Historic Cairo s jewelry district to apprentice as a silversmith This was the start of a remarkable success story that would make her name an international luxury brand With warmth and candor she recalls a happy childhood in Upper Egypt spent in the bygone world of postwar Egypt This idyllic start to life ended abruptly with the death of her father when Azza Fahmy was only thirteen and the family was forced to move to Cairo to begin a new life under much reduced circumstances It was a chance find at a book fair that changed the course of events for her sparking a passion for silversmithing and inspiring her to seek out the master craftsmen of Khan al Khalili the great craft district of Historic Cairo and the nearby Sagha or goldsmiths and silversmiths district Through her intimate knowledge of these jewelry workshops Azza Fahmy takes us through the quarter's exquisite architecture and bustling alleyways peopled with silversmiths goldsmiths brass workers and artisans of every stripe and lays out the indelible influence this now disappearing world has left on her acclaimed jewelry designs While Azza Fahmy's story is one of great accomplishment woven through it are her struggles as a single mother a middle class Egyptian and a woman working in a man's profession This memoir a tribute to the people and places that shaped her creative imagination is also an ode to the conviction that with hope and perseverance anything is possible

The Literary Life of Cairo Samia Mehrez, 2011-01-01 Readings from literary works that re-construct a century of Cairo's changing social life Unlike The Literary Atlas of Cairo which focuses on the literary geopolitics of the cityscape this companion volume immerses the reader in the complex network of socioeconomic and cultural lives in the city The seven chapters first introduce the reader to representations of some of Cairo's prominent profiles both political and cultural and their impact on the city's literary geography before presenting a spectrum of readings of the city by its multiethnic multinational and multilingual writers across class gender and generation Daunting images of colonial school experiences and startling contrasts of postcolonial educational realities are revealed while Cairo's moments of political participation and oppression are illustrated as well as the space accorded to women within the city across history and class The city's marginals are placed on its literary map alongside representations of the relationship between writing and drugs and the places paraphernalia and products of the drug world across class and time Together The Literary Atlas of Cairo and The Literary Life of Cairo produce a literary geography of Cairo that goes beyond the representation of space in literature to reconstruct the complex network of human relationships in that space

All the Pasha's Men Khaled Fahmy, 1997-11-13 While previous scholarship has viewed Mehmed Ali Pasha as the founder of modern Egypt Khaled Fahmy offers a new interpretation of his role in the rise of Egyptian nationalism locating him in the Ottoman context as an ambitious Ottoman reformer Basing his work on previously neglected archival material the author demonstrates how Mehmed Ali sought to develop the Egyptian economy and to build up the army not as a means of gaining Egyptian independence from the Ottoman Empire but to further his own ambitions for hereditary rule over the province In its analysis of nation building and the construction of state power the book makes a significant contribution to the larger theoretical debates It will therefore be essential reading for students in the field as well as for Ottomanists military historians and those interested in the development of the modern nation state
