Learning about India Barbara J. Harrison, 1977. Listen to the Heron's Words Gloria Goodwin Raheja, Ann Grodzins Gold, 1994-04-29. In many South Asian oral traditions, herons are viewed as duplicitous and conniving. These traditions tend also to view women as fragmented identities, dangerously split between virtue and virtuosity, between loyalties to their own families and those of their husbands. In women's songs, however, symbolic herons speak, telling of alternative moral perspectives shaped by women. The heron's words and women's expressive genres more generally criticize pervasive North Indian ideologies of gender and kinship that place women in subordinate positions. By inviting readers to listen to the heron's words, the authors convey this shift in moral perspective and suggest that these spoken truths are compelling and consequential for the women in North India. The songs and narratives bear witness to a provocative cultural dissonance embedded in women's speech. This book reveals the power of these critical commentaries and the fluid and permeable boundaries between spoken words and the lives of ordinary village women.

Wild World Deepak Arora, 2019. Bali the langur decides to move back into the Wild World after getting fed up of chasing monkeys in the city. Bhola the bear escapes to the jungle from the brutalities of his human owner to lead a happy and satiated life. On the night of Bali's welcome party, Bali saves Raja the tiger from the bullets of a poacher. The other animals are impressed and request him to go back to the city and help Rani the tigress to escape from the City Zoo. Wild World is a whacky and hilarious tale of a runaway langur and an ever-hungry bear who join paws to save the jungle from becoming a human colony.

The Enchanted Kingdom Trilogy Jasmuheen, 2009-01-04. Three books in one to form a most uplifting trilogy by metaphysical author Jasmuheen. Queen of the Matrix, Fiddlers of the Fields, King of Hearts, The Field of Love, and Elysium. Shamballa's Sacred Symphony. The Elysium prophecy states: When the Queen of the Matrix returns, the King to her heart, peace will come to all on Earth regardless of their part. And when compassion sets the pace, all will find new rhythms, a peace within, and a peace without to last beyond millennia. A cross between Harry Potter, Star Wars, the Matrix movies, and the realms of C. S. Lewis, this new trilogy of fiction weaves in some of the aboriginal dreamtime legends while offering insights on past lives and future lives, perfect love, and profound love plus parallel worlds. All of this is covered in this enchanting trilogy which will enlighten and entertain all ages.

Caste and the City Deeba Zafir, 2024-06-21. This book looks at Dalits in the city and examines the nature of Dalit aspirations as well as the making of an urban sensibility through an analysis of hitherto unexamined short stories of some of the first and second generation as well as contemporary Dalit writers in Hindi. Tracing the origins of the emergence of Dalit critical consciousness to the arrival of the Dalits into the print medium after their migration to the city, this book examines their transactions with modernity and the emancipatory promises it held out to them. It highlights the literary tropes that mark their fiction specifically those short stories which take up urban themes and shows how even in seemingly caste neutral spaces caste discrimination is present The book also undertakes an examination of the stories by contemporary Dalit women writers in Hindi Rajat Rani Meenu and Anita Bharti who have posed a radical challenge to both the mainstream feminist movement and the Dalit movement The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of South Asian literature especially Hindi literature Dalit studies subaltern history postcolonial studies political science and sociology as well as the informed general reader
