My Soul Cried Out...But I Could Not Weep Elisabeth Holyday, 2011-12-13 A small town country girl from humble beginnings with a passion for music and church is trapped for decades with a traumatic secret that changed the direction of her life This playful happy go lucky little girl who once indulged in solving arithmetic that went far beyond her tender age and running home from school to get to the Wednesday night Prayer Meetings now gives a refreshingly tasteful view of life at home with her mother and siblings rich in love though shadowed with poverty The extent she went to spare her mother from more heartache when she faced her worst nightmare is a testament to her resounding strength to protect her mother at all cost but it wasn't enough to shield her from the effects of what her silence would cost her in the years ahead At times it's like a story out of a fiction movie unfortunately it's not It is the story of a real person a mother who is forced to share her story so her children can finally know the truth Tumultuous yet inspiring every ounce of this soul was put to the test but her faith withstood them all The courage to always get up and keep going despite obstacles and the determination to survive not so much for herself but for her children and her mother makes this a book for every mother daughter and sister It can only be concurred that the loving bond Elisabeth had with her Mom and the love she got in return along with everything she learned in Church and Sunday school shaped and moulded this precious soul for the unimaginable road she would walk ALONE And now twenty five years after her daughter said to her Mom of all the books you have read there's a book that has not been written and that's your book Elisabeth finally speaks

A Murder in the Hills of Kentucky
Ursula E. Howard,2024-05-08 Evie the protagonist wanted to recuperate from her studies at Usher University in Indiana during the semester break and intended to visit her American Mother Mary her former mother in law at their family's home in Kentucky Mary still considered Evie as one of her children even though she divorced Mary's son Bruno Evie was glad to have found a mother figure as her biological mother treated her like a rival of her father and hadn't given her the attention and care that she needed Her natural Mom only showed interest in Evie when it benefited her and only when she needed something As her estranged former sister in law Abigail was supposed to pick her up at the Greyhound Bus Station to take her to the Harrods house Abigail shared horrible news Mom is dead Evie's whole body shook and her blood ran cold adding to the fear of what was to come among the violent Harrods in the house without Mom's protection due to the fear of having to stay there Evie's stay without Mom in the house was a nightmare All the memories of her marriage to Bruno seemed to come back especially since she was staying in her Ex's childhood refuge The room where Bruno had suffered from the brutality of childhood adolescence and even adulthood when he visited his parents house Without Mom's presence in the house Evie could feel the traumas and pain from Bruno and her own fearing for her life But this time it wasn't just the shock and pain of Mom's death but also the loss of security with the Harrods who seemed to be a strange brutal but still loving family The younger brother Wayne who was incarcerated at a Corrections Center in Crown Point would be of no help if violence occurred Evie had often hung out at the entrance of the barn when she visited the Harrods A few months back when Evie was relaxing in her hide out she overheard a heated discussion between the Preacher Charlie and her Mom who accused him of teaching her the wrong thing of raising her boys with the rod and believing as a true Baptist fanatical fundamentalist in the seeming goodness of the wrath of the God of the Old Testament The preacher was shocked when he found out that Mary had regretted her strict upbringing of the boys She had an epiphany after receiving help from the Cherokees and it sparked a new way of thinking through a Vision Quest At dinner before the funeral Evie was accompanied by Abigail her new boyfriend Tom who never said a word and Bruno She thought that Dad pretended to not be able to speak because he seemed to avoid any hard topics of discussion And Evie was obsessed from the beginning by the question who had killed her Mom The funeral service took place the next day in the chapel Chaos ensued as Wayne lost his composure and screamed about his hatred for Mom her way of punishing him when he was young and his desire for her to die after Evie had lost control of herself The Baptist congregation was dumbfounded by the trauma Wayne was expressing Then there was an infernal climax the faithful with their heads bowed motionless like the preacher at the altar so immobile and speechless that he could not address his congregation while the evildoer was led out of the chapel In the Midst of My Tears David Augustin Hodge, Sr.,2003-05 Angeliad Surazeus Astarius,2017-10-09 Angeliad of Surazeus Revelation of Angela presents 136 377 lines of verse in 1 346 poems lyrics ballads sonnets dramatic monologues eulogies hymns and epigrams written by Surazeus 2001 to 2005 My Soul Is a Witness Mari N. Crabtree,2023-01-10 An intimate look at the afterlife of lynching through the personal stories of Black victims and survivors who lived through and beyond its trauma Mari N Crabtree traces the long afterlife of lynching in the South through the traumatic memories it left in its wake She unearths how African American victims and survivors found ways to live through and beyond the horrors of lynching offering a theory of African American collective trauma and memory rooted in the ironic spirit of the blues sensibility a spirit of misdirection and cunning that blends joy and pain Black southerners often shielded their loved ones from the most painful memories of local lynchings with strategic silences but also told lynching stories about vengeful ghosts or a wrathful God or the deathbed confessions of a lyncher tormented by his past They protested lynching and its legacies through art and activism and they mourned those lost to a mob s fury They infused a blues element into their lynching narratives to confront traumatic memories and keep the blues at bay even if just for a spell Telling their stories troubles the simplistic binary of resistance or submission that has tended to dominate narratives of Black life and reminds us that amid the utter devastation of lynching were glimmers of hope and an affirmation of life The Song of a Dark Angel (Hugh Corbett Mysteries, Book 8) Paul Doherty,2012-10-30 The Norfolk coast is besieged by a series of murders can Hugh Corbett find the killer The Song of a Dark Angel is the eighth mystery in Paul Doherty s medieval series featuring intrepid sleuth Hugh Corbett Perfect for fans of Robin Hobb and Michael Jecks November 1302 and Sir Hugh Corbett Edward I s Keeper of the Secret Seal together with his manservant Ranulf and messenger Maltote are sent to Mortlake Manor on the Norfolk coast to confront an evil rarely seen before A man s headless corpse its head impaled on a pole has been found on a beach and the pretty young wife of a local baker has been found hanging from a gallows The scene is set for more gruesome deaths and Corbett soon realises that the icy wastes of Norfolk where the eerie song of the Dark Angel wind chills those that live in the small villages along the coast are just as treacherous as the silken intrigue at the royal court or the violence of London s fetid alleyways What readers are saying about The Song of a Dark Angel Paul Doherty s understanding of the period s political social and religious history brings this medieval masterpiece alive Paul s flair for the atmospheric and his skill with the mysterious combine to produce a page turning

Blood and Soap Linh Dinh, 2004-05-04 Blood and Soap is a breakthrough collection of modern day fables from a wildly inventive American writer whose fiction has been called terse and edgy Booklist and vividly imagined Kirkus Reviews Dinh's gift is for constructing in the manner of Italo Calvino simple narratives that quickly frame larger questions with a poet's timing the author builds his stories to the one or few climactic sentences that brand them with unforgettable meaning In one tale a Vietnamese boy's self-guided haphazard study of English gives way to a meditation on the universality of language Everything seems chaotic at first but nothing is chaotic One can read anything ants crawling on the ground pimples on a face trees in a forest In another story a man opens a newspaper and sees the photograph of a man he may have murdered which he impulsively clips only to feel that in doing so he unwittingly has sealed his crime As soon as I finished I realized what I had done by cutting my father's likeness out of the newspaper I had removed him from the world The collection crescendoes in displays of raw creative power as in Eight Plots a rapid fire of three and four sentence summaries and the brilliant impressionistic Blood and Soap is an arresting collection from one of a small number of writers on the vanguard of American fiction
