Rapture Encaged The Suppression Of The Feminine In Western Culture:

Rapture Encaged Ruth S. El Saffar, 1994 Rapture Encaged The Suppression of the Feminine in Western Culture is a study in female individuation Through an analysis of the seventeenth century visionary nun Isabel de la Cruz Ruth Anthony El Saffar examines the process of individuation in women and questions whether in seeking to achieve this Jungian ideal women are being asked to adapt to images of the feminine that are constructed by a patriarchal culture Rapture Encaged shows that we have no adequate theories of women's coming to wholeness and illustrates how Isabel's story is representative both of the suppression of the feminine in modern Western consciousness and of the psyche's compensatory powers The Formation of the Child in Early Modern Spain Grace E. Coolidge, 2016-03-16 Drawing on history literature and art to explore childhood in early modern Spain the contributors to this collection argue that early modern Spaniards conceptualized childhood as a distinct and discrete stage in life which necessitated special care and concern The volume contrasts the didactic use of art and literature with historical accounts of actual children and analyzes children in a wide range of contexts including the royal court the noble family and orphanages The volume explores several interrelated questions that challenge both scholars of Spain and scholars specializing in childhood How did early modern Spaniards perceive childhood In what framework literary artistic did they think about their children and how did they visualize those children's roles within the family and society How do gender and literary genres intersect with this concept of childhood How did ideas about childhood shape parenting parents and adult life in early modern Spain How did theories about children and childhood interact with the actual experiences of children and their parents The group of international scholars contributing to this book have developed a variety of creative interdisciplinary approaches to uncover children's lives the role of children within the larger family adult perceptions of childhood images of children and childhood in art and literature and the ways in which children and childhood were vulnerable and in need of protection Studying children uncovers previously hidden aspects of Spanish history and allows the contributors to analyze the ideals and goals of Spanish culture the inner dynamics of the Habsburg court and the vulnerabilities and weaknesses that Spanish society fought to overcome On Becoming God: Late Medieval Mysticism and the Modern Western Self Ben Morgan, 2013 Do we have to conceive of ourselves as isolated individuals inevitably distanced from other people and from whatever we might mean when we use the word God On Becoming God offers an innovative approach to the history of the modern Western self by looking at human identity as something people do together rather than on their own as a way of managing and keeping at bay the impulses and experiences associated with the word God The self is a way of doing things or of not doing things with God The book draws on phenomenology Heidegger gender studies Beauvoir Butler and contemporary neuroscience It surveys existing approaches to modern selfhood Foucault Charles Taylor and proposes an alternative account by investigating late medieval mysticism in particular texts written in Germany by Meister Eckhart and others It concludes by exploring the parallel between late medieval confessors and their spiritual charges and late nineteenth century psychoanalysts and their patients in search of a vocabulary for acknowledging and nurturing our everyday commitments to others and to our spiritual longings

Early Modern Women's Writing and Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Stephanie Merrim, 1999 This book maps the field of seventeenth century women's writing in Spanish English and French and situates the work of Sor Juana more clearly within that field It holds up the multi layered proto feminist writings of Sor Juana as a meaningful lens through which to focus the literary production of her female contemporaries Merrim's book advances the integration of Hispanic women authors and women's issues into the panorama of early modern women's writing and opens up unexplored commonalities between Sor Juana and her sister writers Early modern women writers whose works are explored include Marie de Gournay Margaret Fell Fox Catalina de Erauso Maria de Zayas Ana Caro Mme de Lafayette Anne Bradstreet St Teresa and Margaret Lucas Cavendish Merrim's study provides a full bodied picture of the resources that the cultural and historical climates of the seventeenth century placed at the disposal of women writers the manners in which women writers instrumentalized them the building blocks and concerns of early modern women's writing and the continuities between early modern and modern women's writing Written in an engaging clear manner this innovative study will be of interest not only to Hispanists but also to scholars in early modern studies women's studies history and comparative literature

Women Warriors in Early Modern Spain Susan L. Fischer, Frederick A. de Armas, 2019-07-18 Although scholars often depict early modern Spanish women as victims history and fiction of the period are filled with examples of women who defended their God given right to make their own decisions and to define their own identities The essays in Women Warriors in Early Modern Spain examine many such examples demonstrating how women battled the status quo defended certain causes challenged authority and broke barriers Such women did not necessarily engage in masculine pursuits but often used cultural production and engaged in social subversion to exercise resistance in the home in the convent on stage or at their writing desks Distributed for the University of Delaware Press

Autobiographical Writing by Early Modern Hispanic Women Elizabeth Teresa Howe, 2016-04-08 Women's life writing in general has too often been ignored dismissed or relegated to a separate category in those few studies of the genre that include it The present work addresses these issues and offers a countervailing argument that focuses on the contributions of women writers to the study of autobiography in Spanish during the early modern period There are indeed examples of autobiographical writing by women in Spain and its New World empire evident as early as the fourteenth century Memorias penned by Doña Leonor López de Córdoba and continuing through the seventeenth century Cartas of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz What sets these accounts apart the author shows are the variety of forms adopted by each woman to tell her life and the circumstances in which she adapts her narrative to satisfy the presence of male critics whether ecclesiastic or political actual or imagined who would dismiss or even alter her life story Analyzing how each of these women viewed her life and conversely how their contemporaries both male and female received and sometimes edited her account Howe reveals the tension in the texts between telling a life and telling a lie and Women in the Early Modern Hispanic World Elizabeth Teresa Howe, 2016-04-29 Considering the presence and influence of educated women of letters in Spain and New Spain this study looks at the life and work of early modern women who advocated by word or example for the education of women The subjects of the book include not only such familiar figures as Sor Juana and Santa Teresa de Jes s but also of less well known women of their time The author uses primary documents published works artwork and critical sources drawn from history literature theatre philosophy women s studies education and science Her analysis juxtaposes theories espoused by men and women of the period concerning the aptitude and appropriateness of educating women with the actual practices to be found in convents schools court theaters and homes What emerges is a fuller picture of women s learning in the early modern period Dressed to Kill Elizabeth

Rhodes, 2011-01-01 The noble wives in Mar a de Zayas s Desenga os suffer terrible fates one is beheaded another poisoned one is cemented into a chimney while yet another is locked into a tiny wall closet where she dies The hallmark of Zayas s aesthetics these characters are the central reason why her fiction has increased in popularity through the ages Yet their stories pose an apparent contradiction between the author s pro female rhetoric and her gusto for killing model women then beautifying their mutilated cadavers Dressed to Kill reconciles Zayas s Desenga os with the age in which it was written contextualizing the book in baroque poetics the Spanish honour code and fifteenth century martyr saints lives Elizabeth Rhodes elegantly uncovers Zayas s intention to reform the Spanish nobility by displaying noble misbehaviour and its deadly consequences Her book concludes by detailing the Desenga os intriguing influence on the aesthetic base of Gothic literature by revealing that its authors were avid readers of Zayas A Midsummer Night's Dream: Shakespeare's Syzygy of
