Nonaligned Modernism Bojana Videkanić, 2020-02-20 In less than half a century the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia successfully defeated Fascist occupation fended off dominating pressures from the Eastern and Western blocs built a modern society on the ashes of war created its own form of socialism and led the formation of the Nonaligned Movement This country's principles and its continued battles fought against all odds provided the basis for dynamic and exceptional forms of art Drawing on archival materials postcolonial theory and Eastern European socialist studies Nonaligned Modernism chronicles the emergence of late modernist artistic practices in Yugoslavia from the end of the Second World War to the mid 1980s Situating Yugoslav modernism within postcolonial artistic movements of the twentieth century Bojana Videkanic explores how cultural workers collaborated with others from the Global South to create alternative artistic and cultural networks that countered Western hegemony Videkanic focuses primarily on art exhibitions along with examples of international cultural exchange to demonstrate that nonaligned art wove together politics and aesthetics and indigenous Western and global influences An interdisciplinary book Nonaligned Modernism highlights Yugoslavia's key role in the creation of a global modernist ethos and international postcolonial culture

Phantoms on the Bookshelves Jacques Bonnet, 2013-11-05 This enchanting study on the art of living with books considers how our personal libraries reveal our true nature far more than just places they are living labyrinths of our innermost feelings The author a lifelong accumulator of books both ancient and modern lives in a house large enough to accommodate his many thousands of books as well as overspill from the libraries of his friends While his musings on the habits of collectors past and present are learned witty and instructive his advice on cataloguing may even save the lives of those whose books are so prodigiously piled as to be a hazard Phantoms on the Bookshelves ranges from classical Greece to contemporary Iceland from Balzac and Moby Dick to Google offering up delicious anecdotes along the way This elegantly produced volume will be a lasting delight to specialist collectors librarians bibliophiles and all those who treasure books

Modern European Borders in Fiction Andrew Hammond, 2025-09-18 There are few features of the contemporary world more significant than national and regional borders In modern Europe the practices of human division have defined the continent from the early years of the Cold War to the present barriers of Fortress Europe whose exposure of irregular migrants to trafficking discrimination and deportation is rarely absent from the daily news Modern European Borders in Fiction offers a comprehensive study of literary responses to the topic Through reference to over 600 novels and short stories Andrew Hammond analyses the wide ranging engagement of post 1945 novelists with the ideologies processes and effects of territorialisation as well as the related issues of military conflict migration populism nationalism and regionalism Among the topics under study are the ideological divisions of the Cold War the closed societies of totalitarian communism the labour migrations of the 1950s and 1960s the tightening of border controls from the 1970s the twenty first century war on migration the official restrictions on borderland communities the conflicts in Bosnia Georgia and Ukraine and the patterns of social segregation that have marked the continent from the Second World War to the present Drawing on theoretical work in the social sciences and the humanities this is a ground breaking contribution to European literary studies establishing the importance of continental border writing and opening up fresh avenues for decolonised teaching and research

Forever Flowing Vasilii Semenovich Grossman,1997 The novel tells the story of Ivan Grigoryevich who has returned to Russia after thirty years in the Gulag After short and unsatisfying visits to familiar places and persons in Moscow and Leningrad the hero settles in a southern provincial town where he briefly establishes a new life with a war widow Ivan Grigoryevich eventually returns to his boyhood home on the Black Sea where he is finally able to come to terms with the inhumanity of the new Russian regime

Russian Nights Vladimir Fedorovich Odoevsky,1997-03-20 Russian Nights Vladimir Fedorovich Odoevsky s major work is of great importance in Russian intellectual history This captivating novel is the summation of Odoevsky s views and interests in many fields Gothic literature romanticism mysticism the occult social responsibility Westernization utopia and anti utopia Compared variously to The Decameron to Hoffman s Serapion Brethren and the Platonic dialogues Russian Nights is a mixture of genres a series of romantic and society tales framed by Odoevsky s musings on the main strands of Russian thought of the 1820s and 1830s This is a unique work of Russian literature and a key sourcebook for Russian romanticism and Russian social and aesthetic thought of its epoch

The Old Man Iurii Trifonov,1999 The Old Man veers between a contemporary effort to buy a dacha and the memories of an incident during the Civil War A questionable action in the past haunts the present and throws into relief the materialism that has come to replace revolutionary idealism by suggesting that this idealism may have been tainted in the first place Trifonov implicitly blames the past for the ills of the present While the setting and situation are very Soviet the quandary Trifonov describes has universal significance Book Jacket systems in the real world ranging from technological ones such as the Internet and World Wide Web biological networks such as that of connections of the nervous systems food webs or protein interactions infrastructural systems such as networks of roads airports or the power grid to patterns of social and professional relationships such as friendship sex partners network of Hollywood actors co authorship networks and many more Recent years have witnessed a substantial amount of interest within the scientific community in the properties of these networks The emergence of the internet in particular coupled with the widespread availability of inexpensive computing resources has facilitated studies ranging from large scale empirical analysis of networks in the real world to the development of theoretical models and tools to explore the various properties of these systems The study of networks is broadly interdisciplinary and central developments have occurred in many fields including mathematics physics computer and information sciences biology and the social sciences This book brings together a collection of cutting edge research in the field from a diverse array of researchers ranging from physicists to social scientists and presents them in a coherent fashion highlighting the strong interconnections between the different areas Topics included are social networks and social media opinion and innovation diffusion biological and health related networks language networks as well as network theory community detection or growth models for Complex Networks

Weary Men Arne Garborg, 1999 With its angst ridden sensualist hero Anne Garborg's classic invites comparison with the classic European decadent novels of the turn of the century Huysmans's Against the Grain and Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray Unlike the protagonists of those novels however the hero of Weary Men is treated with irony And while it is a brilliant novel of ideas Weary Men has endured primarily because of the acuity with which Garborg explores the roguish main character's psychological makeup

Kotik Letaev Andrey Bely, 1999 A Russian novel which looks at childhood seen through the eyes of a boy from the age of three to five years in the 1800s

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2006-09-13 Continuing the work undertaken in Vol 1 of the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe Vol 2 considers various topographic sites multicultural cities border areas cross cultural corridors multiethnic regions that cut across national boundaries rendering them permeable to the flow of hybrid cultural messages By focusing on the literary cultures of specific geographical locations this volume intends to put into practice a new type of comparative study Traditional comparative literary studies establish transnational comparisons and contrasts but thereby reconfirm however inadvertently the very national borders they play down This volume inverts the expansive momentum of comparative studies towards ever broader regional European and world literary histories While the theater of this volume is still the literary culture of East Central Europe the contributors focus on pinpointed local traditions and geographic nodal points Their histories of Riga Plovdiv Timișoara or Budapest of Transylvania or the Danube corridor to take a few examples reveal how each of these sites was during the last two hundred years a home for a variety of foreign or ethnic literary traditions next to the one now dominant within the national borders By foregrounding such non national or hybrid traditions

this volume pleads for a diversification and pluralization of local and national histories A genuine comparatist revival of literary history should involve the recognition that treading on native grounds means actually treading on grounds cultivated by diverse people The Wandering Jew Stefan Heym, 1999 Beginning at the Beginning Heym introduces both Ahasverus and Lucifer as angels in free fall cast out of heaven for their opinions of God's order The story follows their respective oppositions through the rest of time Ahasverus defiant through protest rooted in love and a faith in progress and Lucifer rebellious by means of his biblically familiar methods
