Building a New Majority Michael P. Balzano,2016-01-22 Building a New Majority weaves together the autobiographical recollections of the political and professional life of the author Michael P Balzano with his seasoned analysis of several successful Republican presidential campaigns The combination provides the foundation for recommendations for current and future Republican candidates to follow in capturing a majority of the nations working class voters The narrative follows the author the son of working class Italian immigrants from his boyhood in New Haven Connecticut through his time as a high school dropout and garbage collector to his return to school where he earned a doctoral degree at Georgetown University His story attracted the attention of staff members in the administration of President Richard M Nixon Brought on board to provide insights and to coordinate efforts to reach ethnic and working class voters as part of Nixons strategy to create a New Majority he contributed to the winning 1972 campaign He later performed similar roles in President Ronald Reagans 1980 and 1984 campaigns and in President George H W Bushs 1988 campaign From these experiences he offers guidance to Republican candidates seeking to win elections by appealing to members of labor unions and the working class For any political party to win the White House it must capture a majority of working class voters Building a New Majority is a blueprint for constructing a new Republican majority that can win elections Building upon those victories they can govern in ways that invite all people to share in a common future in which individuals may improve their social status and their economic wellbeing living out the American Dream
