Japan's Relations with Muslim Asia B. Bryan Barber, 2019-12-10 This book offers a useful and extensive account of Japan s past discoveries and present interactions with Muslim states and societies across Asia Bearing in mind the U S led global meta narrative of Islam spoken in tandem with security and threats this book examines how this reconciles with Japan s self proclaimed values based approach to diplomacy across Asia in the twenty first century The author considers Japan s historic conceptualization and learning of Islam and its acute needs for access to markets and energy from Muslim majority states in Asia He also argues that Japan securitizes Islam in a manner distinct from Western Russian or Chinese securitization today but that Japan promotes itself as a model for human security and development across an Asia inclusive of Muslim states Japan s approach to Islam and Muslim societies today offers much from which other great powers can learn

Metamorphosis Sarah Travis, 2019-07-30 Post Christendom Christian leaders and preachers in North America struggle to respond to anxiety and despair about the future of the church Declining participation fewer resources decreased influence and confusion about pastoral and ecclesial identity lead to fear for the survival of the institutional church Preaching must speak to the despair and confusion faced by congregations today as well as cast a hopeful vision for an uncertain future This book argues that preachers can change the narrative of the church post Christendom by urging an exit from Christendom ecclesiology and promoting the construction of an identity that embraces vulnerability and incarnation instead of power and permanence Counterintuitively failure decrease and marginalization constitute good news for the church Through wide ranging conversation partners including postcolonial theory and theology social science systematic theology and homiletic literature this book engages preachers and scholars who seek to reimagine both gospel and ecclesial identity in order to bring new life to communities in despair Preachers participate in a process of metamorphosis in which the church s self understanding is transformed into a vulnerable incarnate community that leaves behind the character of Christendom

Community as Church, Church as Community Michael Plekon, 2021-07-22 Parishes of all denominations are in decline shrinking closing dying We know that there are increasing numbers young and older who are religious nones and dones This book explores why the decline is taking place why the distancing is going on But it goes on to examine parishes from all over the country and from various church bodies that are resurrecting The central theme of death and resurrection shapes the analysis of parishes covered Parishes are resurrecting by reinventing their ministries by repurposing their building to better serve their neighborhoods thus replanting and reconnecting with them All of this is the Spirit s doing but through the community of sisters and brothers who make up each congregation of faith Community as the core of church is the other reality shaping the book s reflection And community a parish being with those around living for more than its own survival are visions for going forward Other aspects of congregational life are also examined most importantly the pastors how they serve when budgets shrink how they are trained how pastors act with the community not above it No recipes are suggested for parish resurrection but the stories of the parishes that have revived bear within numerous lessons for us in the future
