Excerpt Gentlemen In the volume now in your hands the authors have touched upon that ugly devil of crime with which it is your glory to have contended It were a waste of ink to do so in a serious spirit Let us dedicate our horror to acts of a more mingled strain where crime preserves some features of nobility and where reason and humanity can still relish the temptation Horror in this case is due to Mr Parnell he sits before posterity silent Mr Forster s appeal echoing down the ages Horror is due to ourselves in that we have so long coquetted with political crime not seriously weighing not acutely following it from cause to consequence but with a generous unfounded heat of sentiment like the schoolboy with the penny tale applauding what was specious When it touched ourselves truly in a vile shape we proved false to the imaginations discovered in a clap that crime was no less cruel and no less ugly under sounding names and recoiled from our false deities
