Return To The Source Selected Speeches:

Return to the Source Amilcar Cabral, Africa in World Affairs Rajen Harshé, 2019-04-03 Africa finds itself at the centre stage of world politics in the twenty first century To truly determine its rising influence and role in world affairs would mean unravelling the politics of imperialism the Cold War and globalisation Going beyond Euro American perspectives this book presents a comprehensive study of Africa and its role in world politics Africa in World Affairs Closely examines the transition of Africa in its colonial and post colonial phases Explores the intellectual history of modern Africa through liberation struggles social movements leaders and thinkers Investigates the continent s relationships with former colonial powers such as Britain France and Portugal untangles complexities of French neo colonialism and sheds light on the role of the superpower such as the USA and major and rising powers like China and India Highlights complex and wide ranging diversities of the region and the ways in which it continues to negotiate with issues of modernity racism and globalisation A core text on Africa and the world this book will be indispensable for students of African studies politics and international relations and history It will also be a must read for policymakers diplomats and government think tanks Transnational Literature of Resistance Salam Darwazah Mir, 2024-06-13 Fills a gap in comparative studies interrogating strategies of Empire in dominating the Indigenous and linking two modern cultures from the Global South Transnational Literature of Resistance compares and contrasts resistance literatures from Guyana a British exploitation colony and Palestine a settler colony at a specific historical moment Salam Darwazah Mir contests the provinciality and Eurocentric focus of comparative literature delivers the discipline s universal objectives and expands the discipline s practice by comparing two literatures and histories from the Global South Mir situates the literatures within their wider historical and literary heritage a move that links the two countries from within the colonial imperial framework She argues that the British invasion of the protectorate of British Guiana in 1953 and the founding of the settler colony in Palestine in 1948 with imperial Britain at the helm are colonial acts to strengthen and sustain Empire The two colonial projects are evidence of the protean nature of Empire that evolves reinvents itself and reconstructs new comparable ploys and strategies of controlling the Global South Within this context the emergence of poetry of resistance in both countries at this historical juncture is part and parcel of other forms of resistance during decolonization linking the formerly colonized and the presently colonized people in the Global South It is examined from within the framework of postcolonial theory as Mir reads poetry as the voice of the people in their demands for freedom equality and national independence Resistance poetry is thus born out of the need to assert identity redress invisibility and erasure reclaim national space and land and reconstruct the history of the Indigenous Hegel and the Third World Teshale Tibebu, 2011-02-02 Hegel more than any other modern Western philosopher produced the most systematic case for the superiority of Western white Protestant bourgeois modernity He established a racially structured ladder of gradation of the peoples of the world putting Germanic people at the top of the racial pyramid people of Asia in the middle and Africans and Indigenous people of the Americas and Pacific Islands at the bottom In Hegel and the Third World Tibebu guides the reader through Hegel s presentation on universalism to argue that such a classification flows in part from Hegel s philosophy of the development of human consciousness Hegel classified Africans as people arrested at the lowest and most immediate stage of consciousness that of the senses Asians as people with divided consciousness that of the understanding and Europeans as people of reason Tibebu demonstrates that Hegel s views were not his alone but reflected the fundamental beliefs of other major figures of Western thought at the time With detailed analysis and thorough research Hegel and the Third World challenges the central idea of Hegel s philosophy of history progress In addition Tibebu succeeds in providing a fascinating critique of the Western philosopher s rationalization of the gradual decline suffered by the people of the Third World in the context of modern world history

Land, the State and the Unfinished Decolonisation Project in Africa Chitonge, Horman, Mine, Yoichi, 2019-06-25 This book focuses on the work of one of the leading African scholars on the land question and agrarian transformation in Africa Sam Moyo It offers a critical discussion in conversation with Sam Moyo of the land question and the response of African states Since independence African states have been trying to address the colonial legacy on land policy and governance After six decades of formulating and implementing land reforms most countries have not succeeded in decolonising approaches to land policy and the administrative framework The book brings together the broader debates on the implications of decolonisation of Africa s land policy Through case studies from several African countries the book offers an empirical analysis on land reforms and the emerging land relations and how these affect land allocation and use including agricultural production Most of the chapters discuss how the unresolved land question in post colonial Africa impacts on agricultural production and rural development broadly The failure to decolonise colonial land policy and the imported tenure systems has left post colonial African states dancing to two tunes resulting in schizophrenic land and agrarian policies The book demonstrates that the failure by African states to reconcile imported and indigenous land tenure systems and practices is evident in the deliberate denigration of customary tenure It is also evident in the rising land inequality and the neglect of the agricultural sector the small scale and subsistence sub sectors in particular

African Football, Identity Politics and Global Media Narratives Tendai Chari, Nhamo A. Mhiripiri, 2016-02-10 This edited volume addresses key debates around African football identity construction fan cultures and both African and global media narratives Using the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa as a lens it explores how football in Africa is intimately bound up with deeper social cultural and political currents

Window on Freedom Brenda Gayle Plummer, 2003 Demonstrates how US foreign policy has been embedded in social economic and cultural factors of domestic and foreign origin It argues that the campaign to realize full civil rights for racial and ethnic minorities in the US is best understood in the context of competitive international relations

The Ambiguous Legacy Michael J. Hogan, 1999-11-13 This collection assesses the record of American foreign policy in the twentieth century

Decolonisation David Boucher, Ayesha Omar, Christopher

Allsobrook, Camilla Boisen, Ndumiso Dladla, Sule Emmanuel Egya, Michael Elliott, Steven Friedman, Amber Murrey, Paul Patton, Chris Saunders, Ian S Spears, 2023-10 Multidisciplinary scholars showcase their search for decolonial strategies from within their disciplinary focus covering ideas such as the different layers at which colonialism operates strategies for a decolonisation that does not recolonise and the importance of preserving and publishing in indigenous languages Decolonisation explores questions of justice injustice and inhumanity that have geographically and intellectually shaped the course of history through overlapping colonial decolonial and postcolonial eras This multidisciplinary collection uses the lenses of history philosophy literature and education to examine aspects of colonialism and decolonisation and their revolutionary and evolutionary manifestations which contributors argue occurred simultaneously in the historical and epistemological record The problems that come into focus have a kaleidoscopic effect on how we come to understand fraught issues from the invention of blacks to the formulation of the ideology of trusteeship and the obligations to lower civilisations Decolonisation brings together an internationally renowned group of scholars to showcase their search for decolonial strategies within their disciplinary focus covering ideas such as the different layers at which colonialism operates strategies for a decolonisation that does not recolonise and the importance of preserving and publishing in indigenous languages This is a much needed book for students and scholars in the field of decolonisation history philosophy and pedagogy The introductory offers a clear and concise primer to this complex subject covering colonialism imperialism decoloniality and the various actors involved Publisher's description

The Disappointed Bridge Richard Pine, 2014-06-02 This original study is the first major critical appraisal of Ireland's post colonial experience in relation to that of other emergent nations The parallels between Ireland India Latin America Africa and Europe establish bridges in literary and musical contexts which offer a unique insight into independence and freedom and the ways in which they are articulated by emergent nations They explore the master servant relationship the functions of narrative and the concepts of nationalism map making exile schizophrenia hybridity magical realism and disillusion The author offers many incisive answers to the question What happens to an emerging nation after it has emerged

A Place That Matters Yet Sara Byala, 2024-05-31 A Place That Matters Yet unearths the little known story of Johannesburg's MuseumAfrica a South African history museum that embodies one of the most dynamic and fraught stories of colonialism and postcolonialism its life spanning the eras before during and after apartheid Sara Byala in examining this story sheds new light not only on racism and its institutionalization in South Africa but also on the problems facing any museum that is charged with navigating colonial history from a postcolonial perspective Drawing on thirty years of personal letters and public writings by museum founder John Gubbins Byala paints a picture of a uniquely progressive colonist focusing on his philosophical notion of three dimensional thinking which aimed to transcend binaries and thus quite explicitly racism Unfortunately Gubbins died within weeks of the museum's opening and his hopes would go unrealized as the museum fell in line with emergent apartheid politics Following the museum through this transformation and on to its 1994 reconfiguration as a post apartheid institution Byala showcases it as a rich and problematic archive of both material culture and the ideas that surround that culture arguing for its continued importance in the establishment of a unified South Africa

The Oxford Handbook of Political Ideologies Michael Freeden, Lyman Tower Sargent, Marc Stears, 2013-08-15 This is the first comprehensive volume to offer a state of the art investigation both of the nature of political ideologies and of their main manifestations The diversity of ideology studies is represented by a mixture of the range of theories that illuminate the field combined with an appreciation of the changing complexity of concrete ideologies and the emergence of new ones Ideologies however are always with us The Handbook is divided into three sections The first is divided into three sections The first reflects some of the latest thinking about the development of ideology on an historical dimension from the standpoints of conceptual history Marx studies social science theory and history and leading schools of continental philosophy The second includes some of the most recent interpretations and theories of ideology all of which are sympathetic in their own ways to its exploration and close investigation even when judiciously critical of its social impact This section contains many of the more salient contemporary accounts of ideology The third focuses on the leading ideological families and traditions as well as on some of their cultural and geographical manifestations incorporating both historical and contemporary perspectives Each chapter is written by an expert in their field bringing the latest approaches and understandings to their task The Handbook will position the study of ideologies in the mainstream of political theory and political analysis and will attest to its indispensability both to courses on political theory and to scholars who wish to take their understanding of ideologies in new directions

The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Imperialism and Anti-Imperialism Immanuel Ness, Zak Cope, 2016-04-29 The Palgrave Encyclopedia Imperialism and Anti Imperialism objectively presents the prominent themes epochal events theoretical explanations and historical accounts of imperialism from 1776 to the present It is the most historically and academically comprehensive examination of the subject to date

Engaging Cultural Differences Richard A., Shweder, Martha Minow, Hazel Rose Markus, 2002-06-27 Liberal democracies are based on principles of inclusion and tolerance But how does the principle of tolerance work in practice in countries such as Germany France India South Africa and the United States where an increasingly wide range of cultural groups holds often contradictory beliefs about appropriate social and family life practices As these democracies expand to include peoples of vastly different cultural backgrounds the limits of tolerance are being tested as never before Engaging Cultural Differences explores how liberal democracies respond socially and legally to differences in the cultural and religious practices of their minority groups Building on such examples the contributors examine the role of tolerance in practical encounters between state officials and immigrants and between members of longstanding majority groups and increasing numbers of minority groups The volume also considers the theoretical implications of expanding the realm of tolerance Some contributors are reluctant to broaden the scope of tolerance while others insist that the notion of tolerance is itself potentially confining and demeaning and that modern nations should aspire to celebrate cultural differences Coming to terms with ethnic diversity and cultural differences has become a major public policy concern in contemporary liberal democracies as they struggle to adjust to burgeoning immigrant populations Engaging Cultural Differences provides a compelling examination of the challenges of multiculturalism and reveals a deep understanding of the challenges democracies face as they seek to accommodate their citizens diverse beliefs and practices Violence Toby Miller, 2020-10-22 Using discourses from across the conceptual and geographical board Toby Miller argues for a different way of understanding violence one that goes beyond supposedly universal human traits to focus instead on the specificities of history place and population as explanations for it Violence engages these issues in a wide ranging interdisciplinary form examining definitions and data psychology and ideology gender nation states and the media by covering several foundational questions how has violence been defined historically and geographically has it decreased or increased over time which regions of the world are the most violent does violence correlate with economies political systems and religions what is the relationship of gender and violence what role do the media play This book is a powerful introduction to the study of violence ideal for students and researchers across the human sciences most notably sociology American and area studies history media and communication studies politics literature and cultural studies The Hermeneutics of African Philosophy Tsenay Serequeberhan, 2013-01-11 Hermeneutics is a crucial but neglected perspective in African philosophy Here Tsenay Serequeberhan engages post colonial African literature and the ideas of the African liberation struggle with critically used insights from the European philosophical tradition Continuing the work of Theophilus Okere and Okonda Okolo this book attempts to overcome the debate between ethnophilosophy and professional philosophy demonstrating that the promise of African philosophy lies with the critical development of the African hermeneutical perspective On Black Media Philosophy Armond R. Towns, 2022-03 Introduction the medium is the message revisited media and Black epistemologies Technological darwinism Black escapism on the underground Black anthropocene Toward a theory of intercommunal media Black matter lives Michael Brown and digital afterlives Conclusion the reparations of the earth The Empire Writes Back Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2003-12-16 The experience of colonization and the challenges of a post colonial world have produced an explosion of new writing in English This diverse and powerful body of literature has established a specific practice of post colonial writing in cultures as various as India Australia the West Indies and Canada and has challenged both the traditional canon and dominant ideas of literature and culture The Empire Writes Back was the first major theoretical account of a wide range of post colonial texts and their relation to the larger issues of post colonial culture and remains one of the most significant works published in this field The authors three leading figures in post colonial studies open up debates about the interrelationships of post colonial literatures investigate the powerful forces acting on language in the post colonial text and show how these texts constitute a radical critique of Eurocentric notions of literature and language This book is brilliant not only for its incisive analysis but for its accessibility for readers new to the field Now with an additional chapter and an updated bibliography The Empire Writes Back is essential for contemporary post colonial studies A Moment on the Clock of the World Melanie Joseph, David Bruin, 2019-10-01 A MOMENT ON THE CLOCK OF THE WORLD is an invitation to consider how we make the world together It collects the voices of people who respond to this invitation with their living lives and prolific work artists social justice practitioners cultural critics and public intellectuals Cornel West Taylor Mac Alisa Solomon Robin D G Kelley and Laura Flanders among them whose own inquiries intersected with that of the award winning Foundry Theatre across its 25 year history Notions of collaboration art community space prefigurative politics metrics and Time animate a conversation about the ways that artists and social justice workers build a more equitable world and the historic challenges of their doing so together A MOMENT ON THE CLOCK OF THE WORLD follows The Foundry's long standing tradition for creating provocative relationships between form and content Its layout divides each page into two discrete horizontal sections the top two thirds contain each contributor's chapter while the bottom of the pages throughout the book hold a history of The Foundry's inquiry by the company's founder There is no prescribed way to read this book Rather it is designed to invite the reader to discover and gather shared themes and ideas in any number of ways The title of the book recalls renowned social activist and philosopher Grace Lee Boggs's legendary and for some incendiary call for a new kind of activism Now is the time on the clock of the world to grow our souls This book gathers together hard won insights of its moment It's a moment on the continuum of ever in the revolutionary human project of making the world

The Cambridge Companion to Malcolm X Robert E. Terrill, 2010-05-10 Malcolm X is one of the most important figures in the twentieth century struggle for equality in America With the passing of time and changing attitudes to race and religion in American society the significance of a public figure like Malcolm X continues to evolve and to challenge This Companion presents new perspectives on Malcolm X's life and legacy in a series of specially commissioned essays by prominent scholars from a range of disciplines As a result this is an unusually rich analysis of this important African American leader orator and cultural icon Intended as a source of information on his life career and influence and as an innovative substantive scholarly contribution in its own right the book also includes an introduction a chronology of the life of Malcolm X and a select bibliography
