Revisioning The Dre:

Revisioning the DRE Donald G. Emler, 1989 The most complete and thorough book ever written on the local church s director of religious education It places the nitty gritty work of the DRE into an overall framework of meaning and vision

In the Name of the Church William J. Cahoy, 2012-05-01 In the Name of the Church Vocation and Authorization in Lay Ecclesial Ministry presents insights generated in the 2011 Collegeville National Symposium on Lay Ecclesial Ministry a gathering designed to prioritize the theological foundations for vocation and authorization in lay ecclesial ministry and make recommendations to advance excellence in this expanding ministry The essays presented by seven theologians at the Symposium are included along with thoughtful input drawn from the experiences of lay and ordained ministers who gathered to amplify the voice and strengthen the national will to promote effective ecclesial leadership practices identified within Co Workers in the Vineyard of the Lord

The Church As Learning Community Norma Cook Everist, 2010-10-01 Norma Cook Everist contends that it is meaningful to say that in ministries of administration outreach and pastoral care the church is functioning as a learning community Whenever and wherever Christians are being formed into the image of Jesus Christ through ministry there Christian education is taking place Christian education is the name we give to that process of formation Building on this central insight Everist has written a major new introduction to the tasks and practices of Christian education Part 1 of the book focuses broadly on what it means to be the church in the world Part 2 shows how being a learning community requires ongoing growth in faith throughout the span of life Part 3 shifts focus to the church as it moves into the community and world

By What Authority Do We Teach? Robert W. Pazmino, 2002-04-29 To reject power and its legitimate use is ultimately to reject God s gift and intention for Christians as we live in the world writes Robert W Pazmino He defines what authority is and how it is perceived by and operates in various Christian communities He applies these factors and the need for confident authoritative teachers specifically to the ministry of Christian education By What Authority Do We Teach completes a trilogy covering key elements of evangelical education Also in print are Foundational Issues in Christian Education an agenda of theological sociological psychological curricular and other concerns and Principles and Practices of Christian Education which integrates conversion and connection into the teaching task

Foundations for Christian Education Eleanor Ann Daniel, John William Wade, 1999 Here is an excellent resource for your Christian Education program Daniel and Wade discuss the foundations of an effective Christian Education program and tackle organizational and administrative issues involved with such a program You will also find age specific information for all ages of learners If you are a Christian Ed Director or a teacher who wants to better understand the elements of a C E program that will make a difference in the lives of the teachers and the students this is the book for you What's Left? Mary Jo Weaver, 1999 What s Left employs a thoroughly in house approach in which self identified liberal Catholics examine various facets of liberal Catholicism this book explores some of the most prominent threads of leftist Catholic aspiration and dissent Choice What's Left is the most comprehensive study to date of liberal American Catholics in the generation following the second Vatican council 1962-65 The main features of liberal American Catholicism feminist theology and practice contested issues of sexual conduct new social locations of academic theology liturgy spirituality ministry race and ethnicity and public Catholicism are presented here in their historical and social contexts Functional Images of the Religious Educator Timothy Arthur Lines, 1992 FUNCTIONAL IMAGES OF THE RELIGIOUS EDUCATOR is one of those rare and precious books which helps religious educators explore and clarify their own special identity as religious educators This special identity is revealed in ten basic functional roles which are central to religious education enactment The author shows that while religious educators perform most and possibly all these ten basic functional roles nonetheless one predominates This dominant role plus the way the religious educator harmoniously integrates the other roles into the dominant one is the key to each religious educator's own special identity Catholic Schools in the United States: A-L Thomas C.
