Visitor Attractions and Events

Adi Weidenfeld, Richard Butler, Allan M. Williams, 2016-04-28 Both visitor attractions and events play pivotal roles in the appeal of tourism destination regions to visitors by virtue of being the main motivator of tourist trips and determining consumers choices However more recently visitor attractions have become more multifaceted have proliferated and fragmented in terms of form location scale and style and their role is undergoing major changes in a post modern world as a result of consumer demands and competitive innovations Visitor Attractions and Events for the first time theoretically and empirically explores the relations between events and attractions to offer new thinking of the role of space and place in shaping development management practices and strategies in the sector as well as future implications The book reveals how location is pivotal in the development planning and management of visitor attractions and events Whereas the location of natural attractions is relatively fixed in space and their locations cannot be predetermined or relocated human made or contrived attractions are more influenced by the planning process in the context of the locational decision making process Competition and cooperation between visitor attractions and the aspects which shape these relations including complementarities compatibility knowledge spill overs and diffusion of innovations product similarities and spatial proximity remain largely ignored in the visitor attraction sector and thus are major elements in the focus of this book Comparative examples ranging from small to major attractions in a wide variety of locations are included This significant volume will appeal widely to all those interested in the visitor sector such as tourism events leisure studies destination management and sociology

Marketing and Public Relations for Museums, Galleries, Cultural and Heritage Attractions Ylva French, Sue Runyard, 2011 Visitors to museums galleries heritage sites and other not for profit attractions receive their information in changing ways Communications channels are shifting and developing all the time presenting new challenges to cultural PR and Marketing teams Marketing and Public Relations for Museums Galleries Cultural and Heritage Attractions as well as providing some of the theory of marketing provides the latest available case studies coupled with comments and advice from professionals inside and outside the cultural sector to describe the possibilities and outline strategies for the future A strong theme of change runs through each chapter The economic climate is already affecting the publicly funded sectors and business and private sponsorship How will it change over the next few years The print media is contracting reading and viewing patterns are changing as online and mobile media grow What are the trends here in Europe US and elsewhere Sustainability and global warming are not just buzz words but will have a real impact on public and private institutions and their visitor patterns eePopulation patterns are also changing with new immigrants arriving and the proportion of over 60s increases in Western countries Cultural tourism has enjoyed a great surge in popularity and huge investments are being made in museums galleries and events Marketing and PR play a crucial role in the success of such ventures and will be illustrated with case studies from the UK US Canada Australia Middle East and China ee Marketing and Public Relations for Museums Galleries Cultural and Heritage Attractions is aimed at students of marketing museums culture and heritage as well as professionals working in a range of cultural organisations from small to large and at different stages of market development from new entrants to those offering mature products This includes museums galleries heritage and visitor attractions community organisations as well as organisers of festivals markets craft fairs and temporary exhibitions

People and Places in Northern Europe, 500-1600 Ian N. Wood, Niels Lund, 1991 A collection of essays dealing with the history and archaeology of Northern Europe in the middle ages It looks at Anglo Saxon England at its contacts with Francia and Scandinavia and at the impact of the Norwegians and the Danes on the place names of the British Isles Two papers deal with the history of women as recorded in runestones and as evidenced by law suits of the medieval period

The book of Brighton, as it was and as it is Charles Henry Ross, 1881 London Society James Hogg, Florence Marryat, 1870 Zoos and Animal Rights Stephen St C. Bostock, 2003-09-02 First Published in 2004 Zoos and animal rights would appear to be in conflict yet Stephen Bostock argues that this need not and should not be so Examining the diverse ethical and technical issues involved including human cruelty human domination over animals outside their natural habitat and the nature of wild and domestic animals Bostock analyzes areas in which misconceptions abound A timely and controversial book it explores the long history of zoos as well as current philosophical debates to argue for a controversial view of their role in the modern world Anyone concerned with humanity's relationship with other animals and the natural world should find this a thought provoking book Tait's Edinburgh magazine, 1854 Uncovering Paris Lela F. Kerley, 2017-06-07 Part I Public balls Staging the nue woman the 1893 Bal des Quat z Arts Policing public nudity the revolution of Sarah Brown Part II Music halls Performing nude erotic dancers and the female body as spectacle Mobilizing against immorality Ren B renger and France's moral leagues Debating Anastasie theatrical censorship's road to repeal Censoring artistic nudity Phryn before her judges The nue woman as the new woman Epilogue Sacred Landscapes in Antiquity Ralph Haussler, Gian Franco Chiaia, 2020-07-31 From generation to generation people experience their landscapes differently Humans depend on their natural environment it shapes their behavior while it is often felt that deities responsible for both natural benefits and natural calamities such as droughts famines floods and landslides need to be appeased We presume that in many societies lakes rivers rocks mountains caves and groves were considered sacred Individual sites and entire landscapes are often associated with divine actions mythical heroes and etiological myths Throughout human history people have also felt the need to monumentalize their sacred landscape But this is where the similarities end as different societies had very different understandings believes and practices The aim of this new thematic appraisal is to scrutinize carefully our evidence and rethink our methodologies in a multi disciplinary approach More than 30 papers investigate diverse sacred landscapes from the Iberian peninsula and Britain in the west to China in the east They discuss how to interpret the intricate web of ciphers and symbols in the landscape and how people might have experienced it We see the role of performance ritual orality textuality and memory in people s sacred landscapes A diachronic view allows us to study how landscapes were rewritten adapted and redefined in the course of time to suit new cultural political and religious understandings not to mention the impact of urbanism on people s understandings A key question is how was the landscape manipulated transformed and monumentalized especially the colossal investments in monumental architecture we see in certain socio historic contexts or the creation of an alternative humanmade seemingly non natural landscape with perfectly astronomically aligned buildings that define a cosmological order Sacred Landscapes therefore aims to analyze the complex links between landscape religiosity and society developing a dialectic framework that explores sacred landscapes across the ancient world in a dynamic holistic contextual and historical perspective
