

"A vivid and by no means uncritical portrait of one of the most interesting directors of our time."
— Roger Ebert

ROBERT ALTMAN JUMPING OFF THE CLIFF

A BIOGRAPHY OF THE GREAT
AMERICAN DIRECTOR

PATRICK MCGILLIGAN

Robert Altman Jumping Off The Cliff

Chris Horn

Robert Altman Jumping Off The Cliff:

Robert Altman Patrick McGilligan, 1991-01-01 Traces the life and career of Robert Altman and discusses the production and critical reception of each of his films Robert Altman Patrick McGilligan, 1989 Robert Altman's Soundtracks

Gayle Sherwood Magee, 2014 Robert Altman's Soundtracks offers a compelling new look at this celebrated director's films through his innovative uses of music and sound As author Gayle Sherwood Magee illustrates Altman's considerable and varied output speaks to the changing film industry over decades from Nashville 1975 to A Prairie Home Companion 2006

Robert Altman Patrick McGilligan, 1989-07-15 The most prodigal prolific and visionary director to emerge from post sixties Hollywood Robert Altman is a man whose mystique sometimes threatens to overshadow his many critically acclaimed films including MASH Robert Altman Rick Armstrong, 2014-01-10 The life and work of motion picture director Robert

Altman 1925 2006 are interpreted from a variety of perspectives in this collection of essays Actors historians film scholars and cultural theorists reflect on Altman and his five decade career and discuss the significance of music history and genre in his films Two actors who have appeared in some of the filmmaker's most important works are prominently represented with a statement from Elliot Gould MASH The Long Goodbye California Split and an essay by Michael Murphy McCabe and Mrs Miller Nashville Tanner 88 The collection ends with an essay on the importance of death in the director's final productions

The Company 2003 and Prairie Home Companion 2006 by noted Altman scholar Robert T Self Robert Altman Frank Caso, 2015-10-15 Known as an iconoclast and maverick film director Robert Altman has consistently pushed against the boundaries of genre From refashioning film noir in The Long Goodbye the western in McCabe Mrs Miller the psychological drama in Images science fiction in Quintet and the romantic comedy in A Perfect Couple he has always tested the limits of what film can and should do In this book Frank Caso examines the development of Altman's artistic method from his earliest days in industrial film to his work in television and feature films Altman is one of those directors whose films audiences can easily recognize but what exactly are the distinctive elements that have become his signature Caso identifies more than twenty such elements in Altman's style tracing some such as his use of free hand cameras and engagement with Christian imagery to the beginning of his career Caso also examines Altman's unsettling mix of offbeat comedic tone with a predominance of violence murder and death showing how their counterpointing effects rendered his films at once naturalistic and otherworldly Exploring these and other aspects of the Altmanesque style Caso maps the innovations that have made Altman a master filmmaker Enriched with illustration throughout Robert Altman will appeal to fans of this distinctive American auteur or anyone interested in ground breaking cinema A Companion to Robert Altman Adrian

Danks, 2015-03-31 A Companion to Robert Altman presents myriad aspects of Altman's life career influence and historical context This book features 23 essays from a range of experts in the field providing extensive coverage of these aspects and dimensions of Altman's work The most expansive and wide ranging book yet published on Altman providing a comprehensive account of Altman's complete career Provides discussion and analysis of generally neglected aspects of Altman's career including the significance of his work in television and industrial film the importance of collaboration and the full range and import of his aesthetic innovations Includes essays by key scholars in Altman studies bringing together experts in the field emerging scholars and writers from a broad range of fields Multi disciplinary in design and draws on a range of approaches to Altman's work being the first substantial publication to make use of the recently launched Robert Altman Archive at the University of Michigan Offers specific insights into particular aspects of film style and their application in industrial and aesthetic film and TV history and particular areas such as the theorisation of space place authorship and gender

The Lost Decade Chris Horn, 2023-10-19 Provides an analysis of Hollywood from a fresh viewpoint that shows the careers of Robert Altman Francis Coppola William Friedkin and others in the 1980s as far from conforming to a monolithic pattern of decline but rather as diverse and complex responses to political and industrial changes The 1980s are routinely seen as the era of the blockbuster and of Reaganite entertainment whereas the dominant view of late 1960s and early 1970s American film history is that of a Hollywood Renaissance a relatively brief window of artistry based around a select group of directors Yet key directors associated with the Renaissance period remained active throughout the 1980s and their work has been obscured or dismissed by a narrow singular model of American film history This book deals with industrial contexts that conditioned these directors' ability to work creatively but it is also very much about the analysis of individual films bringing to light a range of unheralded work from the visual experimentation of One from the Heart Coppola 1981 to the experimental production contexts of Secret Honor Altman 1984 and the stylistic lean of To Live and Die in L.A. Friedkin 1985 Behind the homogenous picture of the decline of the auteur in 1980s American cinema are films and careers that merit greater attention and this book offers a new way to perceive individual films American film history and the viability of sustained authorial creativity within post studio era Hollywood

A Companion to Film Noir Andre Spicer, Helen Hanson, 2013-06-27 An authoritative companion that offers a wide ranging thematic survey of this enduringly popular cultural form and includes scholarship from both established and emerging scholars as well as analysis of film noir's influence on other media including television and graphic novels Covers a wealth of new approaches to film noir and neo noir that explore issues ranging from conceptualization to cross media influences Features chapters exploring the wider noir mediascape of television graphic novels and radio Reflects the historical and geographical reach of film noir from the 1920s to the present and in a variety of national cinemas Includes contributions from both established and emerging scholars

Beyond the Stars Paul Loukides, Linda K. Fuller, 1991 The third of five volumes of new scholarship on American movie conventions The 19 essays explore cinematic representations of such material items as food weapons clothing tools technology and art and literature Not illustrated No index Paper edition unseen 13 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR
