Robert Altman American Innovator:

Robert Altman, American Innovator Judith M. Kass, 1978 Robert Altman Frank Caso, 2015-10-15 Known as an iconoclast and maverick film director Robert Altman has consistently pushed against the boundaries of genre From refashioning film noir in The Long Goodbye the western in McCabe Mrs Miller the psychological drama in Images science fiction in Quintet and the romantic comedy in A Perfect Couple he has always tested the limits of what film can and should do In this book Frank Caso examines the development of Altman's artistic method from his earliest days in industrial film to his work in television and feature films Altman is one of those directors whose films audiences can easily recognize but what exactly are the distinctive elements that have become his signature Caso identifies more than twenty such elements in Altman's style tracing some such as his use of free hand cameras and engagement with Christian imagery to the beginning of his career Caso also examines Altman's unsettling mix of offbeat comedic tone with a predominance of violence murder and death showing how their counterpointing effects rendered his films at once naturalistic and otherworldly Exploring these and other aspects of the Altmanesque style Caso maps the innovations that have made Altman a master filmmaker Enriched with illustration throughout Robert Altman will appeal to fans of this distinctive American auteur or anyone interested in ground breaking cinema

The Cinema of Robert Altman Robert Niemi, 2016-03-01 In a controversial and tumultuous filmmaking career that spanned nearly fifty years Robert Altman mocked subverted or otherwise refashioned Hollywood narrative and genre conventions Altman's idiosyncratic vision and propensity for formal experimentation resulted in an uneven body of work some rank failures and intriguing near misses as well as a number of great films that are among the most influential works of New American Cinema While Altman always professed to have nothing authoritative to say about the state of contemporary society this volume surveys all of his major films in their sociohistorical context to reposition the director as a trenchant satirist and social critic of postmodern America depicted as a lonely wasteland of fraudulent spectacle exploitative social relations and unfulfilled solitaires in search of elusive community
