Robert Louis Stevenson Appointment On Molokai:

Robert Louis Stevenson Aldyth Morris,1995-07-01 In this one man play we accompany Stevenson on his many journeys including a visit in 1888 to the Hawaiian island of Molokai to find Father Damien the Belgian priest who ministered to the lepers abandoned there Stevenson spent a lifetime journeying across the seas in search of love work and always a milder climate to stave off Bloody Jack his nickname for the violent hemorrhages brought on by consumption In this one man play we accompany Stevenson on his many journeys including a visit in 1888 to the Hawaiian island of Molokai undertaken not for the sake of his fragile health but to pay his respects to Father Damien the Belgian priest who had gone to Molokai to minister to the lepers and who died as one of them Inspired by stories of the priest's unbounded charity and kindness Stevenson was determined to visit the leper colony and subsequently became one of the most ardent and eloquent defenders against slanderous attacks on Damien's reputation
