Sculpture Material And Process:

Materials and Processes of Contemporary Sculpture Mahmoud Farag, 2020-01-17 Creating a successful sculpture requires an imaginative concept and a sound design that utilize the potential and avoid the limitations of the material and the process used in making it Prior to a few decades ago most sculptors were restricted to carving stone and wood or casting plaster ceramics and bronze for their creations Contemporary sculptors however are no longer bound by the limitations of these traditional materials and processes and can now create works in sizes forms and textures that could not have been achieved previously Many modern sculptures are now made from materials ranging from steel and aluminum to plastics and composites using processes ranging from welding and adhesive bonding to molding and 3D printing To fully utilize the full potential of such new materials the sculptor needs to understand their points of strength their limitations and the most effective way of shaping them to achieve a given design Although this book is written by a materials engineer the subject matter is presented from the point of view of the sculptor with emphasis on the strengths and weaknesses of different materials their resistance to weather conditions natural color and possible surface textures possible methods of shaping and joining tools and equipment needed and safety measures to take Whenever possible case studies are used to illustrate the sequence of processes and the cost elements involved in shaping a given material to create an actual work of sculpture Sculpture Donald J. Irving, 1970 Sculpture , 1970 The Sculpture of Ruth Asawa, Second Edition Timothy Anglin Burgard, Daniell Cornell, 2020-07-14 An expanded edition of the definitive book on Ruth Asawa s fascinating life and her lasting contributions to American art The work of American artist Ruth Asawa 1926 2013 is brought into brilliant focus in this definitive book originally published to accompany the first complete retrospective of Asawa s career organized by the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco in 2006 This new edition features an expanded collection of essays and a detailed illustrated chronology that explore Asawa s fascinating life and her lasting contributions to American art Beginning with her earliest works drawings and paintings created in the 1940s while she was studying at Black Mountain College this beautiful volume traces Asawa s flourishing career in San Francisco and her trajectory as a pioneering modernist sculptor who is recognized internationally for her innovative wire sculptures public commissions and activism on behalf of public arts education Through her lifelong experimentations with wire especially its capacity to balance open and closed forms Asawa invented a powerful vocabulary that contributed a unique perspective to the field of twentieth century abstract sculpture Working in a variety of nontraditional media Asawa performed a series of remarkable metamorphoses leading viewers into a deeper awareness of natural forms by revealing their structural properties Through her art Asawa transfigured the commonplace into metaphors for life processes themselves The Sculpture of Ruth Asawa establishes the importance of Asawa s work within a larger cultural context of artists who redefined art as a way of thinking and acting in the world rather than as merely a stylistic practice This updated edition includes a new introduction and more than fifty new images as well as original essays that reflect on the impact of American political history on Asawa's artistic vision her experience with printmaking and her friendship with photographer Imogen Cunningham Contributors include Susan Ehrens Mary Emma Harris Karin Higa Jacqueline Hoefer Emily K Doman Jennings Paul J Karlstrom John Kreidler Susan Stauter Colleen Terry and Sally B Woodbridge Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco FAMSF Art & Design Forms 1 and 2 ,

On the Museum's Ruins Douglas Crimp,1993 What determines the significance of a work of art Does it abide eternally within the work Or is it continually constructed and reconstructed from the outside through the work's presentation The historical shift from autonomous modernist object to postmodernist critique of institutions from artwork to discursive context is the subject of Douglas Crimp's essays and Louise Lawler's photographs in On the Museum's Ruins Taking the museum as paradigmatic institution of artistic modernism Crimp surveys its historical origins and current transformations The new paradigm of postmodernism is elaborated through analyses of art practices broadly conceived not only the practices of artists but also those of critics and curators of international exhibitions and of new or refurbished museums back cover

Made in Los Angeles Rachel Rivenc,2016-04-01 In the 1960s a group of Los Angeles artists fashioned a body of work that has come to be known as the LA Look or West Coast Minimalism Its distinct aesthetic is characterized by clean lines simple shapes and pristine reflective or translucent surfaces and often by the use of bright seductive colors While the role of materials and processes in the advent of these truly indigenous Los Angeles art forms has often been commented on it has never been studied in depth until now Made in Los Angeles focuses on four pioneers of West Coast Minimalism Larry Bell Robert Irwin Craig Kauffman and John McCracken whose working methods often borrowed from other industries featured the use of synthetic paints and resins as well as industrial processes to create objects that are both painting and sculpture Bell for example coated plate glass with films of material that alter the way the light is absorbed reflected and transmitted while Kauffman employed a process usually reserved for commercial signs for his work McCracken coated plywood with fiberglass then spray painted it with countless layers of automotive paints and Irwin spray painted discs of hammered aluminum or vacuum formed plastics The detailed study of each artist's work is presented in the context of the emergence of modern art in Los Angeles the burgeoning mid twentieth century gallery scene and the light infused LA cityscape Initially undertaken as part of the Pacific Standard Time Art in L A 1945 1980 initiative this volume combines technical art history and scientific analysis to investigate conservation issues associated with the work of these artists which are often emblematic of issues in the conservation of contemporary art in general
