Sculpture 1900 1945:

Sculpture 1900-1945 Penelope Curtis, 1999 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the significant growth of sculpture as an artistic form in Europe and America from 1900 1945 Using a clearly defined thematic structure it identifies key issues and developments throughout this important period in the history of art Individual chapters cover public sculpture the monument the object image making the built environment the figurative ideal and different materials These themes broadly reflect the changing cultural and political climate of a turbulent period which included two world wars each preceded by widespread rising nationalism The practice of sculpture is considered within the wider artistic context of painting and architecture and the development of international art markets Auguste Rodin whose ground breaking exhibition opened in Paris in 1900 serves as the book's point of departure and as a recurrent point of reference Penelope Curtis.

The Architecture of Narrative Time Erica Wickerson,2017 Scholars and students of modern literature anyone with an interest in the work of Thomas Mann Medieval Architecture Nicola Coldstream,2002 Medieval architecture comprises much more than the traditional image of Gothic cathedrals and the castles of chivalry A great variety of buildings synagogues halls and barns testify to the diverse communities and interests in western Europe in the centuries between 1150 and 1550 This book looks at their architecture from an entirely fresh perspective shifting the emphasis away from such areas as France towards the creativity of other regions including central Europe and Spain Treating the subject thematically Coldstream seeks out what all buildings both religious and secular have in common and how they reflect the material and spiritual concerns of the people who built and used them Furthermore the author considers how and why after four centuries of shaping the landscapes and urban patterns of Europe medieval styles were superseded by classicism

Retracing the Expanded Field Spyros Papapetros, Julian Rose, 2014-10-24 Scholars and artists revisit a hugely influential essay by Rosalind Krauss and map the interactions between art and architecture over the last thirty five years Expansion convergence adjacency projection rapport and intersection are a few of the terms used to redraw the boundaries between art and architecture during the last thirty five years If modernists invented the model of an ostensible synthesis of the arts their postmodern progeny promoted the semblance of pluralist fusion In 1979 reacting against contemporary art s transformation of modernist medium specificity into postmodernist medium multiplicity the art historian Rosalind Krauss published an essay Sculpture in the Expanded Field that laid out in a precise diagram the structural parameters of sculpture architecture and landscape art Krauss tried to clarify what these art practices were what they were not and what they could become if logically combined The essay soon assumed a canonical status and affected subsequent developments in all three fields Retracing the Expanded Field revisits Krauss s hugely influential text and maps the ensuing interactions between art and architecture Responding to Krauss and revisiting the milieu from which her text emerged artists architects and art historians of different generations offer their perspectives on the legacy of Sculpture in the Expanded Field Krauss herself takes part in a roundtable discussion moderated by Hal Foster A selection of historical documents including Krauss s essay presented as it appeared in October accompany the main text Neither eulogy nor hagiography Retracing the Expanded Field documents the groundbreaking nature of Krauss s authoritative text and reveals the complex interchanges between art and architecture that increasingly shape both fields Contributors Stan Allen George Baker Yve Alain Bois Benjamin Buchloh Beatriz Colomina Penelope Curtis Sam Durant Edward Eigen Kurt W Forster Hal Foster Kenneth Frampton Branden W Joseph Rosalind Krauss Miwon Kwon Sylvia Lavin Sandro Marpillero Josiah McElheny Eve Meltzer Michael Meredith Mary Miss Sarah Oppenheimer Matthew Ritchie Julia Robinson Joe Scanlan Emily Eliza Scott Irene Small Philip Ursprung Anthony Vidler

Binding the Absent Body in Medieval and Modern Art Emily Kelley, 2017-07-05 This collection of essays considers artistic works that deal with the body without a visual representation It explores a range of ways to represent this absence of the figure from abject elements such as bodily fluids and waste to surrogate forms including reliquaries manuscripts and cloth The collection focuses on two eras medieval and modern when images referencing the absent body have been far more prolific in the history of art In medieval times works of art became direct references to the absent corporal essence of a divine being like Christ or were used as devotional aids By contrast in the modern era artists often reject depictions of the physical body in order to distance themselves from the history of the idealized human form Through these essays it becomes apparent even when the body is not visible in a work of art it is often still present tangentially Though the essays in this volume bridge two historical periods they have coherent thematic links dealing with abjection embodiment and phenomenology Whether figurative or abstract sacred or secular medieval or modern the body maintains a presence in these works even when it is not at first apparent Adrian Stokes Stephen Kite,2017-12-02 Adrian Stokes 1902 72 aesthete critic painter and poet is among the most original and creative writers on art of the twentieth century He was the author of over twenty critical books and numerous papers for example the remarkable series of books published in the 1930s The Quattro Cento 1932 Stones of Rimini 1934 and Colour and Form 1937 that embraced Mediterranean culture and modernity His criticism extends the evocative English aesthetic tradition of Walter Pater and John Ruskin into the present endowed by a stern sensibility to the consolations offered by art and architecture and the insights that psychoanalysis affords Indeed for Stokes architecture provides the entree into art and this book is the first study to comprehensively examine Stokes's theory of art from a specifically architectonic perspective The volume explores the crucial experiences through which this architectonic awareness evolved traces the influence upon Stokes of places texts and personalities and examines how his theory of art developed and matured The argument is supported by appropriate illustrations to confirm the evidence that Stokes's claim for architecture as mother of the arts carries the deepest experiential and psychological import Architecture in the United States Dell Upton,1998 From Native American sites in New Mexico and Arizona to the ancient earthworks of the Mississippi Valley to the most fashionable contemporary buildings of Chicago and New York American architecture is incredibly varied In this revolutionary interpretation Upton examines American architecture in relation to five themes community nature technology money and art 109 illustrations 40 linecuts Map John Sloan's Oil Paintings John Sloan,Rowland Elzea,1991 Descriptions and histories of the 1 265 oils by John Sloan 1871 1951 more than 1 000 of which are illustrated Includes critical commentary the artist's own comments and an analysis of Sloan's work and his role in American painting Indexing by title and subject Illustrated The Sculptural Imagination Alex Potts,2000-01-01 Potts also offers a detailed view of selected iconic works by sculptors ranging from Antonio Canova and Auguste Rodin to Constantin Brancusi David Smith Carl Andre Eva Hesse and Louise Bourgeois key players in modern thinking about the sculptural The impact of minimalism features prominently in this discussion for it disrupted accepted understanding of how a viewer interacts with a work of art thereby placing the phenomenology of viewing three dimensional objects for the first time at the center of debate about modern visual art Jacket The Shock of Recognition Lewis Pyenson,2020-10-12 In The Shock of Recognition Lewis Pyenson uses a method called Historical Complementarity to identify the motif of non figurative abstraction in modern art and science He identifies the motif in Picasso's and Einstein's educational environments He shows how this motif in domestic furnishing and in urban lighting set the stage for Picasso's and Einstein's professional success before 1914 He applies his method to intellectual life in Argentina using it to address that nation's focus on an inventory of the natural world until the 1940s its adoption of non figurative art and nuclear physics in the middle of the twentieth century and attention to landscape painting and the wonder of nature at the end of the century The Kpim of Social Order George Uzoma Ukagba,Des O.
