Searching For God Campus Faith:

Belovedness James Franklin, Becky Zartman, 2020-06-17 This thought provoking book for college students and those who minister with them deals with issues of faith identity sex success failure and more through the concept of belovedness Every college student's story is different but they all have the same questions in common Who am I How do I make good choices What does it mean to be successful How do I navigate changing relationships with my family my peers my significant other And how do I do all of this faithfully This book approaches these topics through a fundamental inquiry What if I really truly believed that I was beloved beyond all measure and how would that influence what I do Along with the editors eight campus ministers from across several denominations contributed to this volume to help students navigate questions of life and faith in the world of high pressure college campuses Telling it like it is with wit and wisdom drawn from scripture tradition and life experience this book offers profound and practical reminders of what it is to be beloved Finding God at Harvard Kelly K.

Monroe, 1997-09-18 Kelly Monroe presents forty two compelling testimonies from faculty members former students and orators at Harvard University whose reflections explode the myth that Christian faith cannot survive a rigorous intellectual environment Seeking & Finding God (B) Dave Hunt, 2021-04-02 It is astonishing how many millions of otherwise seemingly intelligent people are willing to risk their eternal destiny upon less evidence than they would require for buying a car or even a low carb food item yet the belief of so many particularly in the area of religion has no rational or factual foundation With well researched arguments and compelling proof this book demonstrates that the issue of where one will spend eternity is not a matter of preference like joining the Elks instead of the Lions In fact there is overwhelming evidence that we are eternal beings who will spend eternity somewhere But where will it be And how can we know There is no more important question to be faced and answered Seeking & Finding God (a) Dave Hunt, 2021-04-02 It is astonishing how

Trent Sheppard, 2010-01-04 Trent Sheppard explores historical turning points as they've intersected college students in prayer From the establishment of early American campuses during the Great Awakening to the parachurch movement in the mid twentieth century to the Campus America initiative to establish vital praying communities on every campus in the United States Sheppard shows that students can participate in remarkable movements of God simply by being open to being moved

Campus Life Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 2019-06-18 In 1990 the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching published a classic report on the loss of a meaningful basis for true community on college campuses and in the nation Now this expanded edition of Campus Life reintroduces educational leaders to the report s proposals while offering up to date analysis and recommendations for Christian campuses today Our Connectional Church Gradye Parsons,2018-06-05 Presbyterian leader Gradye Parsons takes the reader on a tour of the current Presbyterian Church U S A After reflecting on the importance of being nourished in a local congregation and being relevant witnesses in the community he walks us through four churches big and small showing the types of ministry being done by Presbyterians today Our Connectional Church explores the risks being taken by congregations and reflects on the future of the denomination A Searching Heart Janette Oke,2008-08 In this bestselling novel Virginia must learn the priorities that God has in mind for her as she makes plans for college Make the Most of It Barry H. Corey,2020-03-03 The perfect gift for high school graduates College is a time when new and exciting horizons stretch out before us We meet new friends and form relationships that last a lifetime We discern what s most important and what our ultimate direction in life will be For those of us whose college days are in the rearview mirror we long for recent graduates to love college and to make the most it Often we re at a loss as to what advice to give our friends and family who are heading off to college even though those years may well be the most consequential years of their lives From Biola president Barry Corey comes the perfect guide to making the college years count It touches on everything from college romances to making friends from getting sleep to embracing boredom from your inner life to your social life In this slender volume Barry Corey gives you wisdom that rings true but is rarely passed on He serves up tips for survival virtues to embrace ideas to think about and habits to cultivate for an enjoyable and flourishing journey through college After all you will remember your college experience for the rest of your life Make the most of it College Knowledge for the Student Athlete David Schoem,Shelly Kovacs,2011-11-03 This book was written to support the academic success of student athletes whether at a large or small university or college whether team or individual sport whether women or men whether on scholarship or not While all college students must learn to negotiate the complex transition from high school to college student athletes face unique challenges including the complicated set of regulations set out by the NCAA and individual conferences that determine eligibility The current environment in college athletics makes it even more critical that student athletes understand what they need to do academically and how to avoid potential situations that could jeopardize their athletic careers College Knowledge for the Student Athlete is a road map and tour guide for a successful career as a student athlete Tips are based on research and the authors experience as well as the wisdom and advice of hundreds of former student athletes God's New Whiz Kids? Rebecca Y. Kim,2006-12 From youth culture to adolescent sexuality to the consumer purchasing power of children en masse studies are flourishing Yet doing research on this unquestionably more vulnerable whether five or fifteen population also poses a unique set of challenges and dilemmas for researchers In Representing Youth Amy Best has assembled an important group of essays that address these concerns head on providing scholars with thoughtful and often practical answers to their many methodological concerns These original essays range from how to conduct research on youth in ways that can be empowering for them to issues of writing and representation to respecting boundaries and to dealing with issues of risk and responsibility to those interviewed Contributors include Amy L Best Sari Knopp Biklen Elizabeth Chin Susan Driver Marc Flacks Kathryn Gold Hadley Madeline Leonard C J Pascoe Rebecca Raby Alyssa Richman Jessica Taft Michael Ungar Yvonne Vissing and Stephani Etheridge Woodson

Finding Mom Steve C. Messer, 2015-02-13 Finding Mom is a story of tragedy secrets and forgiveness As a six year old Steve Messer found his mother's body after she committed suicide in 1961 and for the next fifty years he and his family lived in silence about her death and her life This book chronicles the physical and emotional journey the author and his wife took to find his mother again but this time as a fully human woman instead of a haunting figure shrouded in silence this time as the mom who deeply loved her son in the midst of her deepening depression Responding to a gentle but unmistakable nudge from the Lord leaning on supportive family members and utilizing his training as a historian Messer spent six months gathering documents and images interviewing individuals who knew his mother and traveling to sites associated with her life The physical journey culminated with two family gatherings that welcomed Marian Pett Messer back after the decades of silence but the emotional journey of new found understandings of family grace forgiveness and what it means to be human will continue for a lifetime

A Student's Search for Meaning Melissa Carter, James Fraser, Chelsea Garbell, Amy Wilson, 2023-11-25 This edited volume brings together reflections on how students pursue the search for meaning and purpose in the context of higher education It offers perspectives from humanities professors college chaplains of multiple faiths and observers of the changing shape of the American university as each considers the needs and expectations of today's students The collection address three key lines of inquiry what the student search for meaning looks like in the context of higher education how do presenters understand the dimensions of the search for meaning itself and how do or don't humanities faculty and religious life leaders talk to each other around the common student concerns addressed in both course work and the extracurricular world of religious life programs Together the conversation suggests that students pursue a search for meaning in the context of university life and the academic curriculum but the particular dimensions of this search are yet undefined This is often a contested pursuit because it conflicts with the other purposes of the university which some see as primary A key audience for this book is university administrators who work in the field of chaplaincy and faith based programming as well as department chairs and faculty in the liberal arts who are directly involved in building humanities curriculum

Finding Messiah Jennifer M. Encountering Faith

in the Classroom Miriam R. Diamond, 2023-07-03 When faculty unexpectedly encounter students religious ideologies in the classroom they may respond with apprehension frustration dread or concern Instructors may view this exchange as a confrontation that threatens the very heart of empirical study and worry that this will lead to a dead end in the learning process The purpose of this book is to explore what happens and what can happen in the higher education and even secondary school classroom when course content meets or collides with students religious beliefs It also considers the impact on learning in an environment where students may feel threatened angry misunderstood or in which they feel their convictions are being discredited This is a resource that offers ways of conceptualizing engaging with and responding to student beliefs This book is divided into three sections student views on the role of religion in the classroom general guidelines for responding to or actively engaging religious beliefs in courses such as legal and diversity considerations and specific examples from a number of disciplines including the sciences social sciences humanities and professional education Professors from public private and religious institutions share their findings and insights The resounding lessons of this book are the importance of creating a learning space in which students can express their beliefs dissonance and emotions constructively without fear of retribution and of establishing ground rules of respectful discussion for this process to be valuable and productive This is an inspirational and practical guide for faculty navigating the controversial sensitive yet illuminating lessons that can be learned when religion takes a seat in the classroom Spirit-empowered Christianity in the Twenty-first Century Vinson Synan, 2011 What does a re vision of the Charismatic Pentecostal Spirit empowered movement look like in the coming years of this millennium The first century of this revival seems to attest that the Lord raised up the holiness and Pentecostal movements not only to be custodians of these distinctive truths but the perpetuators of them as well If any generation ceases to accentuate this emphasis the movement likely will forfeit the right to be recognized as such When the Pentecostal message is preached published and proclaimed through triumphant song an atmosphere is sustained for people to experience anew and again the reality of salvation holiness charismata wholeness and hope Such a revival will be biblically based rationally sound traditionally accurate and experientially real Spirit Empowered Christianity in the 21st Century is an authoritative compilation of the presentations from thirty leaders in the Charismatic Pentecostal movement given at the Empowered 21 Conference in Tulsa OK in April 2010 These chapters share emerging insights on how the next generation will handle the profound issues facing Christians within the Charismatic Pentecostal movement in the 21st century For example one portion covers the topic of the 21st century renewal while another discusses how we can protect our Charismatic distinctive Another portion will highlight Charismatic adaptations for reaching this present age discussing issues of social and economic justice prosperity and suffering challenges to urban ministry the future of the next generation Oneness Pentecostalism and missiological aims in North America Already Compromised Dr. Greg Hall, Steve Ham, Todd Hillard, 2011-05-01 Will a Christian college build a student s faith or tear it down Parents and students sacrifice large sums of money for a Christian college education Why They are purchasing a guarantee their child s faith in God and the Bible will be guarded and developed But is the Bible being taught Will they graduate believing in the inerrancy of Scripture the Flood of Noah s Day and a literal six day creation Apologetics powerhouse Ken Ham and Dr Greg Hall reveal an eye opening assessment of 200 Christian colleges and universities In an unprecedented 2010 study by America Research Group college presidents religion and science department heads were polled on critical areas of Scripture and core faith questions Ken Ham is an accomplished author of some of the most popular and effective apologetics research on the market He is the founder of Answers in Genesis U S and the president of the Creation Museum I have no doubt that the average church member would be shocked and outraged to discover how many supposedly evangelical colleges and universities have more or less given up their commitment to biblical inerrancy and the authority of Scripture especially when dealing with the early chapters of Genesis I m grateful for this important work by Ken Ham and Greg Hall documenting the many compromises that have ravaged the Christian academy Already Compromised is a much needed wake up call and a summons to arms for faithful courageous Bible believers We need to stand up declare our faith and defend the truth of Scripture courageously The stakes are high and the battle may be more fierce than ever but God will bless those who honor His Word May He bless us with clear unwavering voices John MacArthur Equipped for the Work of Ministry Catholic Church,1996 Inspired by and based on Pope John Paul II s apostolic exhortation I Will Give You Shepherds Pastores Dabo Vobis Advising Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer College Students Craig M. McGill,Jennifer Joslin,2023-07-03 Co published with NACADA Changes on college and university campuses have echoed changes in U S popular culture politics and religion since the 1970s through unprecedented visibility of LGBTQA persons and issues In the face of hostile campus cultures LGBTQA students rely on knowledgeable academic advisors for support nurturance and the resources needed to support their persistence This edited collection offers theoretical understanding of the literature of the field practical strategies that can be implemented at different institutions and best practices that helps students staff and faculty members understand more deeply the challenges and rewards of working constructively with LGBTQA students In addition allies in the field of academic advising both straight cis identified and queer reflect on becoming an ally describe obstacles and challenges they have experienced and offer advice to those seeking to deepen their commitment to ally hood
