Explorations in Twentieth-century Theology and Philosophy Ann Loades, 2023-04-11 Ann Loades has been instrumental in bringing forward for the attention of readers in later generations voices from the past notably highlighting the work of pioneering women such as Evelyn Underhill and Dorothy L Sayers as well as advancing the study of better known Anglican forebears C S Lewis and Austin Farrer always with her own distinctive concerns A key interpreter of the Anglican tradition and with a keen eye to ensure the full recognition of women these studies by Ann Loades are essential reading in Anglican feminist and twentieth century theology

Salty Wives, Spirited Mothers, and Savvy Widows F. Scott Spencer, 2012-12-19 Engaging feminist hermeneutics and philosophy in addition to more traditional methods of biblical study Salty Wives Spirited Mothers and Savvy Widows demonstrates and celebrates the remarkable capability and ingenuity of several women in the Gospel of Luke While recent studies have exposed women s limited opportunities for ministry in Luke Scott Spencer pulls the pendulum back from a negative feminist critical pole toward a more constructive center Granting that Luke sends somewhat mixed messages about women s work and status as Jesus disciples Spencer analyzes such women as Mary Elizabeth Joanna Martha and Mary and the infamous yet intriguing wife of Lot whom Jesus exhorts his followers to remember as well as the unrelentingly persistent women characters in Jesus parables

Exchanges of Grace Natalie K. Watson, Stephen Burns, 2008 A unique international collection of contributions in honour built around the three themes central to understanding the work of Ann Loades Professor emerita of Durham University a well known and well liked figure in contemporary western theology

Feminism and Christian Ethics Susan Frank Parsons, 1996-02-29 Feminists are aware of the diversity of thinking within their own tradition and of the different approaches to moral questions in which that is manifest This book describes and analyses that diversity by distinguishing three distinct paradigms of moral reasoning to be found within feminism Using the writings of feminists the major strengths and weaknesses of each theory are considered so that creative dialogue between them can be encouraged Three common themes are drawn out which are also on the agenda of new developments in philosophical and Christian ethics the search for an appropriate universalism the possibility of a redemptive community and the development of a new humanism Feminists may be encouraged through this account of their considerable scholarship in ethical thinking to contribute to these changes with their special concern for the lives and the fulfilment of women

Routledge Revivals: The British Christian Women's Movement (2002) Jenny Daggers, 2018-02-05 The British Christian Women's Movement charts the British Christian women's movement and its inception in the post sixties decades amid new currents generated in the British denominational churches and the wider current of Women's Liberation Focusing on Christian women's concern with the position of women in the church this book identifies core Christian women's theology which affirms a rehabilitated new Eve in Christ and contrasts with a paradigm shift taking shape in North American feminist theology It argues that this divergence is primarily because of the effect of prolonged Church of England women's ordination debates upon the ethos of the British Christian women's movement

The British Christian Women's Movement Jenny Daggers, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2002 This book presents a timely study of a neglected British Christian women's movement Jenny Daggers charts the inception of the movement in the exciting times of the post sixties decades amid new currents generated in the British denominational churches and the wider current of Women's Liberation Focusing on Christian women's concern with the position of women in the church this book identifies a core Christian women's theology which affirms a rehabilitated new Eve in Christ and so contrasts with a concurrent paradigm shift taking shape in North American feminist theology Daggers argues that this divergence is primarily due to the effect of the prolonged Church of England women's ordination debate upon the ethos of the British Christian women's movement

Animal Theologians Andrew Linzey, Clair Linzey, 2023

Many people who have thought about God have not thought about animals or about the relationship between the two But among those who have are some of the most celebrated religious thinkers including Michel de Montaigne Thomas Tryon John Wesley John Ruskin Leo Tolstoy Mohandas K Gandhi Albert Schweitzer and Paul Tillich This volume comprises 24 scholarly studies that detail challenges to the dominant anthropocentrism of most religious traditions The editors have brought together Jewish Unitarian Christian transcendentalist Muslim Hindu Dissenting deist and Quaker voices each offering a unique theological perspective that counters the neglect of the nonhuman

Animal Theologians is divided into three parts starting with the pioneers who first saw a relationship between animals and divinity those who contributed to the expansion of social sensibility to animals and ending with the work of contemporary theologians The essays in this volume use contextual and historical background to describe what led animal theologians to their beliefs and then pave way for further developments in this expanding field This volume is an act of reclaiming different religious traditions for animals by recovering lost voices

The Oxford Handbook of Ecclesiology Paul Avis, 2018-06-21 The Oxford Handbook of Ecclesiology is a unique scholarly resource for the study of the Christian Church as we find it in the Bible in history and today As the scholarly study of how we understand the Christian Church's identity and mission ecclesiology is at the centre of today's theological research reflection and debate Ecclesiology is the theological driver of the ecumenical movement The main focus of the intense ecumenical engagement and dialogue of the past half century has been ecclesiological and this is the area where the most intractable differences remain to be tackled Ecclesiology investigates the Church's manifold self understanding in relation to a number of areas the origins structures authority doctrine ministry sacraments unity diversity and mission of the Church including its relation to the state and to society and culture The sources of ecclesiological reflection are the Bible interpreted in the light of scholarly research Church history and the wealth of the Christian theological tradition together with the information and insights that emerge from other relevant academic disciplines This Handbook considers the biblical resources historical development and contemporary initiatives in ecclesiology It offers invaluable and comprehensive guide to understanding the Church

Mary Francis J. Moloney SDB, 2009-09-01 In Mary Woman and Mother Fr Francis Moloney studies the New Testament's presentation of Mary's person and role After indicating the limits and strengths of a biblical study of Mary he examines the Marian texts from the Letter of Paul to the Galatians the Gospels of Mark Matthew and Luke the Acts of the Apostles and the Gospel of John She is above all a woman and a mother This book shows that in recognizing Mary as God's place of encounter with all that is most beautiful among women and men we will gain access to the womanly maternal face of God

Church and Religious 'Other' Gerard Mannion, 2008-09-25 This volume brings together the prestigious speakers at the inaugural Church in Our Times Lecture Series at Liverpool Hope throughout the first 4 months of 2006 and invited contributors from and addressing wider international contexts Africa Sri Lanka India and the United States The volume explores themes such as questions of ecclesial and religious identity in these post modern times the advent of neo exclusivism divisions within the contemporary Roman Catholic and Anglicans churches inter faith relations and dialogue questions of sexuality and Christian ministry contemporary understandings of ecclesial authority teaching and tradition the inter relation between the church and the kingdom of God today an Asian appraisal of Pope Benedict's first sermon inculturation and the rhetoric and reality of the notion of Church as Christianity's most distinctive and defining feature and constructive proposals for ecumenical ways forward in the future The commonality and coherence of the papers along with the manner in which a number of them together contribute towards making a cumulative case upon similar issues of concern for the church in our times constitute a major strength of this collection This volume will interest faculty and students engaged in the study of the contemporary church ecumenism global Christianity secularity and inter religious dialogue as well as appealing to ministers and pastors as well as the general reader excited by the most pressing debates pertaining to the church in these times New Horizons in Hermeneutics Anthony C. Thiselton, 1992 This book explores the rapidly growing interdisciplinary area of hermeneutics and its significance for biblical studies combining wide fundamental rigorous and creative theoretical concerns with practical questions about how we read biblical texts Liberation Theologies Ronald G. Musto, 2020-11-25 First Published in 1991 The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology mostly in book form available in English It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography Origins of Difference Elaine Storkey, 2019-07-11 In what ways are women and men different Where do these differences originate In this book Elaine Storkey uncovers the foundational assumptions and presuppositions that lie beneath gender issues and builds a cohesive model for a biblical view of men and women Biblical Interpretation and Christian Ethics J. I. H. McDonald, 1993-12-02 Inter disciplinary studies are emerging rapidly to meet the insistent demands of the modern age Biblical interpretation is itself inter disciplinary drawing together the biblical traditions and others to address the problem of interpreting texts Christian ethics is also multi disciplinary and thus no stranger to this new ethos To bring these two areas together is a potentially creative undertaking It comes at a time when much attention is being paid to reading texts and the interpretive tradition The author s principal aim is to read the Bible in the context of moral concern Attention is paid to the liberal quest and to eschatology and ethics each marking a distinct epoch in the relationship of Bible and ethics before the post critical age is studied under the rubric participation in meaning The final section deals with ethics and historical reading and with ethics and contemporary reading The book concludes with a discussion of selected practical topics
