In Search of Creative Commons: Crisis, Catastrophe, and Responsive Literature in India Dhritiman Chakraborty, Sanchayita Paul Chakraborty, Mukunda Mishra, 2024-12-18 This book contains selected papers presented at the international conference titled In Search of Creative Commons Crisis Catastrophe and Responsive Literature in India held at the Abid Ali Khan Centre for Digital Archive and Translation of Cultures Gour Mahavidyalaya College from 31 August to 2 September 2023 in collaboration with the Department of English Dr Meghnad Saha College The conference was funded by the Indian Council of Social Science Research ICSSR In this book three basic questions are considered First as humans try to live in and through catastrophes and exceptional situations in the contemporary world what new perspective can literature as a creative form offer for healing and restorative purposes Second what new idioms and narrative styles massive crises such as famine partition migration the decimation of forests rivers and the disappearance of villages held up in creative articulations in colonial and postcolonial times in India Can these representations be called responsive literature Further and this is the third major contention of this book how can responsive literature be thought of as a conceptual category What new transdisciplinary optic should be adopted to go beyond the limits of the literary and eventually include the non literary The objective of these discussions was to contribute to the larger discursive literature on disaster studies which we believe has been excessively hegemonized by concepts from the West By bringing in indigenous ideas from Bhasa Sahitya language and literature the images of samaj society samata equity and ahimsa non violence the existing literature on catastrophe and crisis studies can finally be decolonized

In Search of the Dark Ages Michael Wood, 2015-05-14 Updated with the latest archaeological research new chapters on the most influential yet widely unrecognised people of the British isles In Search of the Dark Ages illuminates the fascinating and mysterious centuries between the Romans and the Norman Conquest of 1066 In this new edition Michael Wood vividly conjures some of the most important people in British history such as Hadrian a Libyan refugee from the Arab conquests and arguably the most important person of African origin in British history to Queen Boadicea the leader of a terrible war of resistance against the Romans Here too warts and all are the Saxon Viking and Norman kings who laid the political foundations of England Offa of Mercia Alfred the Great Athelstan and William the Conqueror whose victory at Hastings in 1066 marked the end of Anglo Saxon England Reflecting the latest historical textual and archaeological research this revised and updated edition of Michael Wood s classic book overturns preconceptions of the Dark Ages as a shadowy and brutal era showing them to be a richly exciting and formative period in the history of Britain urbanisation and national urbanisation policy in the Netherlands in a northwest European perspective In Search of the Irish Dreamtime: Archaeology and Early Irish Literature J. P. Mallory, 2016-06-14 Ireland's oldest traditions excavated via archaeological genetic and linguistic research culminating in a truly groundbreaking publication Following his account of Irish origins drawing on archaeology genetics and linguistics J P Mallory returns to the subject to investigate what he calls the Irish Dreamtime the native Irish retelling of their own origins as related by medieval manuscripts He explores the historical backbone of this version of the earliest history of Ireland which places apparently mythological events on a concrete timeline of invasions colonization and royal reigns that extends even further back in time than the history of classical Greece The juxtaposition of traditional Dreamtime tales and scientific facts expands on what we already know about the way of life in Iron Age Ireland By comparing the world depicted in the earliest Irish literary tradition with the archaeological evidence available on the ground Mallory explores Ireland's rich mythological tradition and tests its claims to represent reality The Search for Quotation Richard L. Schultz, 1999-01-01 A thorough study of quotation within ancient and modern literatures is the background for this new approach to alleged quotations within the prophetic writings The common claim that specific verbal parallels result from the conscious repetition of the words of a predecessor is beset by difficulties After examining quotation in non prophetic ancient Near Eastern early Jewish Old Testament wisdom and narrative and modern Western literatures Schultz proposes a new model for interpreting verbal parallels that utilizes several criteria for identifying quotation and combines diachronic with synchronic analysis He then applies this model to five representative verbal parallels involving the book of Isaiah This book illustrates how an awareness of the versatility of quotation facilitates a more accurate interpretation of verbal parallels and at the same time calls for greater caution in employing them in support of various theories A Study of Shakespeare Algernon Charles Swinburne, 1880
