Seeing When Art And Faith Intersect:

Seeing Douglas Gourley Campbell, 2002 Seeing consists of twenty brief essays about the role of contemporary artists of faith their audience and Christianity These essays bring to discussion topics from postmodernism authenticity and iconoclasm to individualism beauty and truth Each essay focuses on issues that relate to how artists of faith approach their thinking about art how viewers can enhance their experience of artworks and the relationship between Postmodernism and Christianity Campbell explores within the current Postmodernist environment how art and Christianity can be discussed in the present tense and how Art by Contemporary Christians is now a topic for serious discussion that cannot be dismissed as merely an oxymoron These essays bring to discussion issues that have been ignored by mainstream art publications God in the Gallery Daniel A. Rethinking Religion in the Theatre of Grotowski Catharine Christof, 2017-03-27 This book opens a new interdisciplinary frontier between religion and theatre studies to illuminate what has been seen as the religious or spiritual nature of Polish theatre director Jerzy Grotowski's work The central argument is that through an embodied materialist approach to religion and through a critical reading of the concepts of the New Age a new understanding of Grotowski and religion can be developed This is a vital reference for academics in both Religion and Theatre Studies that have an interest in the spiritual aspects of Grotowski's work Eliot's Dark Angel : Intersections of Life and Art Ronald Schuchard Goodrich C. White

Professor of English Emory University, 1999-09-13 Schuchard's critical study draws upon previously unpublished and uncollected materials in showing how Eliot's personal voice works through the sordid the bawdy the blasphemous and the horrific to create a unique moral world and the only theory of moral criticism in English literature The book also erodes conventional attitudes toward Eliot's intellectual and spiritual development showing how early and consistently his classical and religious sensibility manifests itself in his poetry and criticism The book examines his reading his teaching his bawdy poems and his life long attraction to music halls and other modes of popular culture to show the complex relation between intellectual biography and art The Human Mosaic: Intersections of Art, Culture, and Social Insight Dr. (Mrs.) Peri Jayalakshmi, Dr. Ebrahim Ali Mondal, 2025-09-02 The Human Mosaic Intersections of Art Culture and Social Insight ISBN 978 93 92760 80 8 edited by Dr P Jayalakshmi and Dr Ebrahim Ali Mondal explores how art culture and human values shape societies This edited volume features research based essays from disciplines including history philosophy literature economics and cultural studies Chapters address themes such as cultural memory identity globalization social reform and ecological adaptation with a focus on Assam and Northeast India Through analyses of folklore autobiographies philosophical thought and socio economic landscapes the book highlights culture as dynamic negotiating between tradition and modernity Intended for scholars students and educators it serves as a resource for research coursework seminars and comparative
