Seeing Capitol Reef National Park:

Seeing Capitol Reef National Park Ward Jay Roylance, 1979 Dinéjį Na`nitin Robert S. McPherson, 2012-11-15 It is rare that an Anglo scholar could understand the in depth meaning of the Navajo worldview and its implications It is even rarer for him to interpret it in Western narrative form without losing meaning and integrity Robert S McPherson has done just that Harry Walters Former Director Hatathli Museum at Din College Traditional teachings derived from stories and practices passed through generations lie at the core of a well balanced Navajo life These teachings are based on a very different perspective on the physical and spiritual world than that found in general American culture Din j Na nitin is an introduction to traditional Navajo teachings and history for a non Navajo audience providing a glimpse into this unfamiliar world and illuminating the power and experience of the Navajo worldview Historian Robert McPherson discusses basic Navajo concepts such as divination good and evil prophecy and metaphorical thought as well as these topics relevance in daily life making these far ranging ideas accessible to the contemporary reader He also considers the toll of cultural loss on modern Navajo culture as many traditional values and institutions are confronted by those of dominant society Using both historical and modern examples he shows how cultural change has shifted established views and practices and illustrates the challenge younger generations face in maintaining the beliefs and customs their parents and grandparents have shared over generations This intimate look at Navajo values and customs will appeal not only to students and scholars of Native American studies ethnic studies and anthropology but to any reader interested in Navajo culture or changing traditional lifeways
