Seeking Peace:

Pursuing Peace JS Prickett,2012-10-04 pursuing peace Is there not something that we all seek something that defines separates yet unites us I believe that this is the pursuit for inner peace There are an infinite number of individual paths to this one destination This is mine Peace requires the simple but powerful recognition that what we have in common as human beings is more important and crucial than what divides us Robert Sargent Shriver Peace is a daily a weekly a monthly process gradually changing opinions slowly eroding old barriers quietly building new structures John Fitzgerald Kennedy Peace is costly but it is worth the expense African Proverb I do not want the peace which passeth understanding I want the understanding which bringeth peace Helen Keller Peace is not merely a distant goal that we seek but a means by which we arrive at that goal Martin Luther King Jr It is more difficult to organize a peace than to win a war but the fruits of victory will be lost if the peace is not organized Aristotle Peace is not only better than war but infinitely more arduous George Bernard Shaw If everyone demanded peace instead of another television set then there d be peace John Lennon Nothing can bring you peace but yourself Ralph Waldo Emerson

Peace Anonymous - the 12 Steps to Peace Johnny F,2012-06-26 Well intentioned people such as Bono and John Lennon have for years implored us to stop killing each other in much the same manner family members have begged alcoholics to stop drinking Perhaps we are addicted to war and violence and like alcoholics we need more than to simply stop we needed to find a new design for living The 12 Steps have been instrumental in changing the lives of over 3 million alcoholics in over 77 countries regardless of religious faith Those who once knew only chaos pain and suffering have discovered peace as a result of these Steps Consider the Steps as a recipe for peace Should they fail to produce the desire results we will refund your misery and you may return to killing at your leisure detail many of the ways power structures our daily personal political and intellectual lives and evaluate the workings of power using a variety of theoretical paradigms from Hobbesian liberalism to Foucauldian feminist postmodernism Taken as a whole the book aims towards an end to unjust and destructive uses of power and the flowering of an encouraging educated empowerment for all human beings in a pluralistic world Section I offers a progressive chain of arguments that moves from the acceptance of domination through the rejection of domination and finally to a new vision of power based on equality and mutual respect Section II explores the questions how is the philosophical self that is our very understanding of who we are implicated in the web of power and domination Section III responds to political realism as it explores morally ideal solutions to the global problems of poverty war and hunger Section IV discusses ways in which our thought and practice in both public and private life are bound up in hierarchies of domination

Seeking Peace & Justice William Bontrager J.D., 2019-02-11 If inner peace and a sense of justice come only from God Proverbs 29 26 Shadrach et al vs Nebuchadnezzar Daniel 3 and we yearn for both when in conflict why do we not appropriate them from God when in conflict 1 John 4 18 suggests it is because we stand paralyzed in fear for our love is not fully mature But how can that be true for a forgiven believer unless our image of God is not correct The author argues that our fear flows from an image of God as an angry judge judging us from his Torah a penal code of crime and punishment But why do we think that when Christ on the cross wipes our sins away and gives us a spirit of sonship Romans 8 15 Do we think it because we think our thousand year Western legal tradition is biblically based and we subconsciously read it into Torah What if that premise is wrong After all Torah originally meant instructions or teachings not law Mr Bontrager reexamines the nature of God and his Word in view of Torah as a gracious gift of instructions to people blinded by sin living in a fallen world offered to us by God to guide us in working through conflict according to his ways thereby finding peace and justice Psalm 119
