OF THE SOUTHERN ISLES

C. E. FOX

The Melanesian Mission, founded by Bishop George Augustus Selwyn in 1820, is a branch of the Church of the Province of New Zealand. Through the agency of missionaries the Church has been able to bring to the knowledge of Christ a large part of the South Sea Islands, and to bring to the knowledge of the world the history and progress of the mission.

In the first place, the Melanesian Mission, founded in 1820, is the original and continuous work of the Church in the South Sea Islands. It has been the centre of all the work done in the islands, and has been the source of all the progress and civilization that has been brought to the islands.

For the first time the South Sea Islands have been brought into the knowledge of the world, and the progress and civilization that has been brought to the islands. The mission has been the source of all the progress and civilization that has been brought to the islands.
