Death and Dying John F. Szabo,2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill

Grief, Mourning, and Death Ritual Jennifer Lorna Hockey, Jeanne Katz, Neil Small, 2001 It does this by combining substantial reviews with shorter illustrative examples of grief mourning and death ritual as they are manifest in specific settings and with defined groups These illustrative examples include personal and institutional responses to death at different points in the life cycle and responses to different sorts of death the death of children and death in disasters for example Working with People with Learning Disabilities David Thomas, Honor Woods, 2003 The authors bring together the relevant theory for social workers nurses teachers and others working with people with learning disabilities Using jargon free explanations and case examples they present the information needed to inform good practice Achieving Positive Outcomes for Children in Care R J Cameron, Seán Cameron, Colin Maginn, 2009-09-10 This title looks at how achieving positive outcomes for children in care is possible when the root causes of failure are tackled Bereavement Care for Childbearing Women and their Families Caroline Hollins Martin, Eleanor Forrest, 2013-07-24 For many bereaved parents the care provided by health professionals at birth from midwives to antenatal teachers has a crucial effect on their response to a loss or death This interactive workbook is clearly applied to practice and has been designed to help practitioners deliver effective bereavement care Providing care to grieving parents can be demanding difficult and stressful with many feeling ill equipped to provide appropriate help Equipping the reader with fundamental skills to support childbearing women partners and families who have experienced childbirth related bereavement this book outlines What bereavement is and the ways in which it can be experienced in relation to pregnancy and birth Sensitive and supportive ways of delivering bad news to childbearing women partners and families Models of grieving How to identify when a bereaved parent may require additional support from mental health experts Ongoing support available for bereaved women their partners and families The impact on practitioners and the support they may require How to assess and tailor care to accommodate a range of spiritual and religious beliefs about death Written by two highly educated experienced midwifery lecturers this practical and evidence based workbook is a valuable resource for all midwives neonatal nurses and support workers who work with women in the perinatal period This book is suitable as a text for BSc and MSc courses in Midwifery BScs courses in Paediatric Nursing and for neonatal and bereavement counselling courses Personal and Professional Development for Business Students Paul Dowson,2015-03-16 This book clearly approaches the 21st century skills issue Hands on reflective thorough a definite must have for students professionals and HE institutions Niek Campagne Careers Policy Advisor Leiden University The Netherlands Whether you are about to embark on your business degree programme are already a business student or are a business graduate this book helps you to develop yourself and your career in ways which will benefit you your current and future employers and society Focused on developing study and personal skills to enhance your employability it provides insights and practical guidance on Developing a skill set and competencies that will be valued by employers including team working critical thinking networking managing emotion and managing technological change Self profiling through career and life planning and self presentation through career communication volunteering and internships Becoming a global business practitioner able to anticipate economic and cultural change understand a diversity of world views and the idea of global responsibility Becoming a responsible and ethical business practitioner embodying virtues and values which are increasingly sought after by employers in line with consumer expectations The first thing I really love about Paul Dowson s hugely comprehensive book is its clarity he takes complex themes and turns them into accessible learning outcomes The other thing to love is its humanity it is insightful and borne of a deep concern about how students transition from higher education to working life and citizenship Jane Artess Director of Research Higher Education Careers Services Unit HECSU UK Palliative Care Nursing: Principles And Evidence For Practice Payne, Sheila,Seymour, Jane,Ingleton, Christine,2008-08-01 This textbook in palliative care nursing draws together the principles and evidence that underpins practice to support nurses working in specialist palliative care settings and those whose work involves end of life care

Handbook of Perinatal and Neonatal Palliative Care Rana Limbo,Charlotte Wool,Brian Carter,2019-11-11 The first resource of its kind this authoritative handbook holistically addresses the multidimensional aspects of perinatal and neonatal palliative care Written by an interprofessional team of renowned specialists it is both a text and an evidencebased reference for all members of the palliative care team This book helps individual team members forge interdisciplinary approaches to care assess current programs improve the quality of care and tailor new models of care Encompassing the perspectives of numerous multidisciplinary healthcare providers the book underscores the unique aspects of perinatal and neonatal palliative care with a focus on improving quality of life as well as comfort at the end of life It describes healthcare for neonates and pregnant mothers care and support of the family planning and decision making and effective support for grief and bereavement addressing all palliative and neonatal care settings Other chapters focus on the prenatal period after diagnosis of the expected baby s life threatening condition These include such topics as care of the mother delivering devastating news and advance care planning Each chapter contains photos figures and or tables and case studies with clinical implications and critical thinking questions Also included is an extensive listing of relevant palliative care organizations Paintings and poetry provide an artistic backdrop to the authors inspiring words Key Features Addresses a growing need for specific provider resources in neonatal palliative care Covers the clinical and emotional aspects of palliative care for babies and their families Abundant resources for effective and compassionate family centered care Case studies with critical thinking questions Accompanying video clips of healthcare and family interactions Supplemental image bank included Holistic Nursing: A Handbook for Practice Barbara Montgomery Dossey, Lynn Keegan, 2008-05-06 Community Palliative Care Sandra Aitken, 2009-04-13 Community Palliative Care examines the complex support and information needs of seriously ill patients and their families and will encompass not only the patient's journey but that of the family during the illness trajectory and into the bereavement period The text is divided into three sections professionals patients and carers The first section discusses the roles and contributions made by other members of the primary health care team and examines the role of the nurse Section two explores the psychosocial support needed by patients receiving palliative care and looks at the community palliative care clinical nurse specialists role in relation to psychological as well as practical problems surrounding a life threatening illness The final section will look at the needs of the family and carers and the support that the community palliative care clinical nurse specialist can offer to the individuals Included in this segment will be the complex issues faced by carers in relation to the changing roles within the family children death and bereavement Working with Bereaved Children and Young People Brenda Mallon, 2010-11-15 Working with Bereaved Children and Young People offers a fresh insight into working practices with children and young people who are experiencing the death of a family member friend school peer or in their social network Bridging the gap between theory and practice the book's practical skills focus is informed by the latest research findings on children and young people's experience of grief The wide ranging content includes a comprehensive review of theoretical approaches to bereavement the impact of different types of grief on children working with children who have been bereaved in traumatic circumstances such as through criminal behavior skills development The list of resources case studies and exercises encourage critical engagement with the counselling theory and promote reflexive practice Trainees in counselling psychotherapy and social work as well as teachers and mental health workers will find this an invaluable resource for working with this vulnerable client group Watson's Clinical Nursing and Related Sciences E-Book Mike Walsh, Alison Crumbie, 2007-07-25 Previous editions of this popular textbook have provided nursing students with the comprehensive guide they need to a wide range of clinical nursing issues This edition continues to provide this comprehensive support but also reflects the changing context of nursing care in the 21st century It reflects the growing importance of primary health and the community the move towards evidence based practice and the importance of the multi disciplinary team The text is designed to emphasise the importance of holistic patient focussed nursing It addresses health assessment and introduces students to key aspects of the medical history and physical exam Contemporary issues such as substance misuse are also examined Clearly written and well organised to support study the text also features case studies critical incidents and care plans The chapters include extensive 2 colour artwork and are supported by current references and suggestions for further reading Electronic ancillary material is available at <http://evolve.elsevier.com> Walsh Watsons Comprehensive nursing focussed textbook Emphasis on holistic nursing care rather than bio medical approach Includes material on all major client groups including children older people and mental health clients Reflects hospital and community aspects of nursing care for major disorders Case studies and care plans included Well designed in two colours and easy to use Each disorder chapter features key themes of psychological and social dimensions of care involving family discharge planning requirements for care after discharge nursing care within the context of the multi disciplinary team evidence based practice Supplementary electronic ancillaries on Evolve narrated Powerpoint presentations and related case studies A new chapter on non medical prescribing and principles of safe practice An updated edition of the Watson s Clinical nursing pocket book prepared specifically for this edition to be published in the same year Palliative Care Nursing of Children and Young People Rita Pfund, 2018-10-08 Children s palliative care is an evolving specialty and as such our knowledge base cannot remain static This book constantly challenges the reader to critically analyze their own practices and beliefs within an evidence based framework and as such makes a valuable contribution to the growing body of knowledge on this important subject Susan Fowler Kerry in the Foreword This book caters for readers from different working environments and levels of experience It is ideal for paediatric nurses with no specialist palliative care knowledge and also for palliative care nurses with no specialist paediatric experience Other healthcare professionals and therapists working with children young people and their families will also find this book invaluable It will also be ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate health and social care students and professionals involved in children s hospices community services and charity groups This book captures not just the rapidly evolving evidence base but also as many current developments as possible and applies them in a meaningful way to the care of infants children and young people living with life limiting illness and their families It offers an overview of contemporary issues and helps to stimulate the type of dialogue that can bring about the actions that will make a real difference for the children young people and families in our care Rita Pfund in the Preface
