On Loss Erica Marchant, Joshua George, Melissa Schell, 2019-07-06 Loss like love deepens with living Defining loss travels beyond grief It is more than saying goodbye surviving destruction or facing deprivation Loss means letting go moving on and finding the light again Lost items lost people lost minds In them there s a silent hope With loss comes pain but with pain comes finding the good the happiness in renewing one s life and redeeming the irredeemable On Loss is a genre crossing collection of short stories poetry and flash fiction Each piece though vastly different is On Loss Narratives tragedies and tales from space travel time travel and a crime fighting superhero to war veterans insanity and a drive thru cemetery splash across the pages Whether losing a loved one memories innocence or the mind each one follows a different path of loss and its aftermath Every story unique each touched with inflection and speckled with despair Follow the authors of On Loss through the pain and impossibility to lessons learned forgiveness and the hope of a better tomorrow Authors Include Aaron Pasker Alice Lam Andrea Goyan Bernadette Fah Boris Glikman Cari Greywolf Rowan Chad V Broughman Christy Nicholas Connor Edick Deborah Staunton Donald J Bingle Edward Ahern Erica Marchant Ethan D N Jones Gerri Leen Jennifer Bradpiece Joanna Hoyt Joshua George Judi Dettorre KJ Hunter K A Mielke Leah George Les Bernstein Leslie Cushman Lisa Fox Liz Perry Lynne Buchanan Mark Towse M Kari Barr Melissa Schell Michael Riley Michael Simon Michelle Tang Mika Doyle Benjamin R Barnes Samantha Pilecki Robert Stephenson Robert Walton Sara Marchant Winston Plowes Aftermath Radix Media (Firm), 2018 Aftermath Explorations of Loss Grief is an anthology that weaves together a broad collection of voices to illustrate the many forms of loss The topics range from the inevitable breakdown of a relationship to an immigrant family struggling to retain their culture as they attempt to assimilate In their interpretation of the book s theme the selected stories run the spectrum from heartfelt raw and powerful to lighter and humorous This body of work reveals how despite the differences of our day to day lives we are all connected It was named a Bronze Winner 2018 Foreword INDIES Book of the Year Awards Loss David L. Eng, David Kazanjian, 2003 If catastrophe is not representable according to the narrative explanations which would make sense of history then making sense of ourselves and charting the future are not impossible But we are as it were marked for life and that mark is insuperable irrecoverable It becomes the condition by which life is risked by which the question of whether one can move and with whom and in what way is framed and incited by the irreversibility of loss itself Judith Butler from the Afterword Loss is a wonderful volume powerful and important deeply moving and intellectually challenging at the same time ethical and not moralistic It is one of those rare collections that work as a multifaceted whole to map new areas for inquiry and pose new questions I found myself educated and provoked by the experience of participating in an ongoing dialogue Amy Kaplan author of The Anarchy of Empire in the Making of U S Culture My Five Stages of Grief Darren Heart, 2014-05 My Five Stages of Grief Poetry Anthology by Darren Heart is an emotional chronicle of the author s ten year journey of recovery and healing from the grief and the overwhelming sense of loss caused by the tragic deaths of his long term partner and shortly afterwards his step son The original poetry contained within this anthology is taken from the more extensive book My Five Stages of Grief A Father's Journey to Recovery from Bereavement written by the same author The main body is represented by five chapters featuring poems dedicated to the five stages of grief namely Denial Anger Bargaining Depression and Acceptance Intended to reflect upon the various emotions and thoughts he experienced during that particular stage of the grieving process Contains 45 original emotional and thought provoking short poems capturing the author's raw thoughts and emotions associated with each stage For those who have suffered the loss of a loved one this poetry book explore a mourner's need to acknowledge death and embrace the pain of loss and bereavement as a pathway to recovery At one time or another we will all find ourselves facing a dark journey through the grieving process My Five Stages of Grief Poetry Anthology is written to provide support and comfort for a person who is in the wake of despair following the loss of a loved one Example Poem from this Anthology A Castaway Dark clouds of despair rolling above Obscures the peak of mount melancholy Surrounded by a rough sea of sadness Waves of woe crashing all over me Where is this place i have landed A castaway in a far off land Beaches of gloom and misery Great sorrow in each grain of sand I really need to escape here Build a raft from my dreams and hopes Leave unhappiness there on the shoreline And break free of these heavy heart ropes Depression is no laughing matter Dejection is not a great show But no blast of darkness can block out the light Just one match can make a room glow Enduring Loss in Early Modern Germany Lynne Tatlock, 2010 Cross disciplinary perspectives on responses to material and spiritual loss in early modern Germany trace how individuals and communities registered coped with and made sense of deprivation through a spectrum of activities often turning loss into gain and acquiring agency Lost and Found Emma L.E.Rees, 2013-06-28 He is my miracle says Sarah Frost Mellor's protagonist of her lover Joe Found by accident in the least likely of places Sarah won the 2012 Cheshire Prize for Literature with her short story Udumbara in Lytham St Anne's and it's in this modest seaside town that Lost and Found begins Reading through the stories in this collection the reader will find many things surreal flotsam on a desolate beach a love letter mislaid for decades turns of phrase in a classroom relationships shaped in unusual settings But to find something means simultaneously to acknowledge the possibility of loss And loss figures largely in the anthology too from beloved relatives to despised spouses and from inconsequential objects to an individual's very sense of self life's losses are portrayed here in a variety of humorous dark and frequently surprising ways The Cheshire Prize for Literature was inaugurated in 2003 as the High Sheriff's Cheshire Prize for Literature It is funded by the Bank of America Europe Card Services and is administered by the University of Chester The 2012 competition was for short stories and this collection contains 24 of the shortlisted entries including those of the eventual winner Details of the Prize are available at <http://www.chester.ac.uk/literatureprize> The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing Aleix Tura Vecino, 2025-08-14 Hundreds of anthologies of women's short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo In doing so the book also develops the first book length conceptualisation of the features and meaning making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women s studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide Return Engagements Viet Lê,2021-04-12 In Return

Engagements artist and critic Vi t L examines contemporary art in Cambodia and Vi t Nam to rethink the entwinement of militarization trauma diaspora and modernity in Southeast Asian art Highlighting artists tied to Phnom Penh and S i G n and drawing on a range of visual art as well as documentary and experimental films L points out that artists of Southeast Asian descent are often expected to address the twin traumas of armed conflict and modernization and shows how desirable art on these themes is on international art markets As the global art market fetishizes trauma and violence artists strategically align their work with those tropes in ways that L suggests allow them to reinvent such aesthetics and discursive spaces By returning to and refashioning these themes artists such as Tiffany Chung Rithy Panh and Sopheap Pich challenge categorizations of diasporic and local by situating themselves as insiders and outsiders relative to Cambodia and Vi t Nam By doing so they disrupt dominant understandings of place time and belonging in contemporary art About What Was Lost

Jessica Berger Gross,2006-12-26 In this intimate anthology twenty writers explore the grief and sadness and hope that living through a miscarriage can bring Featuring such notable writers as Pam Houston Joyce Maynard Caroline Leavitt Susanna Sonnenberg and Julianna Baggott among many others About What Was Lost is the only book that uses honest eloquent and deeply moving narrative to provide much needed solace and support on the subject of pregnancy loss Today as many as one in four pregnancies ends in miscarriage And yet many women are surprised to find that instead of simply grieving the end of a pregnancy they feel as if they are mourning the loss of a child Taken aback by their sorrow they seek solace in similar perspectives only to find that a silence and lingering stigma surrounds the topic Revealing a wide spectrum of experiences and perspectives this powerful collection offers comfort and community for the millions of women and their loved ones who experience this all too common kind of loss every year The Classical Journal ,1922 The Art of Losing Kevin

Finding Purple America Jon Smith, 2013-05-01 The new southern studies has had an uneasy relationship with both American studies and the old southern studies In Finding Purple America Jon Smith one of the founders of the new movement locates the source of that unease in the fundamentally antimodern fantasies of both older fields The old southern studies tends to view modernity as a threat to a mystic southern essence a dangerous outside force taking the form of everything from a bulldozer revolution to a national project of forgetting Since the rise of the New Americanists American studies has also imagined itself to be in a permanent crisis mode seeking to affiliate the field and the national essence with youth countercultures that sixties leftists once imagined to be the future Such fantasies Smith argues have resulted in an old southern studies that cannot understand places like Birmingham or Atlanta or cities at all and an American studies that cannot understand red states Most Americans live in neither a comforting premodern Mayberry nor an exciting postmodern Los Angeles but rather in what postcolonialists call alternative modernities and hybrid cultures whose relationships to past and future to stability and change are complex and ambivalent Looking at how the South has played in global metropolitan pop culture since the nineties and at how southern popular and high culture alike have in fact repeatedly embraced urban modernity Smith masterfully weaves together postcolonial theory cultural studies Lacanian psychoanalysis and surprisingly marketing theory to open up the inconveniently in between purple spaces and places that Americanist and southernist fantasies about who we are have so long sought to foreclose

The Top Books of the Year Loss Anthology The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Loss Anthology : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
