Lost Masters The Looting Of Europe's Treasures:

The Lost Masters Peter Harclerode, Brendan Pittaway, 2000 The Nazis systematically looted Europe's treasurehouses to accumulate a magnificent hoard of important and priceless art collections Much loot was recovered at war's end but vast quantities disappeared again pillaged by Stalin's Red Army and other Allies alike To this day many of those who suffered the loss of their collections remain impoverished and empty handed The Lost Masters is an account of the tragic looting of Europe and the victims' attempts to reclaim the precious art heritage in the face of indifference from governments and the international art trade It also includes the story of how courage possibly saved from destruction the most famous painting in the world Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Hasan i Sabah was born in northern Persia around 1050 and died in 1124 He was an Ismaili missionary or dai who founded the Nizari Ismailis after the usurpation of the Fatimid Imamate by the military dictator of Egypt It may be said that Hasan founded and operated the world s most successful mystical secret society while building a political territory in which to maintain his independence The small empire he created would be home to him his followers and their descendants for 166 years Today under the leadership of the Aga Khan the Nizari Ismailis are one of the preeminent Muslim sects in the world numbering some twenty million members in twenty five countries The medieval Nizaris were also known as Assassins or Hashishim They became embedded in European consciousness because of their contact with the Knights Templar and other Crusaders and visitors to the Near East Several Europeans reported back with strange and largely false tales of the Assassins In the fourteenth century they were widely popularized by the famed Venetian traveler and writer Marco Polo in The Travels of Marco Polo He added a whole new level of myth in his account of the sect included in this volume along with extensive commentary Of greatest interest is the idea that the Assassins were the spiritual initiators of the Knights Templar If this is true Hasan i Sabah would be in part responsible for the European Renaissance that would reclaim the spiritual centrality of the Hermetic writings and the Gnostic Esoteric trends that continue to this day Essential reading for an understanding of modern esoteric secret societies and today s headlines coming from the Middle East Includes 9 maps An Apprenticeship in Arms Roger B. Manning,2006-05-25 Based upon a wide range of historical and literary sources An Apprenticeship in Arms is a scholarly study of the military experiences of peers and gentlemen from the British Isles who volunteered to fight in the religious and dynastic wars of mainland Europe as well as the ordinary men who were impressed to serve in the ranks from the time of the English intervention in the Dutch war of independence in 1585 to the death of the soldier king William III in 1702 This apprenticeship in arms exposed these men to the technological innovations of the military revolution laid the foundations for a fledgling professional officer class based upon merit and established a fund of military expertise This remilitarization of aristocratic culture and society was completed by 1640 and provided numerous experienced military officers for the various armies of the civil wars and subsequently for the embryonic British army after William III invaded and conquered the British Isles and committed the Three Kingdoms to the armed struggle against Louis XIV during the Nine Years War Conflicts between amateur aristocrats and so called soldiers of fortune led to continuing debates about the relative merits of standing armies and a select militia the individual pursuit of honour and glory by such amateurs also obscured the more rational military and political objectives of the modern state subverted military discipline and delayed the process of the professionalization of the officer corps of the British army Congressional Record United States. Congress,1968 The Christian Advocate ,1906 The New World Park Benjamin,James Aldrich,Henry Champion Deming,James Mackay,1841
