Lost Wisdom Rethinking Modernity In Iran:

Lost Wisdom Abbas Milani, 2004 In the essays collected here Abbas Milani uses an impressive array of cross disciplinary Western and Iranian theories and texts to investigate the crucial question of modernity in Iran today He offers a wealth of new insights into the thousand year old conflict in Iran between the search for modernity and the forces of religious obscurantism The essays trace the roots of Shiite Islamic fundamentalism and offer illuminating accounts of the work of Iranian intellectuals both men and women and their artistic movements as they struggle to find a new path toward a genuine modernity in Iran that is congruent with Iran's rich cultural heritage This book challenges the hitherto accepted theory that modernity and its related concepts of democracy and freedom are Western in essence It also demonstrates that Iran and the West have more that brings them together than separates them in their search for such modern ideals as rationalism the rule of law and democracy

Modernity, Sexuality, and Ideology in Iran Kamran Talattof, 2011-06-01 In Iran since the mid nineteenth century one issue has been a common concern how should Iran become modern More than a century of struggle for or against modernity has constituted much of the social political and cultural history of the country In the decades since the 1979 Revolution the question has become even more critical In Modernity Sexuality and Ideology in Iran Talattof finds that the process of modernity never truly unfolded due in large part to Iran's reluctance to embrace the seminal subjects of gender and sexuality Talattof's approach reflects a unique look at modernity as advancement not only in industry and economy but also toward an open intellectual discourse on sexuality Exploring the life and times of Shahrzad a dancer actress filmmaker and poet Talattof illuminates the country's struggle with modernity and the ideological traditional and religious resistance against it Born in 1946 she performed in several theater productions became an acclaimed film star in the 1970s and pursued a career as a journalist and poet Following the revolution she was imprisoned and eventually became homeless on the streets of Tehran Her success and eventual decline as a female artist and entertainer illustrate the conflict between modernity and tradition and Iran's failure to embrace an overt expression of sexuality Talattof also profiles several other female artists of the 1970s analyzing their lives and work as windows through which to examine what Iranian culture allowed and what it repudiated A pioneering and timely work Modernity Sexuality and Ideology in Iran explores the integral role of popular culture and female artists in the shaping of modern Iran constructing a new framework for understanding such crucial concepts as ideology and modernity creation of the contemporary Islamic Republic Though his monarchy was toppled in 1979 and he died in 1980 the life of Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlavi the last Shah of Iran continues to resonate today Here internationally respected author Abbas Milani gives us the definitive biography more than ten years in the making of the monarch who shaped Iran's modern age and with it the contemporary politics of the Middle East The Shah's was a life filled with contradiction as a social reformer he built schools increased equality for women and greatly reduced the power of the Shia clergy He made Iran a global power courting Western leaders from Churchill to Carter and nationalized his country's many natural resources But he was deeply conflicted and insecure in his powerful role Intolerant of political dissent he was eventually overthrown by the very people whose loyalty he so desperately sought This comprehensive and gripping account shows us how Iran went from politically moderate monarchy to totalitarian Islamic republic Milani reveals the complex and sweeping road that would bring the U S and Iran to where they are today
