Rafael Viñoly Rafael Viñoly, 2002-11-21 Rafael Viñoly became famous as the architect of the stunning Tokyo International Forum 1989 1996 In Japan where land is at a premium and public spaces are rare the Forum with its 2.7 hectares and unusual design of public space was widely admired Originating in Uruguay Viñoly heads an architectural office with an impressive list of projects in the areas of architecture urban planning and interior design including significant buildings such as the Philadelphia Regional Performing Arts Center which opened recently Princeton University Stadium the New Bronx Supreme Criminal Court Complex In 1969 Viñoly founded his first office in Buenos Aires which was influenced by the Modern Movement but also by the ideas and concepts of the 1960s reflected in the work of Buckminster Fuller Archigram and the Smithsons Due to the political situation he emigrated and opened an office in New York in 1982 Despite the difficulties involved in starting over again in a new country where in the meantime post modernism was prevalent Viñoly stayed true to his style of architecture feeling bound to the ethical considerations of modernism yet constantly questioning it adapting it to changing conditions With offices in New York and Tokyo Rafael Viñoly Architects is now one of the most successful architectural offices worldwide This book documents a large number of Viñoly's most significant buildings and projects It also includes an essay by Joan Ockman one of the best known architecture theoreticians in the USA and texts by Rafael Viñoly on his career which has been marked by the difficult political situation in Argentina and the cultural exchange between S America Europe and the USA

Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century's vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries

Some Assembly Required Michael Sorkin, One of the best architecture critics writing today presents a new collection which previews the state of contemporary architecture and surveys the dramatic changes in the urban environment of the last decade

Architecture as Cultural and Political Discourse Daniel Grincer, 2016-02-26 This book is concerned with cultural and political discourses that affect the production of architecture It examines how these discursive mechanisms and technologies combine to normalise and aestheticise everyday practices It queries the means by which buildings are appropriated to give shape and form to political aspirations and values Architecture is not overtly political It does not coerce people to behave in certain ways However architecture is constructed within the same rules and practices whereby people and communities self govern and regulate themselves to think and act in certain ways This book seeks to examine these rules through various case studies including the reconstructed Notre Dame

Cathedral the Nazi era Munich Königsplatz Auschwitz concentration camp and the Prora resort Sydney's suburban race riots and the Australian Immigration Detention Centre on Christmas Island Federal Register ,1985 Introducing Architectural Tectonics Chad Schwartz,2025-08-29 The second edition of Introducing Architectural Tectonics is an exploration of the poetics of construction Tectonic theory is an integrative philosophy examining the relationships formed between design construction and space while creating or experiencing a work of architecture In this text author Chad Schwartz presents an introductory investigation into tectonic theory subdividing it into distinct concepts in order to make it accessible to beginning and advanced students alike The book centers on the tectonic analysis of twenty contemporary works of architecture located in over a dozen countries across the globe Germany Italy Burkina Faso the United States Chile Japan Bangladesh Mexico Spain Australia and more and designed by notable architects such as Tadao Ando Herzog de Meuron Kengo Kuma Peter Zumthor Xu Tiantian and Francis K r Although similarities do exist between the projects their distinctly different characteristics and range of interpretations of tectonic expression provide the most significant lessons to help you learn about tectonic theory This second edition has been updated to include the tectonic analysis of four new architectural precedents From Nigeria the Makoko Floating School by NL From Burkina Faso Lyc e Schorge by K r Architecture From Mexico the Matamoros Public Market by Colectivo C733 From China Quarry 8 by DnA_Design and Architecture Written in clear accessible language these investigations examine the poetic potential of architecture presenting lessons and concepts that you can integrate into your own work whether studying in a university classroom or practicing in a professional office

Massimo Scolari Sara Richardson,1988 Analogical Thinking in Architecture Jean-Pierre Chupin,2023-07-27 This book provides an in depth exploration of the rich and persistent use of analogical thinking in the built environment Since the turn of the 21st century design thinking has permeated many fields outside of the design disciplines It is expected to succeed whenever disciplinary boundaries need to be transcended in order to think outside the box This book argues that these qualities have long been supported by analogical thinking an agile way of reasoning in which think the unknown through the familiar The book is organized into four case studies the first reviews analogical models that have been at the heart of design thinking representations from the 1960s to the present day the second investigates the staying power of biological analogies the third explores the paradoxical imaginary of analogous cities as a means of integrating contemporary architecture with heritage contexts while the fourth unpacks the critical and theoretical potential of linguistic metaphors and visual comparisons in architectural discourse Comparing views on the role of analogies and metaphors by prominent voices in architecture and related disciplines from the 17th century to the present the book shows how the analogical world of the project is revealed as a wide open field of creative and cognitive interactions These visual and textual operations are explained through 36 analogical plates which can be read as an inter text demonstrating how analogy has the power to reconcile design and theories Early and Unpublished Writings of Christopher Alexander Howard Davis,2022-08-17

This book brings together key works of the noted architect and architectural theorist Christopher Alexander 1936-2022 many of which have not been published before The book contains twenty five essays and other works many chosen from the newly organized Christopher Alexander archive providing a window into the ideas and thought process of one of the most innovative architectural thinkers of the twentieth century The items span Alexander's fifty year career beginning with an early version of his PhD dissertation based on fieldwork in India continuing to fifteen years in the development of A Pattern Language one of the best selling books in the history of architecture and proceeding to the writing of The Nature of Order Alexander's four volume masterwork and beyond The writings combine theory and descriptions of practice and together support a blueprint for the development of a new humane way of building while also providing a window into the mind of an extraordinary thinker teacher and professional

Words & Works Gerardo Brown-Manrique, 1989

The Architecture of Modern Italy Terry Kirk, 2005-06-02

Modern Italy may sound like an oxymoron For Western civilization Italian culture represents the classical past and the continuity of canonical tradition while modernity is understood in contrary terms of rupture and rapid innovation Charting the evolution of a culture renowned for its historical past into the 10 modern era challenges our understanding of both the resilience of tradition and the elasticity of modernity We have a tendency when imagining Italy to look to a rather distant and definitely premodern setting The ancient forum medieval cloisters baroque piazzas and papal palaces constitute our ideal itinerary of Italian civilization The Campo di Siena Saint Peter's all of Venice and San Gimignano satisfy us with their seemingly unbroken panoramas onto historical moments untouched by time but elsewhere modern intrusions alter and obstruct the view to the landscapes of our expectations As seasonal tourist or seasoned historian we edit the encroachments time and change have wrought on our image of Italy The learning of history is always a complex task one that in the Italian environment is complicated by the changes wrought everywhere over the past 250 years Culture on the peninsula continues to evolve with characteristic vibrancy Italy is not a museum To think of it as such as a disorganized yet phenomenally rich museum unchanging in its exhibits is to misunderstand the nature of the Italian cultural condition and the writing of history itself Pastoral Capitalism Louise A. Mazingo, 2016-05-27 How business appropriated the pastoral landscape as seen in the corporate campus the corporate estate and the office park By the end of the twentieth century America's suburbs contained more office space than its central cities Many of these corporate workplaces were surrounded somewhat incongruously by verdant vistas of broad lawns and leafy trees In Pastoral Capitalism Louise Mazingo describes the evolution of these central but often ignored features of postwar urbanism in the context of the modern capitalist enterprise These new suburban corporate landscapes emerged from a historical moment when corporations reconceived their management structures the city decentralized and dispersed into low density auto dependent peripheries and the pastoral in the form of leafy residential suburbs triumphed as an American ideal Greenness writes Mazingo was associated with goodness and pastoral capitalism appropriated the suburb's aesthetics and moral code Like the lawn proud suburban homeowner corporations understood a pastoral landscape's capacity to communicate identity status and right mindedness Mazingo distinguishes among three forms of corporate landscapes the corporate campus the corporate estate and the office park and examines suburban corporate landscapes built and inhabited by such companies as Bell Labs General Motors Deere Company and Microsoft She also considers the globalization of pastoral capitalism in Europe and the developing world including Singapore India and China Mazingo argues that even as it is proliferating pastoral capitalism needs redesign as do many of our metropolitan forms for pressing social cultural political and environmental reasons Future transformations are impossible however unless we understand the past Pastoral Capitalism offers an indispensable chapter in urban history examining not only the design of corporate landscapes but also the economic social and cultural models that determined their form Union List of Artist Names: Q-Z, 1994 Gunnar

Asplund's Gothenburg Nicholas Adams, 2015-01-14 In the west coast port city of Gothenburg Sweden the architect Gunnar Asplund built a modest extension to an old courthouse on the main square 1934-36 Judged today to be one of the finest works of modern architecture the courthouse extension was immediately the object of a negative newspaper campaign led by one of the most noted editors of the day Torgny Segerstedt Famous for his determined opposition to National Socialism he also took a principled stand against the undermining of urban tradition in Gothenburg Gothenburg's problems with modern public architecture though clamorous and publicized throughout Sweden were by no means unique In Gunnar Asplund's Gothenburg Nicholas Adams places Asplund's building in the wider context of public architecture between the wars setting the originality and sensitivity of Asplund's conception against the political and architectural struggles of the 1930s Today looking at the building in the broadest of contexts we can appreciate the richness of this exquisite work of architecture This book recaptures the complex magic of its creation and the fascinating controversy of its completed form Object to Be Destroyed Pamela M. Lee, 2001-08-24 In this first critical account of Matta Clark's work Pamela M. Lee considers it in the context of the art of the 1970s particularly site specific conceptual and minimalist practices and its confrontation with issues of community property the alienation of urban space the right to the city and the ideologies of progress that have defined modern building programs Although highly regarded during his short life and honored by artists and architects today the American artist Gordon Matta Clark 1943-78 has been largely ignored within the history of art Matta Clark is best remembered for site specific projects known as building cuts Sculptural transformations of architecture produced through direct cuts into buildings scheduled for demolition these works now exist only as sculptural fragments photographs and film and video documentations Matta Clark is also remembered as a catalytic force in the creation of SoHo in the early 1970s Through loft activities site projects at the exhibition space 112 Greene Street and his work at the restaurant Food he participated in the production of a new social and artistic space Have art historians written so little about Matta Clark's work because of its ephemerality or as Pamela M. Lee argues because of its historiographic political and social dimensions What did the activity of carving up a building in anticipation of its destruction suggest about the conditions of art making architecture and urbanism in the 1970s What was one to make of the paradox attendant on its making that the production of the object was contingent upon its ruination How do these projects address the very writing of history a history that imagines itself building toward an ideal work in the service of progress In this first critical account of Matta Clark's work Lee considers it in the context of the art of the 1970s particularly site specific conceptual and minimalist practices and its confrontation with issues of community property the alienation of urban space the right to the city and the ideologies of progress that have defined modern building programs

Anti-Veiling Campaigns in the Muslim World Stephanie Cronin, 2014-04-24 In recent years bitter controversies have erupted across Europe and the Middle East about women's veiling and especially their wearing of the face veil or niqab Yet the deeper issues contained within these controversies secularism versus religious belief individual freedom versus social or family coercion identity versus integration are not new but are strikingly prefigured by earlier conflicts This book examines the state sponsored anti veiling campaigns which swept across wide swathes of the Muslim world in the interwar period especially in Turkey and the Balkans Iran Afghanistan and the Soviet republics of the Caucasus and Central Asia It shows how veiling was officially discouraged and ridiculed as backward and although it was rarely banned veiling was politicized and turned into a rallying point for a wider opposition Asking a number of questions about this earlier anti veiling discourse and the policies flowing from it and the reactions which it provoked the book illuminates and contextualizes contemporary debates about gender Islam and modernism

Historic Cities Jeff Cody, Francesco Siravo, 2019-07-30 This new volume in the GCI's Readings in Conservation series brings together a selection of seminal writings on the conservation of historic cities This book the eighth in the Getty Conservation Institute's

Readings in Conservation series fills a significant gap in the published literature on urban conservation This topic is distinct from both heritage conservation and urban planning despite the recent growth of urbanism worldwide no single volume has presented a comprehensive selection of these important writings until now This anthology profusely illustrated throughout is organized into eight parts covering such subjects as geographic diversity reactions to the transformation of traditional cities reading the historic city the search for contextual continuities the search for values and the challenges of sustainability With more than sixty five texts ranging from early polemics by Victor Hugo and John Ruskin to a generous selection of recent scholarship this book thoroughly addresses regions around the globe Each reading is introduced by short prefatory remarks explaining the rationale for its selection and the principal matters covered The book will serve as an easy reference for administrators professionals teachers and students faced with the day to day challenges confronting the historic city under siege by rampant development

Intertwining: Steven Holl,1996-04 To his earlier articulated concept of anchoring which connects a construction with the history of the ground locale and region Holl adds the concept of intertwining which is illuminated by sensory perceptual conceptual and emotional experiences Illustrates with drawings plans and photographs projects in Japan Finland Germany Switzerland Holland Korea and Norway No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR
