Travellers today and understanding the discrimination they face This publication focuses on what the works exhibited at the Prado Museum tell us about the place and perception of Roma in Europe from the 15th to the 19th centuries Students aged 12 to 18 teachers and any other visitor to the Prado interested in this theme will find detailed worksheets on 15 paintings representing Roma and Travellers and a booklet to foster reflection on the works and their context while creating links with our contemporary perception of Roma and Travellers in today's society

The Grand Louvre, 1987? Worlds in a Museum Louvre Abu Dhabi, École du Louvre, 2020-09-30 Held on the occasion of Louvre Abu Dhabi's first anniversary the symposium Worlds in a Museum addressed the topic of museums in the era of globalisation exploring contemporary museology and the preservation and presentation of culture within the context of changing societies Departing from the historical museum structure inherited from the Enlightenment leading experts from art cultural and academic institutions explore present day achievements and challenges in the study display and interpretation of art history and artefacts How are global and local objects and narratives balanced particularly in consideration of diverse audiences How do we foster perspective and multiculturalism while addressing politicised notions of centre and periphery As they abandon classical canons and categories how are museums and cultural entities redefining themselves beyond predefined concepts of geography and history This collection of essays arises from the symposium Worlds in a Museum organised by Louvre Abu Dhabi and École du Louvre

Museums, Modernity and Conflict Kate Hill, 2020-11-26 Museums Modernity and Conflict examines the history of the relationship between museums collections and war revealing how museums have responded to and been shaped by war and conflicts of various sorts Written by a mixture of museum professionals and academics and ranging across Europe North America and the Middle East this book examines the many ways in which museums were affected by major conflicts such as the World Wars considers how and why they attempted to contribute to the war effort analyses how wartime collecting shaped the nature of the objects held by a variety of museums and demonstrates how museums of war and of the military came into existence during this period Closely focused around conflicts which had the most wide ranging impact on museums this collection includes reflections on museums such as the Louvre the Stedelijk in the Netherlands the Canadian War Museum and the State Art Collections Dresden Museums Modernity and Conflict will be of interest to academics and students worldwide particularly those engaged in the study of museums war and history Showing how the past continues to shape contemporary museum work in a variety of different and sometimes unexpected ways the book will also be of interest to museum practitioners

History of Collections Nakoa Rainfall, 2025-02-22 History of Collections offers a captivating exploration into why humans collect art tracing the evolution of art collections from symbols of royal power and religious devotion to today's sophisticated private and public displays The book examines how collections reflect shifting motivations cultural contexts and economic forces Understanding this history reveals how art acquires value how taste is formed and how dominant narratives of art history are constructed Did you know that art collections have historically served as tools for asserting authority and demonstrating wealth This book uniquely emphasizes the agency of individual collectors and their profound impact on shaping art history The book delves into the origins of art collections in royal and religious settings the rise of private collecting alongside the art market s emergence and the development of museums as educational institutions It explores the political systems economic structures and social hierarchies that have influenced art s creation and consumption Ethical considerations such as cultural appropriation are also addressed Beginning with early collections from ancient civilizations and the medieval period the narrative progresses through the Renaissance and Baroque eras the rise of private collecting in the 18th and 19th centuries and concludes with contemporary collecting practices including digital art and globalization
