Love Is A Drum Fiction Notes:

Love is a Drum Wallace Collins, 2000-01-20 THE EXIT INTERVIEW is a story about the competitiveness between two business oriented buddies whose friendship became marred by jealousy and envy ended in tragic circumstances or at best melodramatically In LOVE IS A DRUM Pops is a senior citizen who shares the spotlight with Malcolm a young romantic who projects himself years ahead of his time to emphasize with the old man THE EMPTY STAGE is a story that indulges in the often beguiling concept of reality It speaks to a reality that Billy a television cameraman and Walter a character actor both finds it difficult to identify actuality BLOOD AND WINE is a story that shows the need for our compassion in understanding the vagrant and try to ease if not remedy his eerie and dismal world of existence The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies A Reader's Guide to the Novels of Louise Erdrich Peter G. Beidler, Gay Barton, 2006 A revised and expanded comprehensive guide to the novels of Native American author Louise Erdrich from Love Medicine to The Painted Drum Includes chronologies genealogical charts complete dictionary of characters map and geographical details about settings and a glossary of all the Ojibwe words and phrases used in the novels Provided by publisher The Greatest Novels of William Harrison Ainsworth (Illustrated Edition) William Harrison Ainsworth, 2023-12-11 In The Greatest Novels of William Harrison Ainsworth Illustrated Edition the reader is presented with a compelling collection of Ainsworth's most remarkable works richly interwoven with historical detail and vivid characterization Ainsworth's narrative style is characterized by his intricate prose and masterful command of atmosphere often drawing on his keen interest in England's past This illustrated edition not only enriches the text with visual representation but also enhances the reader's immersion into the fascinating world of Victorian literature where the interplay of social change and historical events forms the backdrop of personal dramas William Harrison Ainsworth 1805-1882 was a prominent Victorian novelist whose works reflect his deep seated fascination with England's rich history and folklore Ainsworth who initially pursued a career in law turned to literature influenced by the Romantic movement and historians of his time His experiences and interests shaped his literary voice resulting in captivating narratives that highlight the tensions between progress and tradition in English society This illustrated edition is a must read for enthusiasts of historical fiction and Victorian literature alike Ainsworth's ability to blend thrilling plots with genuine historical insight makes these novels a treasure trove for both scholars and casual readers Dive into the world crafted by Ainsworth and discover the nuanced connections between the past and the present

Native American novelist whose work stands as a testament to the struggle of the Ojibwe people to survive colonization and contemporary reservation life Kurup traces in Erdrich's oeuvre the theme of colonization both historical and cultural and its lasting effects starting with the various novels of the Love Medicine epic the National Book Award winning The Round House The Birchbark House series of children's literature the memoirs The Blue Jays Dance and Books and Island in Ojibwe Country and selected poetry Kurup elucidates Erdrich's historical context thematic concerns and literary strategies through close readings offering an introductory approach to Erdrich and revealing several entry points for further investigation Kurup asserts that Erdrich's writing has emerged not out of a postcolonial identity but from the ongoing condition of colonization faced by Native Americans in the United States which is manifested in the very real and contemporary struggle for sovereignty and basic civil rights Exploring the ways in which Erdrich moves effortlessly from trickster humor to searing pathos and from the personal to the political Kurup takes up the complex issues of cultural identity assimilation and community in Erdrich's writing Kurup shows that Erdrich offers readers poignant and complex portraits of Native American lives in vibrant three dimensional and poetic prose while simultaneously bearing witness to the abiding strength and grace of the Ojibwe people and their presence and participation in the history of the United States The Bookman ,1898

Partition and Indian English Fiction N. S. Gundur,2008 The 1947 partition of Indian subcontinent was a political problem and a human problem as well Historical narratives document the political side of it whereas fictional ones narrate human experience of the ordeal While humanizing history the fictional narratives try to recreate totality of the holocaust Based on this line of argument the present book critically examines the Indian English Novels on Partition By relating the political history of the great divide to the novelistic representation the present study places the partition novels in the genre of political fiction Further more it offers critical insights into Partition Narratives by exploring the thematic concerns and techniques of the novels under study The critical acumen combined with historical interpretation and aesthetic evaluation makes it a reference book not only for the students of literature but also for the interested in Indian history Reading the Modern European Novel since 1900 Daniel R. Schwarz,2018-04-30 An exploration of the modern European novel from a renowned English literature scholar Reading the Modern European Novel since 1900 is an engaging in depth examination of the evolution of the modern European novel Written in Daniel R Schwarz's precise and highly readable style this critical study offers compelling discussions on a wide range of major works since 1900 and examines recurring themes within the context of significant historical events including both World Wars and the Holocaust The author cites important developments in the evolution of the modern novel and explores how these paradigmatic works of fiction reflect intellectual and cultural history including developments in painting and cinema Schwarz focuses on narrative complexity thematic subtlety and formal originality as well as how novels render historical events and cultural developments Discussing major works by Proust Camus Mann Kafka Grass di Lampedusa Bassani Kertesz Pamuk Kundera Saramago Muller and Ferrante

Schwarz explores how these often experimental masterworks pay homage to the their major predecessors discussed in Schwarz s ground breaking Reading the European Novel to 1900 even while proposing radical departures from realism in their approach to time and space their testing the limits of language and their innovative ways of rendering the human psyche Written for teachers and students by a highly acclaimed scholar and including valuable study questions Reading the Modern European Novel since 1900 offers a guide for a deeper understanding of how these original modern masters respond to both the past and present

Sex, Love, Race Martha Hodes,1999 Since the colonial era North America has been defined and continually redefined by the intersections of sex violence and love across racial boundaries Motivated by conquest economics desire and romance such crossings have profoundly affected American society by disturbing dominant ideas about race and sexuality Sex Love Race provides a historical foundation for contemporary discussions of sex across racial lines which despite the numbers of interracial marriages and multi racial children remains a controversial issue today The first historical anthology to focus solely and widely on the subject Sex Love Race gathers new essays by both younger and well known scholars which probe why and how sex across racial boundaries has so threatened Americans of all colors and classes Traversing the whole of American history from liaisons among Indians Europeans and Africans to twentieth century social scientists fascination with sex between Asian Americans and whits the essays cover a range of regions and of racial ethnic and sexual identities in North America Back cover
