Nigerian Authors and the Me-Generation Eugenia Ossana,2024-12-31 Nigerian Authors and the Me Generation New Shades of Black explores African literary issues and focuses on Nigerian generations throughout history It also underscores women authors relatively unknown or dispersed role and their positions regarding Western feminism Concurrently the book acknowledges the emergence of a current Generation called the Me Generation dealing with erstwhile taboo themes and genre experimentation Three contemporary novels are singled out and analysed My Sister the Serial Killer by Oyinkan Braithwaite A Small Silence by Jumoke Verissimo and Freshwater by Akwaeke Emezi They deal with the trope of blackness as humour and satire as a healing space and as Igbo spiritual cosmovision which contests Western givens This book can become a reference for those interested in African literature and particularly Nigerian literature Concurrently it can be a starting point to enrich the debate on African literature

The Daughters of Immigrants Catherine Bryan,Asha Jeffers,2023-10-30 This collection brings together established and emerging scholars from the humanities and the social sciences whose work considers the daughters of immigrants By showcasing these varied perspectives the collection draws meaningful connections across national and ethnic lines while attending to the particularities of specific histories locations and migration journeys The multidisciplinary nature of this project highlights the relevance and usefulness of varied methodological and theoretical approaches for understanding the diverse lived experiences of the daughters of immigrants as well as how those experiences are theorized and represented While each chapter contains its own argument assumes its own conceptual and disciplinary viewpoint and tends to specific national and ethnic origins and sites of immigration each offers meaningful insight into the gendered positionality of the daughters of immigrants as mediated by the complexities of migration kinship and culture Taken together these contributions point to the nuanced ways national ethnic and gendered identity function and how those not always well served by how these identities are constituted understand and navigate forces beyond their control A Classic in Clown Shoes Becky Kueker,2019-05-14 Becky Kueker thought she had it all publishing a new book Hiding in My Pajamas three years ago and launching a national speaking career traveling the country at 75 What more could you ask coming off a two year low after she retired struggling with the emotional stereotypes that deal with retirement and aging It was not until a complicated surgery requiring six months in a wheelchair and endless rehab turned her life in a new direction she could never have expected Fighting fear depression and the realization that she would once again have to start over Becky shares her journey facing a new beginning discovering that it s laughter that changes everything Meeting passionate people who inspired her chapters are filled with poignant stories from women and men who have proven that aging does not have to define you and new beginnings are possible Their stories are powerful and highlight the determination it takes to live your best life and what the passage of time means to how capable we are of embracing change Not being financially prepared for retirement has become a national epidemic Her chapter Learning to Live After Retirement features stories from those who were not aware that not planning was just speculating and rolling the dice on what might be The shock that their savings will not be sufficient to retain the lifestyle they lived before offers a glimpse of a generation not prepared Interviewing her husband and other men about retirement and aging highlights the unexpected marital turbulence that finds its way into very personal struggles that no one saw coming Finding humor every painful step of the way as she learns how to walk again A Classic in Clown Shoes is a roller coaster ride of emotions resonating with honesty Fiction, 1876-1983: Titles R.R.
