

A romantic wedding illustration featuring a couple in a night garden. The groom, with a beard and mustache, wears a dark blue suit and a blue tie. The bride has long dark hair, wears a white wedding dress with a long veil, and a floral crown. They are embracing in a garden filled with blue and pink flowers. In the background, fireworks explode in a dark blue night sky, and several yellow and black monarch butterflies are flying. The text 'MARRY MY HUSBAND' is written in a white serif font in the upper right, and 'Marry My Husband' is written in a white cursive font at the bottom.

Love, Loss, and Longing in Kashmir Sahba Husain,2019-11-20 In this personal and passionate account activist and researcher Sahba Husain documents her deeply engaged and empathetic involvement with the politicised terrain of Kashmir As she meets people that she speaks with and more importantly listens to she begins to question her own Indian identity Recognizing the anger despair and helplessness of a people caught in conflict and violence Husain forms deep friendships during her time working in the state It is these relationships that form the backdrop of this book in which Husain focuses on certain key areas the health of a people militancy and its changing meanings for local people and the state impunity and the search for justice migration and the longing for homes left behind and women s activism in the faultlines of nation state and community A book of surprising beauty in its engagement with human relationships of love for a land and a people and of hope for a future free of violence Love Loss and Longing in Kashmir is a compelling and necessary read PUBLISHER S NOTE As this book goes to press there is news of the abrogation by the Indian government of Article 370 of the Indian Constitution that grants special status to the state of Jammu and Kashmir Major changes that affect the lives of people in Kashmir are being put in place Currently there is a heavy presence of the armed forces curfew is in place telephone and internet lines have been suspended people are in fear and there is huge bewilderment confusion anger No one knows what the future will hold This book the result of long years of engagement with Kashmir ends on a note of hope It is our hope and belief too that whatever the future holds it is the people of Kashmir who will shape it for their state and their world

Living Without Him Minerva Khajuria, 2024-10-30 A year into their marriage Minerva loses her husband to COVID 19 making her a widow at thirty two and shattering her entire existence The death triggers harrowing memories of past tragedies the punishing death of her father the unexpected deaths of her uncles soon after and her mother s battles with mental illness they all come together to haunt her leaving her at a tragic crossroads Who has she been all this while and who is she now Can she find it in herself to move on with her life Should she Alone and lost in the world all she is left with is her relentless all consuming grief Beginning with the tumultuous month when the virus seized her family and the subsequent struggle to save her husband to going on a journey to unearth a long buried part of herself that can maybe learn to live with all of it Living Without Him is a deeply felt memoir about one woman s search for meaning and purpose after tremendous loss and a heartfelt meditation on the unique shades of grieving and recovery When Mama Can't Kiss it Better, A journey of love, loss and acceptance Lori Gertz, 2014-09-18 WHEN MAMA CAN T KISS IT BETTER is the raw account of a true story that shocked the nation in 2010 Gertz was America s most hated mother when news of a decision to place her adopted child in another family broke in the media Called out by many as an unfit mother and an evil woman who threw away her child she was catapulted into the national and international media Her daughter Emily suffered from fetal alcohol spectrum disorder reactive attachment disorder bipolar disorder and other disorders She had never bonded with Lori her father or her siblings and had begun a spiral of self destruction that often involved running into traffic and other dangerous behaviors While Gertz recalls feeling isolated accounts like hers are not rare Stories like When Mama Can t Kiss it Better are not told terribly often because of the stigma and finger pointing She writes The mother is always blamed first when a child suffers from extreme behavioral disabilities There are millions of parents who are struggling to raise children with behavioral disabilities who feel misunderstood unheard and judged and who want to be reassured that there are others like them With one in four Americans struggling with mental illness NIMH every year everyone in this country either lives with mental illness or knows someone who does The greatest tragedy is that 60% of the adults and 50% of the children suffering from mental disorders will receive absolutely NO services or support for their mental illness WHEN MAMA CAN T KISS IT BETTER covers The adoption of their daughter Emily early signs of trouble their birthmother s suicide the truth about her pregnancy and warnings about how to avoid what happened to the author and her family Raw and honest details about her daughter s rages suicide attempts and hospitalizations The turmoil that living with mental illness causes for everyone in the home and how it affects siblings and marriages The difficulty in receiving support from physicians educators clinicians The author s increasing desperation to find answers and help as rages and impulsivity became safety issues Being judged by doctors schools and outsiders as the problem while her daughter collected diagnosis after diagnosis The painful decision to place her daughter in another family and how she came to accept that she had to do the unthinkable Parents worldwide waging verbal attacks on her since if the fault belonged to Gertz alone it couldn t happen to anyone else Note from the Author I spent the better part of six years writing this book which began as the only way I could cope with what was happening in our lives I just couldn t believe the lack of resources there were when I reached out for them so vociferously and started documenting what was happening inside our family if not only to maintain my sanity I am passionate about telling my story to help increase understanding of the enormous challenges parents of special needs children face in a culture that believes that motherly love and perseverance can cure all ills For those on similar paths the story of my journey to a sense of peace within the context of facing unrealized dreams human limitations broken hearts and the unfair circumstances of life may help them find that same place of peace in the tough decisions within their own lives I pray this book will bring attention to the need to better support parents and kids with mental illness and other invisible disabilities and I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to call attention to such pressing societal issues Keywords Parenting Disabilities FASD Mothering Mental Illness RAD Bipolar Memoir Special Needs Fetal Alcohol Syndrome Itineris Jyoti Kapoor,2017-03-17 Love she says is a social concept as against desire which is a biological instinct one is born with From a very psychophysiological experience of infatuation to another biological reaction of withdrawal love oscillates between its literary renditions of poetic fairy tales to agonizing heart break Itineris The Journey through mirages is a string of verses beginning at the altar of nascent fantasies seeping through the depths of heady romance burning in the golden fire of sexual desire vaporizing into a ghost of fears dilemmas and insecurities and finally condensing into a humble snowflake settling at the foothills of lost love The Afterthought is a nostalgic reflection of expectations and dissatisfactions that become the motivating force behind a powerful emotion that defines all relationships Whether the loss of romance is the eventual reality of the mirage of love or the dissolution of amorous desires an inevitable evolutionary phenomenon is the inspiration for another quest Till then bon voyage Skylarks and Rebels Rita Laima,2017-04-25 Skylarks and Rebels is a story about the fate of Latvia in the 20th century as told by Rita Laima Laima a Latvian American chose to leave behind the comforts of life in America to explore the land of her ancestors which in the 1980s languished behind the Iron Curtain In writing about her own experiences in a totalitarian state Soviet occupied Latvia Laima delves into her family s past to understand what happened to her fatherland and its people during and after World War II She also pays tribute to some of Latvia s remarkable people of integrity who risked their lives to oppose the brutal and destructive Soviet state

Hiding from Reality Taylor Armstrong,2012-02-07 NOT EVERY FAIRY TALE HAS A HAPPY ENDING Reality hit Taylor Armstrong hard one tragic evening last August when she found the body of her estranged husband Russell hanging in his California home Fans across the country were shocked at the horrific news of his death and even more shocked to discover that behind the glittering reality of Taylor s life on The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills lurked a painful story of emotional and physical abuse that she had been terrified to tell An estimated 80 percent of domestic abuse victims remain silent suffocated by fear and relentless self doubt For Taylor it was the threat of financial ruin and finding herself alone with her young daughter that kept her tethered to her volatile husband But after a ferocious roundhouse punch from Russell fractured her face resulting in reconstructive surgery she finally made the brave decision to walk away from a man she loved and a legacy of physical abuse that she first encountered as a child and that haunted her throughout her adulthood To the outside world the Armstrongs lived like royalty throwing lavish parties including a memorable tea party for their daughter s fourth birthday and mingling with their privileged Housewives co stars It was impossible to hide the cracks in their marriage from the cameras forever though and their darkest secrets slowly began to seep through the gilded facade With searing honesty Taylor candidly examines her difficult journey from the abusive home in which she was born to the low self esteem that kept her constantly on the run from herself to the tumultuous marriage that ended in suicide and ultimately to her realization that only by sharing her moving story could she help other women The terrible truth is that I felt lost without the control that Russell had imposed on me for the nearly six years that we were married Disturbingly I missed that control I didn t know what to do once I had no one there to tell me how to dress act and behave what to want and who even to be In some ways I missed the abuse I missed the pain I missed being scared Not because I liked feeling any of that But because it was the life I had become accustomed to and without anyone to be afraid of to apologize to and to cover for I felt completely lost TAYLOR ARMSTRONG Academic Autoethnographies Daisy Pillay, Inbanathan Naicker, Kathleen Pithouse-Morgan, 2016-02-10 Academic Autoethnographies Inside Teaching in Higher Education invites readers to experience autoethnography as a challenging complex and creative research methodology that can produce personally professionally and socially useful understandings of teaching and researching in higher education The peer reviewed chapters offer innovative and perspicacious explorations of interrelationships between personal autobiographies lived educational experiences and wider social and cultural concerns across diverse disciplines and university contexts This edited book is distinctive within the existing body of autoethnographic scholarship in that the original research presented has been done in relation to predominantly South African university settings This research is complemented by contributions from Canadian and Swedish scholars The sociocultural educational and methodological insights communicated in this book will be valuable for specialists in the field of higher education and to those in other academic domains who are interested in self reflexive transformative and creative research methodologies and methods This book illuminates how autoethnography can engage authors and researchers from varied epistemological backgrounds in a reflexive multilogue about who they are and what they do The creative representations of the lived experience of doing autoethnography sets the book apart both methodologically and theoretically revealing how rigor and critical distance can serve to position autoethnography not only as a personal self development tool but a tradition and method in its own right Hyleen Mariaye Associate Professor Mauritius Institute of Education Mauritius This compelling book foregrounds autoethnography as an innovative and creative research methodology to generate reflexive sociological understandings of teaching and researching across disciplines in higher education Rich evocative and authentic accounts reveal unique possibilities for the transformation of teaching learning and research at personal professional and socio cultural levels Nithi Muthukrishna Professor Emerita University of KwaZulu Natal South Africa The Mother Code Ruthie

Ackerman, 2025-05-06 In this propulsive memoir an award winning journalist blends history science and cultural criticism to uncover whether motherhood outside of society's rigid rules and expectations is possible and whether she fits the mold for what a mother should be This tender generous book does the hard work of redefining motherhood and family so that they honor all aspects of a woman's life Christie Tate author of the New York Times bestseller Group Ruthie Ackerman had long believed that the decision to not have children was a radical act She'd grown up being told that she came from a long line of women who had abandoned their kids and feared she would pass on her half brother's rare genetic disorder So when she marries a man who doesn't want children she hopes she can be happy without any But a voice in her head keeps returning to the question What if mothering can be a radical act too When her marriage veers off course she goes searching through the twists and turns of her DNA to decide once and for all whether she should become a mother By the time Ruthie finally determines that she desperately wants a child she learns that motherhood won't happen the way she thought it would Now she must enter the hall of mirrors where biology genetics and philosophy collide as she wonders what it means to both create and nurture a life What does inheritance really entail What does it mean to be a good mother When it comes down to it how important is nature versus nurture And where are the models for what a good life can look like for women both with and without children Synthesizing reportage and memoir The Mother Code unravels how we've come to understand the institution of motherhood What emerges is a groundbreaking new vision for what it means to parent a mother code that goes beyond our bloodlines and genetics and instead urges us to embrace inheritance as the legacy we want to leave behind for those we love
