100 Greatest Cult Films Christopher J. Olson, 2018-04-12 The term cult film may be difficult to define but one thing is certain A cult film is any movie that has developed a rabid following for one reason or another From highly influential works of pop art like Eraserhead and Faster Pussycat Kill Kill to trash masterpieces such as Miami Connection and Fateful Findings thousands of movies have earned recognition as cult classics over the years and new movies rise to cult status every year So how do viewers searching for the best or most important cult films decide where to start In 100 Greatest Cult Films Christopher J Olson highlights the most provocative intriguing entertaining and controversial films produced over the last century The movies included here have either earned reputations as bona fide cult classics or have in some way impacted our understanding of cult cinema often transcending traditional notions of good and bad while featuring memorable characters unforgettably shocking scenes and exceptionally quotable dialogue With detailed arguments for why these films deserve to be considered among the greatest of all time Olson provides readers fodder for debate and a jumping off point for future watching A thought provoking and accessible look at dozens of cinematic treasures this resource includes valuable information on the films creators and institutions that have shaped cult cinema Ultimately The 100 Greatest Cult Films offers readers from casual cinephiles film scholars and avid fans alike a chance to discover or re discover some of the most memorable films of all time

The Films of John Cassavetes Raymond Carney, 1994-01-28 Through words and pictures Cassavetes is shown to have been a deeply thoughtful and self aware artist and a profound commentator on the American experience

When Movies Mattered Dave Kehr, 2011-04-15 If you have ever wanted to dig around in the archives for that perfect Sunday afternoon DVD and first turned to a witty weekly column in the New York Times then you are already familiar with one of our nation's premier film critics If you love movies and the writers who engage them and just happen to have followed two of the highest circulating daily papers in the country then you probably recognize the name of the intellectually dazzling writer who has been penning pieces on American and foreign films for over thirty years And if you called the City of the Big Shoulders home in the 1970s or 1980s and relied on those trenchant incisive reviews from the Chicago Reader and the Chicago Tribune to guide your moviegoing delight then you know Dave Kehr When Movies Mattered presents a wide ranging and illuminating selection of Kehr's criticism from the Reader most of which is reprinted here for the first time including insightful discussions of film history and his controversial Top Ten lists Long heralded by his peers for both his deep knowledge and incisive style Kehr developed his approach to writing about film from the auteur criticism popular in the 70s Though Kehr's criticism has never lost its intellectual edge it's still easily accessible to anyone who truly cares about movies Never watered down and always razor sharp it goes beyond wry observations to an acute examination of the particular stylistic qualities that define the work of individual directors and determine the meaning of individual films From current releases to important revivals from classical Hollywood to foreign fare Kehr has kept us spellbound with his insightful critical commentaries When Movies Mattered will secure his place among our very best writers about all things cinematic

Placing Movies Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2023-09-01 Jonathan Rosenbaum longtime contributor to such publications as Film Quarterly Sight and Sound and The Village Voice is arguably the most eloquent insightful film critic writing in America today Placing Movies the first collection of his work gathers together thirty of his most distinctive and illuminating pieces Written over a span of twenty one years these essays cover an extraordinarily broad range of films from Hollywood blockbusters to foreign art movies to experimental cinema They include not just reviews but perceptive commentary on directors actors and trends and thoughtful analysis of the practice of film criticism It is this last element Rosenbaum s reflections on the art of film criticism that sets this collection apart from other volumes of film writing Both in the essays themselves and in the section introductions Rosenbaum provides a rare insider s view of his profession the backstage politics the formulation of critical judgments the function of film commentary Taken together these pieces serve as a guided tour of the profession of film criticism They also serve as representative samples of Rosenbaum s unique brand of film writing Among the highlights are memoirs of director Jacques Tati and maverick critic Manny Farber celebrations of classics such as Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and The Manchurian Candidate and considered reevaluations of Orson Welles and Woody Allen Jonathan Rosenbaum longtime contributor to such publications as Film Quarterly Sight and Sound and The Village Voice is arguably the most eloquent insightful film critic writing in America today Placing Movies the first collect

Times of Refreshing , Where Does it Happen? George Kouvaros, 2004 A good movie John Cassavetes has remarked will ask you questions you don t already know the answers to And in his films Cassavetes is as good as his word Taking up the radical question that Cassavetes s films consistently pose specifically where is the line between actor and character fiction and reality film and life George Kouvaros reveals the unique and illuminating position that Cassavetes s work occupies at the intersection of filmmaking and film theory Central to any understanding of Cassavetes s achievement is the issue of performance Looking at the work of Gena Rowlands Ben Gazzara and Cassavetes himself in films such as Faces A Woman under the Influence and The Killing of a Chinese Bookie Kouvaros shows how performative instances gestures words or glances open up intimations of dramas belonging neither strictly to these films nor to the everyday worlds in which they are immersed A major reassessment of the filmmaker as a formal experimenter Where Does It Happen gives Cassavetes his due as a filmmaker whose critical place in the modern cinema is only now becoming clear George Kouvaros is senior lecturer in the School of Theatre Film and Dance at the University of New South Wales Australia

The Neuro-Image Patricia Pisters, 2012-07-11 Arguing that today s viewers move through a character s brain instead of looking through his or her eyes or mental landscape this book approaches twenty first century globalized cinema through the concept of the neuro image Pisters explains why this concept has emerged now and she elaborates its threefold nature through research from three domains Deleuzian schizoanalytic philosophy digital networked screen culture and neuroscientific research These domains return in the book's tripartite structure Part One on the brain as neuroscreen suggests rich connections between film theory mental illness and cognitive neuroscience Part Two explores neuro images from a philosophical perspective paying close attention to their ontological epistemological and aesthetic dimensions Political and ethical aspects of the neuro image are discussed in Part Three Topics covered along the way include the omnipresence of surveillance the blurring of the false and the real and the affective powers of the neo baroque and the use of neuro images in politics historical memory and war

Rewriting Indie Cinema J. J. Murphy, 2019-04-16 Most films rely on a script developed in pre production Yet beginning in the 1950s and continuing through the recent mumblecore movement key independent filmmakers have broken with the traditional screenplay Instead they have turned to new approaches to scripting that allow for more complex characterization and shift the emphasis from the page to performance In Rewriting Indie Cinema J J Murphy explores these alternative forms of scripting and how they have shaped American film from the 1950s to the present He traces a strain of indie cinema that used improvisation and psychodrama a therapeutic form of improvised acting based on a performer s own life experiences Murphy begins in the 1950s and 1960s with John Cassavetes Shirley Clarke Barbara Loden Andy Warhol Norman Mailer William Greaves and other independent directors who sought to create a new type of narrative cinema In the twenty first century filmmakers such as Gus Van Sant the Safdie brothers Joe Swanberg and Sean Baker developed similar strategies sometimes benefitting from the freedom of digital technology In reading key films and analyzing their techniques Rewriting Indie Cinema demonstrates how divergence from the script has blurred the divide between fiction and nonfiction Showing the ways in which filmmakers have striven to capture the subtleties of everyday behavior Murphy provides a new history of American indie filmmaking and how it challenges Hollywood industrial practices

John Cassavetes: Lifeworks Tom Charity, 2012-06-26 Drawing on interviews with his closest collaborators Tom Charity s critical biography explores the pain and perseverance of Cassavetes widely known as a passionate and charismatic film director and producer
