Moving Into History Therapy For The American Identity:

Moving Into History John M. Vore, 2003-01-01 Before he knew he was gay before he would be abused by a priest John Vore thought of himself first and foremost as an American In essays written since 9 11 Vore challenges progressives liberals and would be victims to think differently fractured into broken selves with patchwork identities we can barely see ourselves as Americans anymore Our blindness has allowed conservatives to grab the stage of history With our very individuality broken into psychological factions how can we challenge them In remembering our capacity as Americans Vore shows how we can come together again With values rooted in spirituality and an ideology free look at our lives he delivers an open invitation to us all a road map back to the center of America

Asian American Identities, Relationships, and Post-Migration Legacies Jessica ChenFeng, Lana Kim, 2024-10-04 Bringing together the personal and professional narratives of Asian American family therapists this book offers insight into the Asian American experience through systemic theory and frameworks individual and community stories and clinical considerations The Asian American experience is still a largely invisible and unknown one especially in the field of marriage and family therapy With a contextual lens this book highlights how understanding family migration legacies and individual generational status relative to time place and context is critical to doing meaningful work with Asian Americans Filled with thought provoking case studies and reflective questions chapters discuss the impact of stereotyping on mental health the historical and present ways that Asian American racialization invisibilizes individual and collective experiences shame associated with bicultural identity gender generational trauma media representations and more Each chapter bridges these ideas to clinical practice while concurrently centering the voices and experiences of Asian American therapists This book is essential reading for marriage and family therapists and other mental health clinicians who want to deepen their understanding of relationship with and clinical support for the Asian Americans in their lives whether friends colleagues supervisees or clients

Moving History/Dancing Cultures Ann Dils, Ann Cooper Albright, 2013-06-01 This new collection of essays surveys the history of dance in an innovative and wide ranging fashion Editors Dils and Albright address the current dearth of comprehensive teaching material in the dance history field through the creation of a multifaceted non linear yet well structured and comprehensive survey of select moments in the development of both American and World dance This book is illustrated with over 50 photographs and would make an ideal text for undergraduate classes in dance ethnography criticism or appreciation as well as dance history particularly those with a cross cultural contemporary or an American focus The reader is organized into four thematic sections which allow for varied and individualized course use Thinking about Dance History Theories and Practices World Dance Traditions America Dancing and Contemporary Dance Global Contexts The editors have structured the readings with the understanding that contemporary theory has thoroughly questioned the discursive construction of history and the resultant canonization of certain dances texts and points of view The historical readings are presented in a way that encourages thoughtful analysis and allows the opportunity for critical engagement with the text Ebook Edition Note Ebook edition note Five essays have been redacted including The Belly Dance Ancient Ritual to Cabaret Performance by Shawna Helland Epitome of Korean Folk Dance by Lee Kyong Hee Juba and American Minstrelsy by Marian Hannah Winter The Natural Body by Ann Daly and Butoh Twenty Years Ago We Were Crazy Dirty and Mad by Bonnie Sue Stein Eleven of the 41 illustrations in the book have also been redacted

Rethinking the Red Power Movement Sam Hitchmough, Kyle T. Mays, 2024-06-28 Rethinking the Red Power Movement examines Red Power ideology with a focus on its many forms of solidarity with African Americans the role of gender in shaping the movement its international expansion and its current meaning in contemporary activism The Red Power Movement is often considered the apex of Indigenous activism in the twentieth century While diverse the movement is typically told through four actions Beginning with the occupation of Alcatraz in 1969 followed by the Trail of Broken Treaties in 1972 Wounded Knee in 1973 then culminating with the Longest Walk in 1978 there is a clear jumpstart middle and end to the Red Power Movement Through a chronological approach this study makes the case that Red Power never died and neither did Indigenous activism Instead it shows how Indigenous peoples found many ways to push forward Indigenous sovereignty and continue to call on the United States to value Indigenous possibilities for justice freedom and power This book is useful for students and scholars interested in twentieth century America social movements and the history of Indigenous activism

Jewish-American Identity and Critical Intercultural

Communication Miriam Shoshana Sobre,2022-11-08 Jewish American Identity and Critical Intercultural Communication Never Forget Tikkun Olam and Kindness to Strangers explores what it means to be Jewish on a personal sociocultural and global political level This book employs 50 interviews with diverse Jewish voices to provide a history of Jewish migration to the US and to privilege voices that are not necessarily White and Eastern European Ashkenazic Sobr argues for a more inclusive form of intercultural theorizing that favors intersectionality and allyship over oppression Olympics stereotypes between members of different nondominant groups and colorism within nondominant group discrimination Such siloing of differences and further competing about whose differences are the most egregious minimizes critical intercultural coalition opportunities allowing for such groups as those who gave power to Trump and Netanyahu to connect while inclusive progressives engage in fighting and separatism The author calls for transversal dialogic politics racially and historically accurate school curriculum intersectionality and more inclusive intercultural communication scholarship and practice as various means of working together against white nationalism and white supremacy in the US and the world Scholars of religious studies cultural anthropology and intercultural communication will find this book of particular interest The Oxford Handbook of Tourism History Eric G. E. Zuelow, Kevin J. James, 2025-02-24 The Oxford Handbook of Tourism History offers a critical survey of the development of the field that unites historical scholarship along thematic lines and uses examples from diverse places to examine a wide set of tourism policies practices and niches in a global transnational context

Colonial Violence and Monuments in Global History Cynthia C. Prescott, Janne Lahti, 2023-08-29 This book tackles the historical relationship between colonial violence and monuments in Africa Europe the Indian subcontinent North America and Australia In this volume the authors ask similar questions about monuments in each location and answer them following a parallel structure that encourages comparison highlighting common themes The chapters track the contested histories of monuments scrutinizing their narrative power and examining the violent events behind them It is both about the history of monuments and the histories the monuments are meant to commemorate It is interested in this nuanced relationship between violence monuments memory and colonial legacies the ways different facets of colonial violence conquest resistance massacres genocides internments and injustices have been commemorated or haven't been how they live in the present and how pertinent they are in the present to different peoples Legacies of colonial violence and continued reinterpretations of the past and its meanings remain very much ongoing They are still very much unsettled questions in large parts of the world Colonial Violence and Monuments in Global History will be essential reading for students scholars and researchers of political science history sociology and colonial studies The book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research Healing Haunted Histories Elaine Enns, Ched Myers, 2021-02-01 Healing Haunted Histories tackles the oldest and deepest injustices on the North American continent Violations which inhabit every intersection of settler and Indigenous worlds past and present Wounds inextricably woven into the fabric of our personal and political lives And it argues we can heal those wounds through the inward and outward journey of decolonization The authors write as and for settlers on this journey exploring the places peoples and spirits that have formed and deformed us They look at issues of Indigenous justice and settler response ability through the lens of Elaine's Mennonite family narrative tracing Landlines Bloodlines and Songlines like a braided river From Ukrainian steppes to Canadian prairies to California chaparral they examine her forebearers immigrant travails and trauma settler unknowing and complicity and traditions of resilience and conscience And they invite readers to do the same Part memoir part social historical and theological analysis and part practical workbook this process invites settler Christians and other people of faith into a discipleship of decolonization How are our histories landscapes and communities haunted by continuing Indigenous dispossession How do we transform our colonizing self perceptions lifeways and structures And how might we practice restorative solidarity with Indigenous communities today

Dance and Gender Wendy Oliver,Doug Risner,2018-06-11 Driven by exacting methods and hard data this volume reveals gender dynamics within the dance world in the twenty first century It provides concrete evidence about how gender impacts the daily lives of dancers choreographers directors educators and students through surveys interviews analyses of data from institutional sources and action research studies Dancers dance artists and dance scholars from the United States Australia and Canada discuss equity in three areas concert dance the studio and higher education The chapters provide evidence of bias stereotyping and other behaviors that are often invisible to those involved as well as to audiences The contributors answer incisive questions about the role of gender in various aspects of the field including physical expression and body image classroom experiences and pedagogy and performance and funding opportunities The findings reveal how inequitable practices combined with societal pressures can create environments that hinder health happiness and success At the same time they highlight the individuals working to eliminate discrimination and open up new possibilities for expression and achievement in studios choreography performance venues and institutions of higher education The dance community can strive to eliminate discrimination but first it must understand the status quo for gender in the dance world Wendy Oliver professor of dance at Providence College is coeditor of Jazz Dance A History of the Roots and Branches Doug Risner professor of dance at Wayne State University is coeditor of Hybrid Lives of Teaching Artists in Dance and Theatre Arts A Critical Reader Contributors Gareth Belling Karen Bond Carolyn Hebert Eliza Larson Pamela S Musil Wendy Oliver Katherine Polasek Doug Risner Emily Roper Karen Schupp Jan Van Dyke

American Literature and American Identity Patrick Colm Hogan,2021-11-10 In recent years cognitive and affective science have become increasingly important for interpretation and explanation in the social sciences and humanities However little of this work has addressed American literature and virtually none has treated national identity formation in influential works since the Civil War In this book Hogan develops his earlier cognitive and affective analyses of national identity further exploring the ways in which such identity is integrated with cross culturally recurring patterns in story structure Hogan examines how authors imagined American identity understood as universal democratic egalitarianism in the face of the nation's clear and often brutal inequalities of race sex and sexuality exploring the complex and often ambivalent treatment of American identity in works by Charlotte Perkins Gilman Eugene O'Neill Lillian Hellman Djuna Barnes Amiri Baraka Margaret Atwood N Scott Momaday Spike Lee Leslie Marmon Silko Tony Kushner and Heidi Schreck The Black Power Movement Peniel E. Joseph, 2013-08-21 The Black Power Movement remains an enigma Often misunderstood and ill defined this radical movement is now beginning to receive sustained and serious scholarly attention Peniel Joseph has collected the freshest and most impressive list of contributors around to write original essays on the Black Power Movement Taken together they provide a critical and much needed historical overview of the Black Power era Offering important examples of undocumented histories of black liberation this volume offers both powerful and poignant examples of Black Power Studies scholarship Fear: An American History Willie Turner, 2022-08-30 History is the foundation of all great societies Willie authored this book to explore why throughout world and specifically American history the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth century writers took upon themselves to manipulate or rewrite history in their image His book is written to correct dates times and events that were changed kept hidden or forgotten Willie has uncovered some hidden history that would explain why the world has entered its end time He learned how because of fear America's foundation is built on a bed of sand not solid rocks Sand that is slowly being washed away He exposes the secrets as to how few people have caused so many to struggle for their mere existence on earth how religion became the cornerstone for slavery throughout the world This book explains how and why ignorance has caused so many divisions among the people in America and around the world how a coup d'etat in America's past caused majority of the people in America to become slaves struggling to survive in the richest society on earth why slavery has always been a part of the fabric of America starting from so long ago how politics and politicians are leading great nations down a road of destruction and how greed and power has consumed so many people to worship money over God Legacies Steven Lubar, Kathleen M.
