Moving Zen One Mans Journey To The Heart Of Karate:

Moving Zen C. W. Nikoru, Munehiro Ikeda, 2001 A classic story of one man's confrontation with the self through Karate. In 1962 at age twenty-two C W Nicol left Wales to study Karate in Japan. He quickly found that the study of the martial art engaged his whole being and transformed his outlook on life. Moving Zen is the multifaceted story of a young man who arrived in Japan to study the technique and spirit behind Karate. Joining the Japan Karate Association or Shotokan Nicol discovered that Karate while extremely violent also called for politeness and a sense of mutual trust and responsibility. He learned that the stronger the Karateka the more inclined he was to be gentle with others. Those who have gained a measure of skill but have not yet achieved spiritual maturity are the dangerous practitioners. Studying kata Nicol came to realize that these forms are in essence Moving Zen and that the ultimate goal of all the martial arts is tranquility. Through the help of many gifted teachers C W Nicol gained his black belt and moved progressively closer to his goal of tranquility. His story Moving Zen was first published in 1975 and has achieved the status of a modern classic.

The Multiverse as Theory in Postmodern Speculative Fictional Narratives Angélica Cabrera Torrecilla, Francisco Sáez de Adana, 2024-11-15 The Multiverse as Theory in Postmodern Speculative Fictional Narratives considers the concept of the multiverse beyond the immediacy of being merely an excuse or scenario for the development of stories, instead positioning the multiverse as a theoretical method in which speculative fiction narratives can explore diverse issues to bridge ideas across cultural social and philosophical analysis Taking a cross cultural approach the book centres around the critical engagements that literary and media texts have with the representations of the multiverse beyond considering this subject as a mere rhetorical flourish or a passing fad A diverse and international team of authors engage with the multiverse from the point of view of other worlds understanding it not as the appearance of another independent world but as the collision of two or more different worlds into one of them From this key finding the multiverse encourages us to pay attention to the influence that fiction exerts on narratives and world building providing possible frameworks to rethink critical aspects of temporality space self society and culture in contemporary times This pioneering work will interest students and scholars working in the areas of media and cultural studies comparative literature popular culture studies speculative fiction and transmedia studies
