Davies, Molaria Ogundipe-Leslie, 1995 Portrayals and Gender Palaver in Francophone African Writings Sanusi, Ramonu, 2018-09-24 The late 1960s witnessed the emergence of African women writers on the African literary space earlier dominated by African men African women s writings largely focus on deconstructing the patriarchal order religious prescription and cultural mores in order to tear women s veil of invisibility The topics covered in the book are comprehensive and include among others The Francophone African Novel Religious and cultural constructs of African women The poetic constructs of African women Fictional constructs of subaltern African women Marriage and the subordination of women Physical and sexual exploitation of women Women and Polygamy in men s fiction African women writers and the utilitarian function of their art Female protagonists in fiction by African women Discourse on the oppressors and the oppressed African feminism Western Feminism Black Women's Rights Carole Boyce Davies, 2022-11-01 Black Women s Rights Leadership and the Circularities of Power presents Black women as alternative and transformative leaders in the highest political positions and at grassroots community levels Beginning with a critique of the assumption of an equivalence between masculinity and political leadership Carole Boyce Davies moves through the various conceptual definitions intents and meanings of leadership and the differences in the presentation of practices of leadership by women and feminist scholars She studies the actualizing of political leadership in the Presidency of Ellen Johnson Sirleaf the historical role of Shirley Chisholm as the first woman to run for presidency of the United States on a leading party ticket the promise of the Black left feminist leadership of Brazilian Marielle Franco and the current model of Prime Minister Mia Mottley of Barbados in advancing new leadership models from the Caribbean This book proclaims the 21st century as the century for Black women s leadership

Womanism, Literature, and the Transformation of the Black Community, 1965-1980 Kalenda C. Eaton, 2010-06-21 This book examines how cultural and ideological reactions to activism in the post Civil Rights Black community were depicted in fiction written by Black women writers 1965 1980 By recognizing and often challenging prevailing cultural paradigms within the post Civil Rights era writers such as Toni Morrison Alice Walker Toni Cade Bambara and Paule Marshall fictionalized the black community in critical ways that called for further examination of progressive activism after the much publicized end of the Civil Rights Movement Through their writings the authors confronted marked shifts within African American literature politics and culture that proved detrimental to the collective wellness of the community at large A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism

Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century

The Cambridge Companion to Transnational American Literature Yogita Goyal,2017-02-15 This book provides a new map of American literature in the global era analyzing the multiple meanings of transnationalism Constructs of "home" in Gloria Naylor's Quartet Claudia Drieling,2011

"Colón Man a Come" Rhonda D. Frederick, 2005-01-01 To date there has been no literary examination of the Col n Man even though he recurs in 19th and 20th century Anglophone and Francophone Caribbean Literatures Named for PanamO's Caribbean port city the Col n Man has been the subject of historical, sociological, and geographical scholarship He however has escaped the domain of literary investigation until now Author Rhonda Frederick brings us the first ever book length study of the literary representations of the Col n Man Fictive accounts of PanamO migration draw on precisely what has been little documented or not at all In other words this region's literature and songs as well as Col n Men's recollections complicate existing studies These first person accounts and creative narratives in the form of song, stories, literature, etc. of isthmian migration suggest that fictive renditions of canal work and workers represent Col n Men's undocumented, unknown, and/or ignored realities Col n Man a Come: Mythographies of PanamO Canal Migration examines several works of fiction George Lamming's In the Castle of My Skin, Michael Thelwell's The Harder They Come, Eric Walrond's Tropic Death, Claude McKay's Banana Bottom, and Maryse Conde's Tree of Life And perhaps most significantly this book relies on the personal narratives and songs of Col n Men to support the forgotten, lost, ignored, and yet imaginable truths of PanamO Canal migration

The Daughter's Return Caroline Rody, 2001-04-12 The Daughter's Return offers a close analysis of an emerging genre in African American and Caribbean fiction produced by women writers who make imaginative returns to their ancestral pasts Considering some of the defining texts of contemporary fiction Toni Morrison's Beloved, Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea, and Michelle Cliff's No Telephone to Heaven, Rody discusses their common inclusion of a daughter who returns to the site of her people's founding trauma of slavery through memory or magic Rody treats these texts as allegorical expressions of the desire of writers newly emerging into cultural authority to reclaim their difficult inheritance and finds a counter plot of heroines' encounters with women of other racial and ethnic groups running through these works

Mosby, 2003 With the current growth of interest in Afro-Hispanic and Afro-Latin American cultural and literary studies, this book will be essential for courses in Latin American and Caribbean literature, comparative studies, diaspora studies, history, cultural studies, and the literature of migration

BOOK JACKET Deferrals of Domain NA NA, 2016-04-30 Contemporary female novelists tend to portray the relationship between women and the state as profoundly negative in contrast to various constructions in current feminist theory Martine Watson Brownley analyzes novels by Margaret Atwood Paule Marshall Nadine Gordimer and Margaret Drabble to explore the significance of this disparity The book uses literary analysis to highlight elements of state power that many feminist theorists currently occlude ranging from women s still minimal access to state politics to the terrifying violence exercised by modern states At the same time however feminist theory clarifies major elements in many contemporary women s lives about which the novels are ambivalent or misleading such as romantic love and the role of sexuality in state politics Deferrals of Domain fills a double gap both authorial and topical in current critical treatments of women writers and will be of interest to both literary and women s studies scholars Sucking Salt Meredith Gadsby,2006 Examines the literature of black Caribbean emigrant and island women including Dorothea Smartt Edwidge Danticat Paule Marshall and others who use the terminology and imagery of sucking salt as an articulation of a New World voice connoting adaptation improvisation and creativity offering a new understanding of diaspora literature and feminism Provided by publisher Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies,2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Kathleen Sheldon,2005-03-16 The core of the dictionary is the formal entries on nearly 700 topics individuals organizations events and publications The book opens with an essay on African women s history and includes a chronology of African women s history a list of acronyms and a country index to facilitate finding entries on particular topics There is also a bibliography of nearly 2 000 citations that is organized first into historical periods and then into twenty topical categories including art education health human rights literature marriage slavery and urbanization
