Music, Narrative and the Moving Image, 2019-05-15 In extending the traditional field of Word and Music Studies to include research on film and other forms of moving visualizations this volume focuses on innovative discussions of artistic works showing relationships between three individual communicative media This trifocal interdisciplinary perspective is reflected in seventeen essays that cover the historical space from the 19th to the 21st centuries and discuss a wide variety of individual genres in the represented media These range from Parisian cabaret to revolutionary Peking opera from silent film to Holocaust narration from documentary propaganda movies to opera film interludes and more The investigation of historical cases is broadened by reflections on theoretical and functional issues primarily in film music which show a remarkable breadth of technical and perceptual varieties The essays here collected are of relevance to scholars and students of film studies musicology and literature as well as readers generally interested in Intermediality Studies

Mapping the Moving Image Pasi Väliaho, 2010 In Mapping the Moving Image Pasi Valiaho offers a compelling study of how the medium of film came to shape our experience and thinking of the world and ourselves By locating the moving image in new ways of seeing and saying as manifest in the arts science and philosophy at the turn of the twentieth century the book redefines the cinema as one of the most important anthropological processes of modernity Moving beyond the typical understanding of cinema based on optical and linguistic models Mapping the Moving Image takes the notion of rhythm as its cue in conceptualizing the medium's morphogenetic potentialities to generate affectivity behaviour and logics of sense It provides a clear picture of how the forms of early film while mobilizing bodily gestures and demanding intimate affective engagement from the viewer emerged in relation to bio political investments in the body The book also charts from a fresh perspective how the new gestural dynamics and visuality of the moving image fed into our thinking of time memory and the unconscious Moving Images, Mobile Bodies Horea Avram, 2018-07-27 The book comprises a series of contributions by international scholars and practitioners from different backgrounds researching in the fields of contemporary visual culture and performance studies This collection addresses the issue of corporeality as a discursive field which asks for a poetics and the possible ways in which technology affects and is affected by the body in the context of recent artistic and theoretical developments The common denominator of the contributions here is their focus on the relationship between body and image expressed as the connection between reality and fiction presence and absence private and public physical and virtual The essays cover a wide range of topics within a framework that integrates and emphasises recent artistic practices and current academic debates in the fields of performance studies visual arts new aesthetics perception theories phenomenology and media theory The book addresses these recent trends by articulating issues including the relationship between immediate experience and mediated image performing the image the body as fictional territory performative idioms and technological expression corporeality presence and memory interactivity as a catalyst for multimediality and remediation visuality performativity and expanded spectatorship and the tensions between public space and intimacy in social media environments The main strength of this volume is the fact that it provides the reader with a fresh insightful and transdisciplinary perspective on the body image relationship an issue widely debated today especially in the context of global artistic and technological transformations

Love, Mortality and the Moving Image E. Wilson, 2012-02-21 In their use of home movies collages of photographs and live footage moving image artists explore the wish to see dead loved ones living This study closely explores emotions and sensations surrounding mortality and longing with new readings of works by Agnès Varda Pedro Almodóvar Ingmar Bergman Sophie Calle and many others Philosophy and the Moving Image Noël Carroll, 2021 This book is a selection of essays by Noël Carroll at the intersection of film and TV and major divisions of philosophy including metaphysics epistemology ethics politics and aesthetics Animal Life and the Moving Image Michael Lawrence, Laura McMahon, 2019-07-25 From the proto cinematic sequencing of animal motion in the nineteenth century to the ubiquity of animal videos online the histories of animal life and the moving image are enigmatically interlocked Animal Life and the Moving Image is the first collection of essays to offer a sustained focus on the relations between screen cultures and non human animals The volume brings together some of the most important and influential writers working on the non human animal's significance for cultures and theories of the moving image It offers innovative analyses of the representation of animals across a wide range of documentary fiction mainstream and avant garde practices from early cinema to contemporary user generated media Individual chapters consider King Kong The Birds The Misfits The Cove Grizzly Man and Microcosmos the work of Sergei Eisenstein Robert Bresson Malcolm Le Grice Peter Greenaway Carolee Schneemann and Isabella Rossellini and YouTube stars Christian the lion and Maru the cat
